AGENCY FAIR AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--On September 21, students of the University of San Diego will explore possible areas of involvement in the community at an Agency Fair to be held on campus.

More than fifteen agencies will participate in this USD Community Development Program. Booths will be set up in the Student Union from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Among those recruiting volunteers to serve needy San Diego citizens will be Bayside Settlement House, The Epilepsy Society, San Diego Heart Association, Home of Guiding Hands, Mental Health Friendship Center, Metro, Project Concern, Inc., and the San Diego Public Welfare Department.

A University of San Diego program for tutoring deaf children, particularly in the area of religion, will also be represented.
