ALCALA TRIO OPENS FALL CONCERT SERIES AT USD

IMMEDIATE RELEASE - September 27, 1973

San Diego, California

The University of San Diego Fall concert series will open Sunday, October 14 with an afternoon performance by the Alcala Trio. Curtain time is 4:00 p.m. in Camino Theatre on the Alcala Park campus.

Trio members Marjorie Hart, 'cellist, Ilana Mysior, pianist, and Dr. Henry Kolar, violinist have each performed extensively in San Diego as solo performers.

Currently Associate Professor of music at USD, Marjorie Hart was a former member of the San Diego Symphony and La Jolla Players. She specializes in music history as well as the violincello.

Ilana Mysior, also a past member of the San Diego Symphony, has returned to USD's music faculty this Fall after completing a year sabbatical. During that time Mrs. Mysior studied classroom methods in schools in 25 states and 10 countries, and performed chamber music in each city she visited.

Dr. Henry Kolar, Associate Professor of Music, is well known in San Diego circles as a member of the Trio. He was also a former member of the Modern Arts Quartet and played with the San Diego Symphony for 8 years; during his last two years with the Symphony Kolar served as concertmaster.

Sunday's concert program will include "Sonata #4" for violin and piano, by Mozart; "Second Trio, Op. 98" in the form of a suite, by Vincent d'Indy; and "F-Minor Trio, Op. 65" by Dvorak. The program is free and open to the public.
