HOLTVILLE STUDENT HONORED AT USD CONVOCATION

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Diego, California

Betty Britschgi, of Holtville, California was named for membership in Kappa Gamma Pi Honor Society at the sixth annual University of San Diego Honors Convocation May 18. Miss Britschgi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Britschgi, Sr., of Holtville.

Majoring in music in the College of Arts and Sciences, Miss Britschgi was among four senior women nominated for membership in the National Women's Honor Society for Catholic Colleges, a scholastic and leadership society. Her past honors include highest academic average in her freshman class, freshman and sophomore class honors, and Who's Who in American Colleges in 1972-73. Betty graduated from Holtville High School.

The University of San Diego is comprised of one college and three professional schools: the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, School of Education and School of Law. USD offers a complete undergraduate program and graduate studies leading to a Masters Degree. Day and evening classes are held on the centrally located campus. Forty-two states and twenty-two foreign countries are represented in USD's student body of 2,600.
