C. Jimenez-C.

The Congregation of the Children of Mary of the Sacred Heart, founded by St. Madeleine Sophie in the early days of the Society, is devoted, as its name implies, to the Heart of Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

A Child of Mary pledges herself to aim at a perfect Christian life. Her promise consecrates her to the fullest service of Jesus Christ and His interests, in imitation of Our Lady, and under her protection.

On the feast of Mater Admirabilis, October 20, Angel Kraemer, Kathrine Seabrook, and Irma Serrano were received into the Congregation. Nancy Adams, Rosalie Parkman, Susana Jimenez-C. and Patricia Mulcahy were received on the feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. On the feast of the Annunciation, March 25, Elise Clark, Gloria Ravettino, Kate Basile, and Mary Luque were received.

UNUM

This publication was conceived, founded, and titled in the hope that it might be a means of helping students realize their Christ-given motto, UT OMNES UNUM SINT, "That all may be one." Toward that end, students, graduates, and faculty members of every department are invited to contribute.

UNUM made its debut on February 11, 1957 in loving tribute to the foundress of the college, Reverend Mother Rosalie Hill, on the occasion of her Golden Jubilee of Profession. In gratitude to Reverend Mother Hill for the college and its motto, UNUM will continue to make its appearance yearly on February 11. The 1958 issue was dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes in honor of the centenary of her first apparition and to Mother Madeleine Lambin, our beloved missionary from France, who will celebrate her Golden Jubilee on August 15, 1958.

A black and white photograph of a football game in progress. The scene is captured from a low angle on the field, looking towards the center. A large crowd of spectators fills the stands on the left side of the frame. A tall stadium light tower is visible in the background. The football players are in various positions on the field, some in white jerseys and others in darker jerseys. The image is tilted slightly to the right.

Christmas Parties, Travel Highlights

By TERRY FALK

Reunions with friends and former classmates rank high in the holiday plans of many San Diego College for Women students.

Luncheons for high school classmates are planned for the holiday period by sophomore Marie Campbell of Chicago and freshman Nancy Leal of Worcester, Mass. Sophomore Judy Earls will hold an open house New Year's Day at her home.

Donna Hunter, former student at Alcala Park, will be feted in Chicago at the home of sophomore Janet Beck. Former classmates Marcie O'Connor and Karen Campbell also will entertain in her honor.

Senior To Be Feted

Senior Mary Beth McGurk of Hartford, Conn., will be honored today at a supper dance by her parents the E. B. McGurks. The dance is slated for the Hartford Country Club.

Ann Dyer, senior, and James N. Sullivan were honored at a party yesterday in San Mateo. The couple's engagement was announced last week.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. James E. Dyer of San Francisco and the late Capt. Dyer, USN. Her fiancé, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sullivan of Menlo Park, is completing his studies at the University of Notre Dame.

Vacations in Desert

Sandra Philippi, senior, is spending the Christmas holidays in Palm Springs. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester J. Philippi, journeyed to the desert community from their home in Minneapolis, Minn.

Alcala Park Inaugurates 'Christkindl' Yule Custom

By TERRY FALK

New traditions are being inaugurated at the San Diego College for Women with the approach of the Christmas season.

For the first time the Austrian "Christkindl" custom is being observed by the coeds. Similar to the American custom of the "secret sister," a Christkindl receives a kind deed or favor from her counterpart each day.

Tomorrow the names of the Christkindls will be discovered when each student receives a gift with the secret name attached at the annual Christmas party sponsored by the student council.

The party will follow the traditional Christmas dinner for resident students.

Advent Wreath Made

Another holiday custom being observed at Alcala Park is the lighting of the Advent wreath. The large evergreen wreath, surmounted by four tall candles, has been placed in the college dining room.

On the four Monday evenings preceding Christmas a new candle is lighted. The third lighting of the wreath will take place tomorrow.

The college Christmas pageant, "The Candle in the Window," will be presented today.

Concert Parties Planned

Sixty coeds from the Women's College will attend the performance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Symphony this evening at the Russ Auditorium.

Ann Dyer, chairman of the College fine arts committee said that a pre-concert party will be held at the rehearsal hall.

The party will be sponsored by the Women's Auxilliary of San Diego.

Dr. David Nyvall, college music professor, addressed the students early in the week on the music to be presented at this evening's concert.
