The Chicano Park Murals Documentation Project was born as a result of the Department of Ethnic Studies with support from the Office of Community Service Learning at the University of San Diego (USD) through working collaboratively with the Chicano Park Steering Committee (CPSC) for over the past two years. It was the desire of the CPSC that the current mural restoration project be documented along with all of the other murals and sculptures found at Chicano Park. As a result, Professor Alberto Pulido, along with his students in Ethnic Studies 343: "Chicano/Latino Studies" took on the task as a way to learn about the important history of the Chican@ movement through the history of Chicano Park utilizing an applied scholarship perspective that is central to the Ethnic Studies curriculum at the University of San Diego.

We wish to thank all of the student from ETHN 343 who made this project possible. They are: Alexa Sanchez, Daniela Conde, Debora Villegas, Diana Aguiar, Janell Johnson, Jasmine Mallen, Julian Duran, Maria Ruvalcaba, Michelle Padilla, Mina Nhi Nguyen, Sara Padilla, Victor Sanchez, Yasamin Mahallaty with support from our student liaison Chelita Borbón. Tommie Camarillo, Annie Ross, Rosa Olga Navarro, and Rigo Reyes from the CPSC and its members require special recognition for working collaboratively with USD. The artists: Victor Ochoa, Mario Torero, Carmen Kahlo, Sal Barajas, Raul Jacquez, David Avalos, Guillermo Rosette, Felipe Aldame and all the others who have dedicated their lives to making Chicano Park "El Ombligo de Aztlán" - muchas gracias for your support! We thank Katie Gordon who gave her time to take all of these photos. Allen Wynar from the Media Center at USD patiently guided us throughout this project. and gave us the idea of putting it together in a book. Chris Nayve from the Office of Community Service Learning has always supported the work of Ethnic Studies. My colleague Gail Pérez provided great wisdom and support to all of us. To all of you we say: ¡Muchas Gracias Y Qué Viva Chicano Park!

Soy danzante por amor
Amis ritos y a mi Dios
Es mi danza, esperanza
Es bonanza, es pudor
Con mi concha bailaré
Con mi canto envocaré
Con mis pasos voy diciendo
Mis secretos guardaré
En mi mano llevaré
Y ese escudo portaré
Como ensignia de grandeza
Que mi danza pelearé Bailo que bailo y siempre bailaré
Este hermoso rito yo te lo enseñaré Que bonito es mi rito
Que en mi sangre llevaré
Soy ser y nunca dejare
Ma vida entera la dedicare
Pues primero esta mi danza Queda RAZA yo heredo

Soy danzante por amor
Amis ritos y a mi Dios
Es mi danza, esperanza
Es bonanza, es pudor
Con mi concha bailaré
Con mi canto envocaré
Con mis pasos voy diciendo
Mis secretos guardaré

*I am somebody
they be down badly
but I am somebody*

*I may be considered
the lowest on earth
but I am somebody*

*I can't allow myself to sit in solitude & misery
cause I am somebody*

*I grow up in low rent housing sometimes I lived in the slums
but I am somebody*

*I got with bad company
begging and stealing
for what I thought was right
that didn't make me any less
I am still somebody*

*I read an article
where a black youth was jailed
he stole some food
he got 15 to 20 years
he was somebody*

*I killed a white in self defense but the jury doesn't care
and when he came for me,
to prepare trial
he said she deserves the chair*

*Every hurtin pain I feel inside every time I pick up the morning news to see my name on the front page I begin to wonder
they make me feel
less than somebody
I love to live free
I won't let no man
put his hands on me
take away my life

Don't write

*I am somebody
I may be down today
I may be considered
I can't & I won't allow myself to sit in solitude & dismay
Cause I am somebody
I grew up in low rent housing
he stole some food.*
