Overview

The University of San Diego is an independent Catholic institution of higher education located on 180 acres overlooking San Diego's Mission Bay.

USD is known for its commitment to teaching, the liberal arts, values and community involvement. It is an institution which takes pride in the personalized approach it brings to the educational process.

Chartered in 1949, USD enrolls more than 5,600 students who may choose from more than 50 undergraduate and graduate degree programs, ranging from marine sciences to business administration. The University's academic units include the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Schools of Business Administration, Education, Law and Nursing. The School of Graduate and Continuing Education coordinates the graduate programs of all schools with the exception of the Law School.

Throughout its history, USD has remained committed to the ideals of liberal education and to recognizing the dignity of men and women as human beings and as creatures of God. As a Catholic institution, the University is committed to examination of the Catholic tradition as the basis of a continuing search for meaning in contemporary life.

The 16th century Spanish architectural style of the campus buildings and beautiful campus grounds create a pleasant atmosphere for both students and visitors.

USD offers a year-round calendar of concerts, art exhibitions and lectures open to the public. Its men's and women's sports teams compete against national opponents in campus sports facilities.

THE CAMPUS

USD's 180-acre campus is located atop a mesa overlooking San Diego's Mission Bay, just off of Interstates 5 and 8. The campus includes more than 60 buildings designed in 16th century Spanish-style architecture.

The upper campus includes all of the University's administrative and classroom facilities. Located at the east end of campus are the new Alcalá Vista apartments, the Mission housing complex, graduate student apartments and the Sports Center, which contains an Olympic-sized swimming pool, gymnasium, stadium, tennis courts, weightlifting area and playing fields.

Recently constructed facilities include the University Center, a 74,500-square-foot building which houses dining, meeting and office areas; the Alcalá Vista apartments, a 156-unit student apartment complex; Olin Hall (1984), home to the School of Business Administration; the Douglas F. Manchester Executive Conference Center (1984) and the Helen K. and James S. Copley Library (1984).
