Research Week is free and open to the public, so please join us!
For more information, go to www.sandiego.edu/osp.
Join USD students and community members to create a collaborative origami display.

TuesdaY, April 18  |  12-2 p.m.
Creative Collaborations Undergraduate Research Conference (CCURC)
Hahn University Center Forums

The 27th Annual Creative Collaborations Undergraduate Research Conference will feature multidisciplinary presentations of student-faculty research, scholarship and creative works. CCURC 27 will be held in the Hahn University Center, Student Life Pavilion Exhibit Hall and La Gran Terraza patio during Research Week.

TuesdaY, April 18  |  12-2 p.m.
Mulvaney Center
Hahn University Center Foyer

The Mulvaney Center and the Changemaker Hub partner with the community to cocreate community-based research that fosters civic-minded leaders by supporting students and faculty to engage locally and globally. This year’s research project will highlight the work of faculty and students through the Impact Linda Vista Initiative.

TuesdaY, April 18  |  4-5:30 p.m.
Research Week Kick-Off Reception (Invitation Only)
Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice, Garden of the Sea

USD community members who have submitted proposals in the last year will be honored by the offices of Sponsored Programs, the Vice President and Provost, and the President. Wine and cheese will be served.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  9:45-11 a.m.
Behavioral Neuroscience Tours
Serra Hall, Room 106

Students and faculty are excited to share the newly renovated behavioral neuroscience laboratories located in Serra Hall. Come see research in action, focusing on sleep, learning, memory and other exciting brain-based topics.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  10 a.m.-12 p.m.
Shiley-Marcos School of Engineering Open House
Loma Hall, Cymer Ideaation Space

This open house will feature various poster-format examples of research collaboration between students and faculty, from both Shiley-Marcos School of Engineering and the cyber security program.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  11 a.m.-12 p.m.
Mathigami
Maher Hall, Salomon Lecture Hall

Join USD students and community members to create a collaborative origami display.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  12:10-3 p.m.
School of Business Student-Faculty Dialogue
Olin Hall, Room 341

Student-faculty research opportunities and experiential education activities in business courses will be discussed. Students who have participated in intercollegiate academic competitions will describe how participating in the competitions contributes to career preparation.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  12-7 p.m.
Traffic 2017 Opening Reception
Humanities Center, Serra Hall, Room 200

Alongside its regular activities (including seminars, lectures and research working groups), the Humanities Center is hosting in its gallery an exhibition titled Traffic 2017, a student-led exhibition of current student work produced at USD. The exhibition’s opening reception will include performance pieces and readings.

Digital Humanities Student Projects
Humanities Center, Serra Hall, Room 200, Digital Humanities Studio

For the last two years, USD has offered an innovative course exploring the intersection of technology with the humanities (ENGL 294 Intro to Digital Research in 2016, and ENGL 494 Digital Humanities in 2017). The course is being offered in the state-of-the-art Digital Humanities Studio in the new Humanities Center. See samples of student projects in the Digital Humanities Studio on Wednesday afternoon, April 19th.

WednesdaY, April 19  |  1-3 p.m.
College of Arts and Sciences Lab Tours
Shiley Center for Science and Technology Atrium

The Shiley Center for Science and Technology houses some of the finest faculty research laboratories on campus. Take a guided tour and get inspired talking with faculty researchers in physics, environmental and ocean science, chemistry and biology. Learn how practical experience and global research opportunities help prepare students for a meaningful career and purposeful life.

ThursdaY, April 20  |  9:30-10:30 a.m.
Justice in Mexico
Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice, Room 253

Justicia in Mexico, a research and public policy program based at the University of San Diego, will release its 2017 special report, “Drug Violence in Mexico: Data and Analysis Through 2016.” As in previous years, this report compiles the latest available data and analysis to evaluate trends related to drug trafficking and organized crime in Mexico. Please join Justice in Mexico’s director, Dr. David Shirk, and program coordinator Octavio Rodríguez for this special presentation. Please RSVP by April 18 at https://drugviolencemexico2017.eventbrite.com.

ThursdaY, April 20  |  12-2 p.m.
Creative Collaborations Undergraduate Research Conference (CCURC)
Hahn University Center Forums

The 27th Annual Creative Collaborations Undergraduate Research Conference will feature multidisciplinary presentations of student-faculty research, scholarship and creative works. CCURC 27 will be held in the Hahn University Center, Student Life Pavilion Exhibit Hall and La Gran Terraza patio during Research Week.

ThursdaY, April 20  |  12-2 p.m.
Veterans Center
Hahn University Center Foyer

The USD Military and Veterans Program is recognized as one of the best in the nation for support provided to our military population. The program uses a student-focused approach to work with all military-connected students from initial consideration through alumni status.

ThursdaY, April 20  |  2-3 p.m.
Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award Mixer
Hahn University Center Forums

The Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award Mixer recognizes research mentors who bring respect and excellence to the practice of mentoring undergraduates in research and scholarly activities, and who have a longstanding commitment to the development of research scholars.

ThursdaY, April 20  |  2:30-4 p.m.
Kroc School of Peace Studies Open House
Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice Rotunda

Drop by to chat with Kroc School faculty members about their latest research on human rights, social movements and war, new books on forced disappearances in Mexico, trafficking and slavery in India and patterns of insurgency in Asia and Africa.

MondaY, April 17 to FridaY, April 21
British Modern Prints from the British Museum: From the Great War to the Grovesnor School

This exhibit features works recently acquired from the world-renowned British Museum print collection.

MondaY, April 17 to FridaY, April 21
British Modern Prints from the British Museum: From the Great War to the Grovesnor School

This exhibit features works recently acquired from the world-renowned British Museum print collection.

MondaY, April 17 to FridaY, April 21
A Memorial Exhibition
Duncan McCook, 1944-2016:
Galleries, various locations
Traffic 2017

This exhibit surveys 40 years of this talented photographer’s work.

MondaY, April 17 to FridaY, April 21
A Memorial Exhibition
Duncan McCook, 1944-2016:
Galleries, various locations
Traffic 2017

This exhibit surveys 40 years of this talented photographer’s work.

MondaY, April 17 to FridaY, April 21
A Memorial Exhibition
Duncan McCook, 1944-2016:
Galleries, various locations
Traffic 2017