A Message From President Hughes

The men's basketball program is integral to the University's athletic endeavors, just as the athletic program is integral to our view of education - which is that education should develop the whole person.

This program moved from NCAA Division II to Division I in 1979, and each year has seen increasing strength and competitive capabilities in the USD team. The University is proud of the team's accomplishments, and pleased to support the program in every way possible, including scholarship aid to our athletes, recognition of the values of the program, and promotion of intercollegiate athletics. I believe our USD team will be receiving some national attention this year, and I look forward to watching the season's events unfold.

TOM IANNAZONE

Director of Athletics

Tom Iannaccone is in his fifth year as the University of San Diego Director of Athletics. He assumed the position September 1, 1988 after a nationwide search.

The 51-year-old Iannaccone has made great strides in his first four years. His accomplishments at USD include an on-going internal reorganization of the athletic department, plus improvements in the major areas of personnel, scholarship assistance, facilities, promotions and marketing, fund raising, drug education and academic support. In addition, he was instrumental in USD gaining membership to the new Pioneer Football League, which begins in 1993.

Iannaccone came to the University of San Diego with an impressive list of credentials and a thorough knowledge of intercollegiate athletics. Prior to USD, he was Director of Athletics for four years at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pennsylvania.

Hard work, loyalty and dedication are just some of the words that easily describe Iannaccone. His major contributions at St. Francis included the expansion of sports offerings and scholarships for both men and women, improved budgets, renovation of athletic facilities, the hiring of additional staff, and the establishment of a master plan for the future and continual development of athletics. He served on several committees, most notably the Eastern Collegiate Athletics Conference (ECAC) Infractions committee and the Northeast Conference committee on conference development, which developed a plan for the future and implemented the position for a full-time commissioner. Iannaccone also served as a consultant to the NCAA I-AAA Football Committee.

Prior to his tenure at St. Francis, Iannaccone served as assistant athletic director at Fordham University from 1977-84. Along with his administrative duties at Fordham, he was an assistant football coach for the Rams. From 1975-78, he acted as offensive coordinator and backfield coach as Fordham captured 19 victories in their final 24 games during this span. The 1977 squad was and remains the highest scoring team in Fordham history, averaging 34 points per game.

In 1983 Iannaccone was presented the prestigious Jack Coffey Award by the Alumni Association for outstanding contributions to Fordham athletics. He also served on various Metro Atlantic Conference committees.

Prior to Fordham, Iannaccone taught physical education and coached track and football in the Norwalk, Ridgefield and New Milford (CT) school districts from 1964-76. He made his collegiate football coaching debut as an offensive backfield coach at Western Connecticut State University in 1974.

A 1964 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Iannaccone received his master of science degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State University in 1973.

Tom and his wife, Cynthia, have three children: Tom Jr., Jennifer and Eric; all three are students at USD.

'92-93 TORERO BASKETBALL

The 1992-93 version of the University of San Diego men's basketball team will be one lined with a lot of new.

With five seniors completing their eligibility from USD's 14-14 ball club a year ago, head coach Hank Egan will look to six returners, a transfer that sat out the 1991-92 season, and six first year freshmen, to fill out his thirteen-man roster. With so much new, it is hard to evaluate how the young Toreros will fare in the 1992-93 season.

Two players coach Egan and the Toreros will look to for leadership and experience are senior co-captains Gylan Dottin and Geoff Probst. Dottin, a 1991-92 Honorable Mention All-West Coast Conference performer and fifth year senior, is the team's top returner after pacing last year's team in rebounding (6.5) and finishing second in scoring (11.8) to team MVP Kelvin Woods. The 6'5", 220 lb. senior, who has gained some added strength and size in the off-season, can play both small and power forward positions. A "slasher" on offense who gets a lot of offensive rebounds, Gylan is also the team's top defensive player. Probst, who plays the game with a true point guard mentality, led last year's squad in assists (91), steals (32) and minutes played (950). The 5'11" guard, who was named the team's 1991-92 recipient of the Zable Athletic Excellence Award, has worked hard in the off-season to improve his shooting skills.

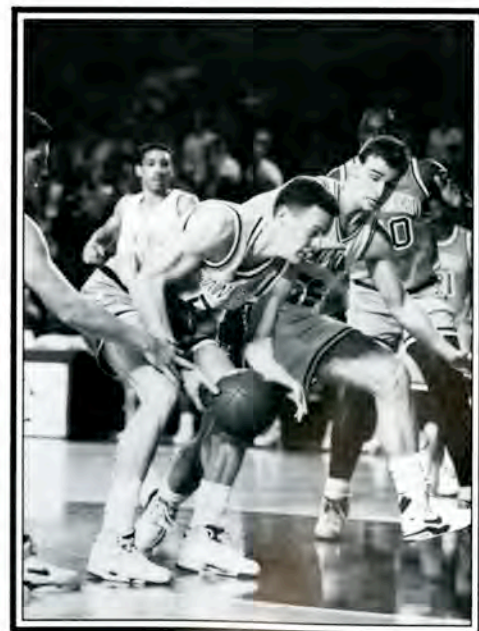

Heading the list of the other four returners is 6'9" junior center Brooks Barnhard, who averaged 6.6 ppg in 27 games last season. Barnhard, who underwent back surgery during the 1990-91 season, will be a major factor in the team's success. If he stays healthy, he should be just as good, if not better, than how he played early last season before experiencing back ailments again. Looking to take some heat off of Barnhard down in the trenches will be 6'8" junior forward Christopher Grant (4.7 ppg). Grant, who now has a year under his belt in the USD system, will be expected to lend Barnhard a hand in the rebounding department, and in defending the opponents' power players down low. Looking for more action in '92-93 will be junior swingman Joe Temple (6'4", 208 lbs.) and 6'3" junior off-guard Neal Meyer (one of the team's best outside shooters).

Seeing his first action with the Toreros is sophomore guard Doug Harris (6'0", 174 lbs.). Harris, who sat out last season after transferring from Fresno State University, is a solid, all-around player with scoring ability, good quickness and outstanding open court skills.

As far as quality and numbers go, coach Egan's incoming group of six freshmen is his best recruiting class since he arrived on the Alcalá Park campus in 1984. This group, which encompasses every position on the court, is headed by a pair of 6'7" prepsters - Sean Flannery (Salpointe Catholic HS in Tucson, AZ) and Brian Bruso (South Lake Tahoe HS). Flannery, a good competitor who can shoot it, is expected to see action at the off-guard position. A four-time First Team All-State performer, Sean averaged 21.3 ppg his senior year and finished as the #2 all-time career scorer in Arizona state history. Bruso had a solid senior campaign at South Lake Tahoe where he averaged 21.6 ppg and 14.0 rpg. He's a versatile player that can shoot it facing the basket; he can score down low; and he has the ability to run the floor well.

Rounding out the freshman class is 6'2" point guard David Fizdale (Fremont HS), a player who understands the game of basketball and is an excellent defensive player; 6'4" swingman Val Hill (Tucson HS), a very good competitor who can flat get after you on defense; 6'6" forward Ryan Hickman (Fairfax HS), a big, strong inside player that is effective around the basket; and 6'9" center Rocco Raffo (Salinas HS), a player with good size who with added strength and experience, will help the Toreros down the road.

After two early season exhibitions in November, the Toreros will open up their 1992-93 campaign against San Diego State on December 1st in the annual city championship game. After a trip to the Hawaii Classic (Hawaii, Cal State Long Beach, Tulsa), the Toreros will be tested by teams like UCLA, Weber State, George Washington, Southern Methodist and Oral Roberts. The Toreros will open up West Coast Conference play on January 9th with a road game at Santa Clara University.

Hank Egan

9th Year As USD Head Coach

Coach Hank Egan begins his ninth season with the USD Toreros and twenty-second as a Division I head coach. Last season's 14-14 campaign marked the sixth time in eight years that Egan posted a .500 or better record at the helm of the USD program.

Coach Egan has tallied an impressive eight-year record at San Diego of 125-101, as well as a 79-32 mark in the USD Sports Center. His .553 winning percentage at USD is tops among the coaches that were at the helm of the USD basketball program at least two years. Entering his twenty-second year, Coach Egan takes a career mark of 273-286 into the 1992-93 campaign.

A key highlight of Egan's career at USD was his 1986-87 team that finished 24-6 overall and won the West Coast Conference regular-season championship with a record of 13-1. At the NCAA's that year, the Toreros suffered a tough 62-61 loss to Auburn University in the tournament's first round; however, that year's team completed its most successful season ever. Along the way, USD won fourteen consecutive games, won the regular-season West Coast Conference championship with a 13-1 record and finished with a school record 24 victories. Coach Egan's peers from the WCC voted him the 1986-87 Coach of the Year. In 1985-86, he guided the Toreros to a fine record of 19-9 and was named Co-Coach of the Year in the WCC, sharing the honor with UCLA's Jim Harrick (formerly head coach at Pepperdine).

A recognized expert in the technical aspects of the game, Hank has an impeccable reputation for integrity, and is a coach who "gets the most" out of his players. Acknowledged as one of the finest defensive coaches in the nation, good defense is a trademark with Egan-coached teams. His 1986-87 team finished #1 in the nation in field goal percentage defense (.401) and in the top-ten in scoring defense (60.3). His 1985-86 team finished 8th in the nation in FG% defense, limiting opponents to 42.4% shooting.

Prior to USD, Hank coached at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs for eighteen years, thirteen as the head coach. Highlights of his coaching career include his 1986-87 club that finished 24-6 and participated in the NCAA Tournament, his 1985-86 team that finished 19-9, and his 16-9 Air Force club from 1976.

As evidence of the high regard in which he is held by his colleagues and basketball people in general, Hank was the alternate coach to George Raveling (USC) for the 1984 United States Olympic Basketball Team; he was a coach in the Olympic tryouts in Bloomington, Indiana, and also scouted South American Olympic teams in San Paulo, Brazil; he is a member of the Legislative Commission of the National Basketball Coaches Association of America; and, was one of only ten coaches chosen in 1984 by the NCAA to participate and represent the country's coaches in a special meeting of Presidents, Athletic Directors, and Faculty Representatives called to study the strengthening of academic requirements for intercollegiate athletics.

Before becoming the second head coach in Air Force basketball history, Egan was the freshman mentor for two seasons and was chief scout and recruiter during the 1970-71 season. From 1966 to 1968, he was an assistant junior varsity coach.

A three-time basketball letterman at Navy, he also played several seasons on Air Force service teams and has coached on both the military and AAU levels. Hank graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1960 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering.

His hobbies include golf, racquetball, reading and crossword puzzles. Hank and his wife Judy have two children, John and Kelly.

Randy Bennett

Fifth Year

Randy Bennett begins his fifth year at the University of San Diego as a full-time assistant to coach Hank Egan.

His primary responsibilities will be in the areas of recruiting, scouting and on-court coaching.

Prior to his 1988 appointment at USD, Randy coached two seasons (1986-88) with the University of Idaho as a part-time assistant. Their 1987-88 team finished 19-11 and second in the Big Sky Conference. Before his stint with Idaho, he was a volunteer assistant at USD (1985-86) while finishing his undergraduate degree at the University of California, San Diego. The past five summers he has directed Hank Egan's Boys Basketball Camps.

A 1986 graduate of UC San Diego, Randy received his B.S. degree in Animal Physiology. He played two years of basketball at UC San Diego (1983-85) and two years at Mesa Community College (1980-82) in Mesa, Arizona under his dad, Tom Bennett. In his two years at Mesa, the team went 56-10 and made it to the nationals his freshman year.

Randy, currently working on his Master's degree in Education, is single and resides in San Diego.

Mike Haupt

First Year

Mike Haupt begins his first year at the University of San Diego as a full-time assistant to coach Hank Egan. He will assist in the areas of recruiting, scouting and on-court coaching.

The 26-year-old Haupt played two years (1986-87; 1987-88) at USD under Coach Egan. As a junior in 1987-88, Mike started 17 straight games and was the team's leading rebounder before he was lost for the remainder of the season and his career with an injury to his right knee.

He received the team's Leadership and Student-Athlete of the Year awards after the 1986-87 campaign.

A 1989 graduate of USD with a degree in Business, Mike was Coach Egan's graduate assistant during the 1989-90 season. The past three years Mike worked as Assistant Director of Operations for USD. In 1991 he graduated with his Master's from USD's School of Education.

The past two years Mike held the title of League Director for the Youth Basketball Association (YBA), a position that encompassed San Diego County freshman high school teams.

Mike prepped locally at Mira Mesa High and was the 1984 San Diego County Player of the Year.

Jack Avina

Third Year

Beginning his 3rd season with Hank Egan's coaching staff, Jack Avina offers a wealth of experience to USD.

At the helm of the University of Portland program for 17 years (1970-87), Jack is on staff in a part-time capacity and will be involved exclusively with teaching situations and in direct contact with the players.

As head coach of the University of Portland of the West Coast Conference, Avina posted a 17-year mark of 222-243. He is currently the tenth winningest coach in WCC history. In his last 10 seasons with the Pilots, Jack averaged 15 wins per season. His 1977-78 squad may have been his best, finishing 19-8 overall and 9-5 in the league, earning Avina WCC Coach of the Year honors.

He started at the University of Portland after coaching at three different high schools and at San Mateo JC in California. His JC teams had a combined 140-80 record.

Between 1987-89 he was head coach of a professional team in Turkey. During the summer of 1984, he worked with Coach Egan at the Olympic Tryouts in Bloomington, Indiana.

Jack and his wife Claire have six children and make their home in Portland, Oregon.

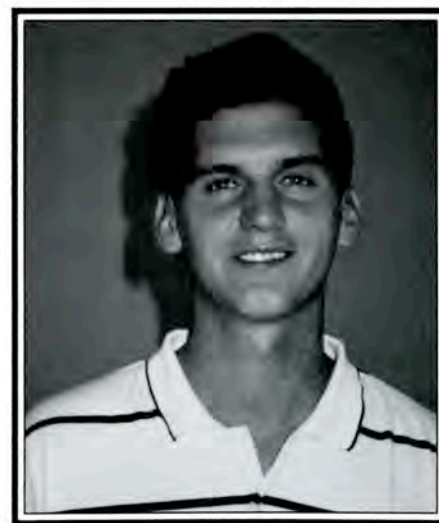

Kyle Smith

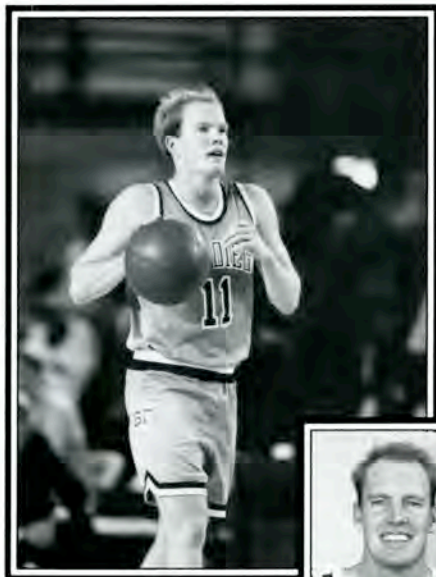

Manager

Kyle Smith will be the Toreros manager for the upcoming 1992-93 season. A first year graduate student in the University of San Diego's Education Department, Kyle is working towards a Master's degree in Educational Leadership.

The 23-year-old Smith is a 1992 graduate of Hamilton College where he earned a degree in English and minor in sociology. A four-year basketball performer on Hamilton's team, Smith helped lead his 1990-91 squad to a 26-1 season (24-0 regular season finish) and #1 national ranking among NCAA Division III teams. As a starting point guard, he averaged 10.0 ppg and led the team in assists, steals, free throw percentage and three-point accuracy.

A native of Houston, Texas, Smith prepped at Alief Hastings High School (1988 graduate). A volunteer manager for the Toreros, Smith hopes to get into college coaching in the future.

San Diego is truly "America's Finest City." A modern metropolis (second largest in California) and a popular year-round resort, San Diego spreads from the coast to the desert, including cliffs, mesas, hills, canyons and valleys. San Diego also surrounds one of California's greatest natural harbors which has been a dominant factor in determining the city's history, economy and development.

As home of the largest naval air station on the west coast, the federal government ranks first in economic importance to the city with the aerospace equipment industry second. Tourism closely follows as third. Business and pleasure coexist in harmony in San Diego. The climate, attractive setting and recreational facilities make San Diego "America's Finest City."

According to Sports Illustrated, "For sheer numbers of participants, diversity of pursuits of involvement, San Diego must rank as the sports and fitness capital of the U.S." Sports are a major feature of the San Diego lifestyle. One can sail, swim, surf, scuba dive, snorkel, wind-surf on 70 miles of public beach or golf at any of the over 70 golf courses throughout the county. Balboa Park, a 1,158-acre recreation and cultural center, offers 25 tennis courts, two gymnasiums, two municipal golf courses and one of the nation's finest zoos. Mission Bay Park is a 4,600-acre playground for jogging, fishing, bicycling, tennis, golf and kite flying.

As well as participating in recreational activities, San Diego supports their professional teams--the Chargers in football, the Padres in baseball, the Sockers in soccer and the Gulls in hockey. Whatever sporting activity there is, it's here in San Diego--the sports capital of the U.S.A.

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

The University of San Diego is an independent Catholic university located on a 170-acre mesa overlooking Mission Bay, San Diego Harbor, and the Pacific Ocean. The campus is named Alcalá Park after the Spanish university town where St. Didacus (i.e., Diego) spent much of his time.

Complementing its splendid natural setting is the University's location just 10 minutes from downtown San Diego - conveniently close to the major business, cultural, residential, and recreational areas, as well as the rail, bus and air terminals.

Founded in 1949, USD is presently experiencing record attendance. Undergraduate enrollment stands at 3,900, graduate students bring the overall campus enrollment to over 6,000.

The University includes a College of Arts and Sciences, and Schools of Business Administration, Education, Nursing, and Law. Each is characterized by high academic standards, small classes, and excellent student-faculty relations.

Though the majority of students come from the West Coast, every region of the United States is well-represented on campus. Students also attend USD from 24 foreign countries.

In January of 1987, USD opened the doors to its new University Center, a 74,500 square foot building for students, faculty and staff. The two level Center is the largest building on campus. It is the eighth major project completed at USD during the past ten years. It's a place for people to meet for leisure and fun, and a place for extracurricular activities.

Recreation, intramural and athletic activities are expanding rapidly. Among the many recreation and intramural programs offered, some of the favorites include: Mission Bay Aquatic Center activities (water skiing, surfing, sailing, crew), modern dance, aerobics, bowling, karate, backpacking, softball, tennis, floor hockey and volleyball.

THE WEST COAST CONFERENCE

The basketball courts of the West Coast Conference run from the eastern pine forests of the Pacific Northwest to the crowded beaches of Southern California. Gonzaga University, Loyola Marymount University, Pepperdine University, the University of Portland, Saint Mary's College, the University of San Diego, the University of San Francisco and Santa Clara University make up the NCAA I league.

All are private institutions with exceptional academic and athletic traditions, and have made up the WCC for the past dozen years. The current alignment has remained unchanged since 1980. San Francisco has won 16 men's hoops titles followed by Pepperdine (9), Santa Clara (6), Loyola Marymount (4), Saint Mary's (3) and San Diego (2).

Basketball is what got the West Coast Conference its start as the California Basketball Association back in 1952. No one suspected at the time the number of legendary players who would battle on the courts of the league in the subsequent 41 years. Former WCC players sport NBA championship rings (Bill Cartwright, San Francisco), Olympic Gold Medals (John Stockton, Gonzaga), and statues in the National Basketball Hall of Fame (Bill Russell, K.C. Jones, and Phil Woolpert, USF), Phil Smith, Dennis Johnson, Rick Adelman, Darwin Cook, Kurt Rambis, Tom Meschery, Bo Kimble, the late Hank Gathers, and most recently, Doug Christie spent their formative years pounding the hardwoods of the Conference.

The WCC is no longer merely a basketball league, as it offers a total of 11 championships for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, tennis and soccer) and women (basketball, cross country, tennis, soccer, and volleyball). The league owns NCAA automatic bids in men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer and volleyball. Last year, the WCC advanced a representative from each of its sports to the NCAA championships.

PITCHES, DIAMONDS, COURTS AND COURSES

While basketball gets most of the attention, it's not the only WCC sport. In fact, the conference has gained national recognition as having one of the top baseball and soccer leagues in the country. Santa Clara tied for the national soccer crown in 1989. Portland has been in four straight NCAA soccer tournaments while San Diego advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1990. USF has won the soccer national championship four times. In baseball, Pepperdine won the 1992 national baseball title, and has won eight of the last nine WCC crowns. Countless players have gone on to professional baseball careers after playing collegiately in the WCC. In tennis, the University of San Diego captured the WCC crowns in 1989 and 1990, while Pepperdine has won the past two. USD senior Jose Luis Noriega became the school's first ever four-time NCAA All-American, and participated in the NCAA Tournament each year (1989-92).

This is the eighth season of WCC women's sports, and the sixth with conference membership mirroring the men's league. Gonzaga, Portland and St. Mary's upgraded their programs to the Division I level just five years ago. Gonzaga won the women's title in their first Division I season, St. Mary's won it in 1989 and 1990, and Santa Clara took the title in 1991. Santa Clara, Portland and San Francisco ended in a three-way tie in 1992. Portland has captured the cross-country crown in each of the last five years. Pepperdine is a perennial champion in volleyball and tennis, though the competition and quality of play in all four sports - basketball, cross country, tennis and volleyball - is improving annually. The San Diego women's tennis team has advanced to the NCAA Tournament the past four years. In 1990-1991, the USD doubles team of Julie McKeon and Laura Richards advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Doubles Championships and both garnered All-America status. 1992 was the initial season for women's soccer as a WCC sport.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Current WCC members have won 14 NCAA team championships, most recently the 1992 baseball crown by Pepperdine. USF has seven titles (four in soccer, two in basketball, one in tennis) followed by Pepperdine with four (three in volleyball and one in baseball), and Santa Clara (soccer) and Gonzaga (boxing) with one apiece.

Pepperdine has three individual tennis champions and Gonzaga has a trio of boxing winners. San Francisco has won individual championships in tennis and fencing while Loyola Marymount won an individual track title. San Diego picked up a pair of Division II team tennis crowns and Pepperdine won two track awards prior to joining the WCC. Portland captured its first national title in 1986, in NAIA cross country. Saint Mary's also won the NAIA soccer championship that year.

1993 WCC CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT ...

San Francisco Here We Come

The 1993 West Coast Conference men's basketball tournament returns to its roots on March 6-7-8 at the University of San Francisco. This is the third time USF's Memorial Gym serves as the venue for deciding the WCC's automatic NCAA bid. The very first league championship took place there in 1987 and the 1989 tournament holds the attendance record.

All eight WCC members will battle through three days of action which opens on Saturday, March 6, with two double-header sessions. Session 1 starts at 11:30 a.m. and Session 2 follows at 6:00 p.m. The second game of each session will commence 30 minutes following the completion of the preceding game.

Sunday's semi-final round starts at 5:00 p.m. and the two winners advance to Monday's championship game which will be televised live nationally on ESPN. The championship contest will tip off at 9:07 p.m., Pacific time.

First round match-ups are determined by the final regular season conference standings with #1 playing #8, #2 versus #7, #3 against #6 and #4 facing #5. The tournament follows a "re-seeding" format as opposed to a straight bracket, meaning that the highest seeded team will always play the lowest remaining seed in each round.

PAIRINGS ANNOUNCEMENT

The official bracket and game times for the tournament will be announced via a media conference call on Monday, March 1, beginning at 10:00 a.m. Contact the WCC Office for further information at (415) 873-8622.

HEADQUARTERS HOTEL

The WCC Tournament headquarters hotel in San Francisco is the Holiday Inn - Golden Gateway at the corner of Van Ness and California. The media rate is $83 and reservations may be made either through the WCC office or directly with the hotel at (415) 441-4000.

TICKETS

Tickets for the tournament are available through the University of San Francisco ticket office at (415) 666-2873, or by contacting any WCC member institution's athletics department.

Ron Reina

"Voice of the Toreros"

USD MEN'S BASKETBALL AND KSDO JOIN FORCES AGAIN

For the second straight season, all 27 regular season games plus the West Coast Conference post-season tournament will be carried, home and away, live on San Diego's KSDO Radio (1130 AM).

Veteran sportscaster Ron Reina, KSDO Sports Director, will handle the game broadcasts that include a pre-game and post-game show for every Toreros basketball game.

Ron started his broadcasting career in Stockton, California where he began doing the play-by-play announcing for football, basketball and minor league baseball games. He was known as the "Voice" of University of Pacific football and basketball games between 1967-69. After moving to San Diego in 1969, Ron took over the play-by-play for San Diego State football and basketball games on KDEO Radio until 1972.

The SDSU games moved to KFMB Radio and so did Ron Reina. He spent six years there doing play-by-play and daily sportscasts until 1978. He also did weekend sports on KFMB-TV, Channel 8.

Ron joined KSDO Radio in 1978 and has done Sports Talk Shows, Chargers Talk, Aztec play-by-play (5 seasons) and USD basketball (1 season). As the KSDO Sports Director, Ron covers the afternoon drive-time sportscasts.

Ron and his wife, Marilee, reside in the Encinitas area of coastal San Diego County.
