ALCALÁ

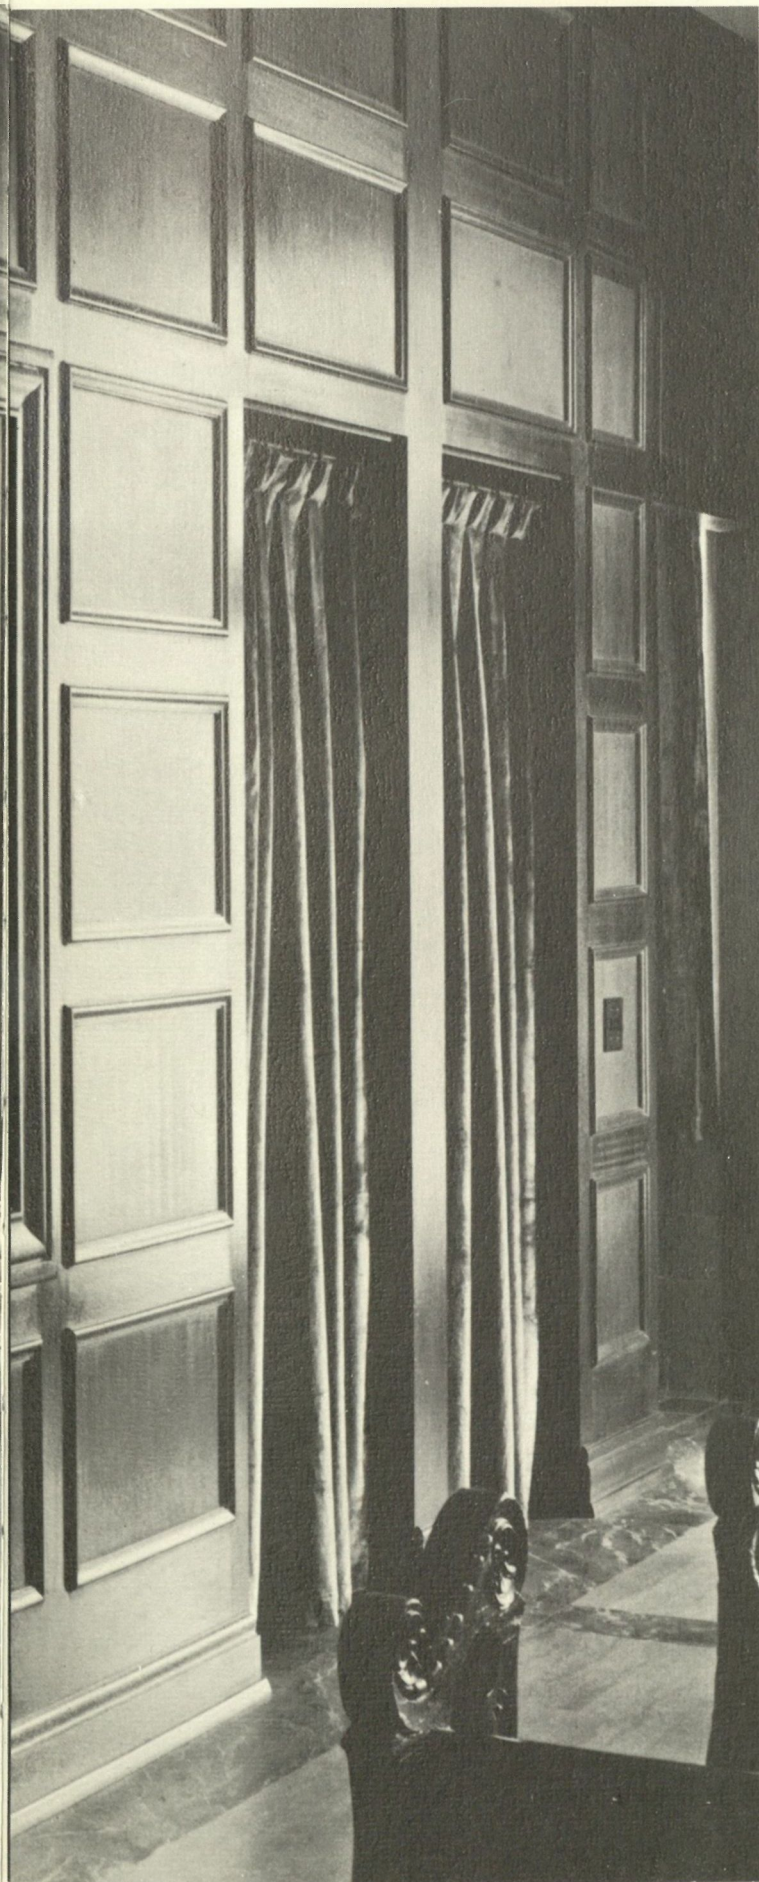

1965

SAN DIEGO COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

Prologue . . .

St. Madeleine Sophie Barat
Centenary: May 25, 1965

In loving gratitude
To St. Madeleine Sophie,
Foundress of the Society of the Sacred Heart,
Whose spirit of selflessness
And zeal and love
Permeate all aspects of university life.

To him that gives me wisdom,
will I give glory.

Mass of St. Madeleine Sophie.

Dedication:

For the students . . .
who bring a spirit of
intensity,
immediacy and individuality
to the University of San Diego.

The first task of man aspiring to wisdom is the consideration of what he himself is:
what is within him, what is without, what below, what above, what opposite, what before and what after.

John of Salisbury

There is a harmony in Autumn,
and a lustre in its sky
Which thro' the Summer is not heard or seen.

Shelley

Golden Jubilee
September 1964

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in His Holy place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart.

David. Psalm 23.

Faculty

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness. If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

Kahil Gibran

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high;
Where knowledge is free;
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls;
Where words come out from the depth of truth;
Where tireless striving stretches
its arms towards perfection;
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead
habit;
Where the mind is led forward by Thee into ever-widening thought and action.

Cover Design: Karen Schipper and Tom Malowney

The San Diego College for Women's year-book is the Alcala which captures the spirit of the university during the spring and fall terms. A small, but enthusiastic, staff worked throughout the year to produce a truly representative recording of 1964-65.

Alcala Park Players

Officers

Kathy Zaworski, Virginia Conway, Ann Gray, Marion Synder (not pictured: Lynn Horobetz)

The Alcala Park Players is the drama club at the San Diego College for Women. The members are devoted to promoting and producing dramatic productions at the college, and in sponsoring interest in dramatics elsewhere in the city. Their two major productions were Burnt Flower Bed by Ugi Bett, and You Can't Take It With You by Kaufman and Hart. The members of the club participate in other plays during the year also.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association fosters collegiate enthusiasm by arranging for intramural competition in volleyball, basketball, and tennis; by encouraging extracurricular activities such as golfing and boating; by competing with other San Diego groups; and by awarding the "Spirit Banner" to deserving classes, during the various sports seasons.

Science Club

Officers

Gay Guzinski, Lauren Back, Rita Hager,
Elizabeth Hirst

The Science Club is a campus organization which promotes student scientific interests through speeches by faculty, guests, and girls who have done independent research. Along with lectures and field trips, the members also publish a newsletter with scholarly articles and information about graduates who are working in various scientific fields.

Children of Mary

President
Mary Bernadette Schoen

The Congregation of the Children of Mary of the Sacred Heart, consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, is the spiritual organization at the College. Its members strive for closer union with Christ through Mary and a more active and meaningful participation in the liturgy of the Catholic Church. Weekly discussions are held by the members, and the club sponsors guest lecturers and workshops on topics concerned with the commitment of a Child of Mary to Christ in His Apostolate.

Tabernacle Society

Mary Ellen Olivares, Joyce Baldwin, Kathy Hughes, Mary Bernadette Schoen. (Mother McShane, moderator)

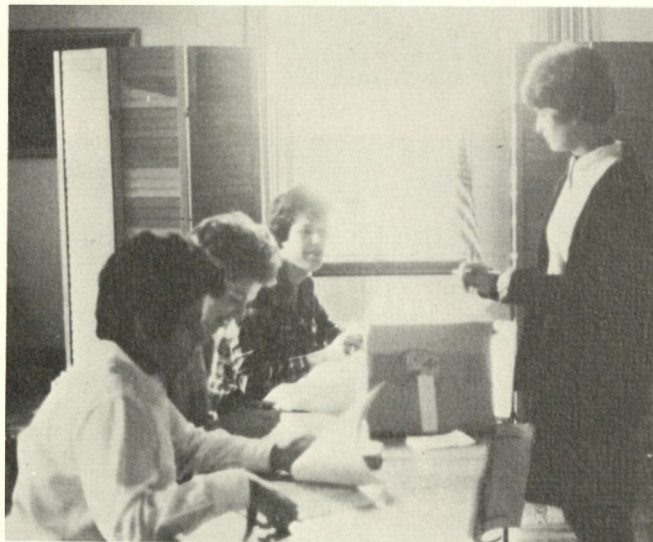

The Tabernacle Society is quietly at work throughout the year designing and making liturgical vestments, to be presented as gifts for such occasions as Christmas and Easter. Many of the churches in San Diego enjoy the vestments.

International Relations Club

Officers:
Nicki Nye, Marion Snyder, Kathleen Zaworski

The International Relations Club fosters student interest and participation in politics and world happenings. It provides for group discussions on current issues, for guest speakers, and for participation in the meeting of the Model United Nations. The Club this year conducted a mock presidential election, before which guest speakers of the Republican and Democratic Parties spoke.

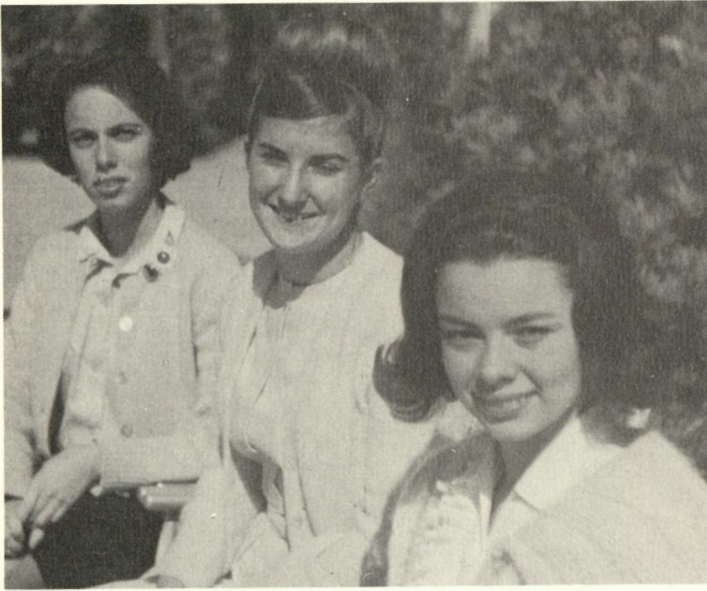

President
Peggy Baker

Speakers' Bureau

The Speakers' Bureau has as its primary objectives the training of its members in the art of speaking and leadership. Discussions on topics of student interest are conducted at the meetings, and the club provides speakers for civic organizations. This year the Speakers' Bureau combined with that of the College for Men in a program which brought members of each club to the Seniors in the Parish High Schools of Religion and to Junior Colleges throughout San Diego. The students spoke on the advantages of higher education, especially in a Catholic College.

French club officers
Charlotte Broadus, Jeanne Woody,
Marilyn Margutti

Language Clubs

The French and the Spanish Clubs are two of the language groups at the College. These clubs meet regularly and study the people, culture, and language of France and Spain. They sponsor field trips, lectures and movies to acquaint the students with Spanish and French speaking peoples. The meetings are designed to provide opportunities to practice the foreign language.

The proper study of Mankind is Man.
Alexander Pope

With thee conversing I forget all time,
All seasons, and their change . . .

John Milton

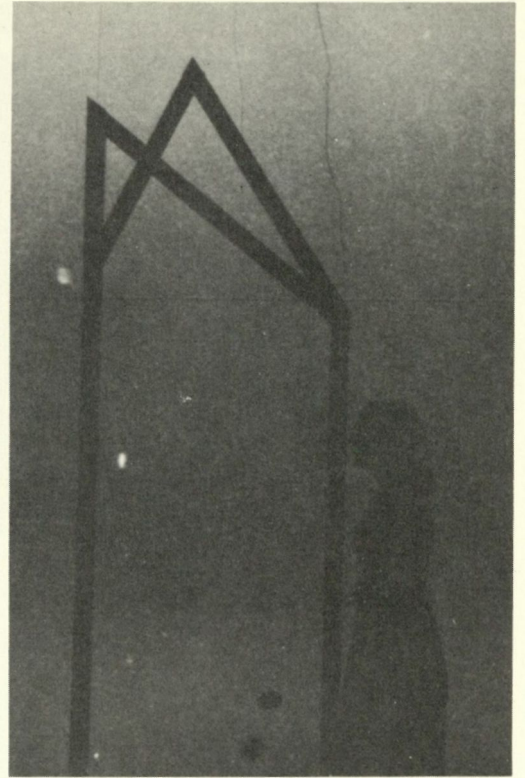

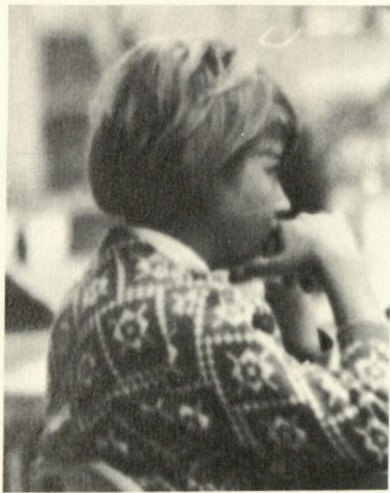

How still, how happy! Now I feel
Where silence dwells is sweeter far
Than laughing mirth's most rapturous swell . . .

Emily Bronte

A joy that's shared is a joy made double.

John Ray

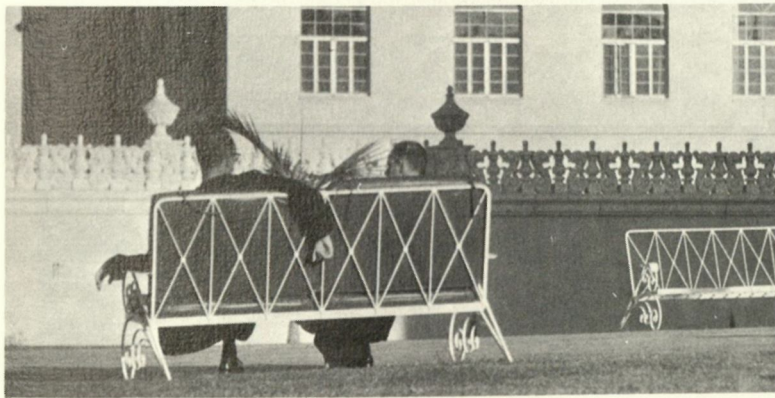

To have enough to share — to know the joy of giving; to thrill with all the sweets of life — is living.

Anonymous

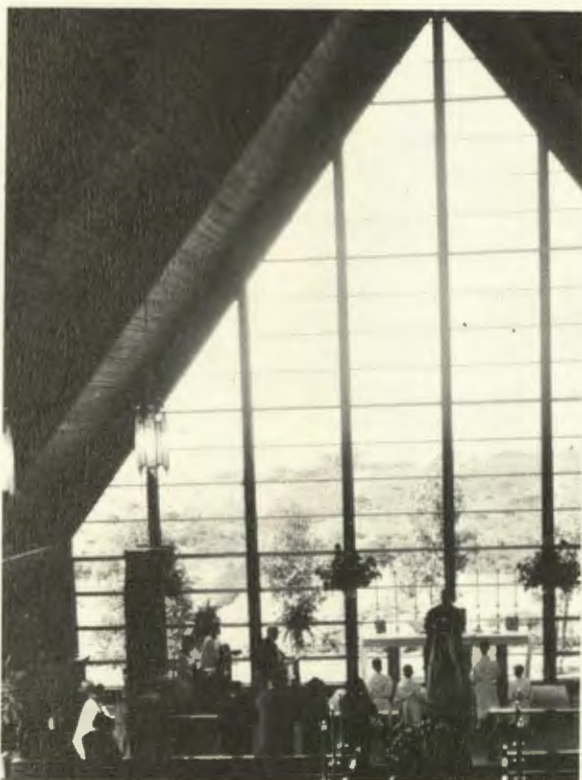

Ye princes, Keep your realms
and circumscribed power
not wide as are my dreams nor rich as is this hour.

He fathers-forth whose beauty
is past change:
Praise him.

Gerard Manley Hopkins
