USD HOME COURSES

The Farms
The Farms Golf Club was originally built in 1988 by Pete Dye and later remodeled in 2000 by the team of John Fought and Tom Lehman. This private facility is located in the ruggedly beautiful terrain of Rancho Santa Fe, one of San Diego's most prestigious communities. At just over 6900 yards, the golf course offers a layout that is both challenging and enjoyable to play every day. The club's practice facility includes a double-ended grass only range, two putting greens, and one of San Diego's best short game facilities. The Farms is easily one of the best courses in San Diego County.

Del Mar Country Club
Located in the prestigious community of Rancho Santa Fe, Del Mar Country Club is one of San Diego's most exclusive country clubs. This outstanding facility is located a mere 3.8 miles from the famed Del Mar Thoroughbred Club and Racetrack. The course is just over 7,000 yards and always kept in impeccable shape. With numerous hazards, it is challenging for every level of golfer. The practice facilities include a double-ended grass only range, two practice putting greens and a large chipping area with a bunker. The European landscaping, rolling hills, and ocean views make Del Mar Country Club one of San Diego's premier private clubs.

The USD golf program would like to thank all of the courses that generously offer their facilities to the golf team during the school year. The Toreros thank you for your support.

WEST COAST CONFERENCE
Tim Mickelson
Head Coach

Tim Mickelson has done a remarkable job in two complete seasons as the head coach of San Diego’s men’s golf program. Mickelson is coming off a 2004-05 season in which he shared West Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors, guiding San Diego to its first tournament victory since 2000. Inheriting a Torero team that had placed in the lower half of the WCC in 2003, Mickelson immediately led San Diego to a top-tier conference finish in his first year directing the fortunes of USD golf. Mickelson’s second campaign was highlighted by San Diego winning team championship honors at the 17-school, 2005 Men’s Fidelity National Title held at Cypress Ridge Golf Course on California’s Central Coast.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at USD Mickelson spent two seasons as assistant to Dale Walker at San Diego State, helping lead the Aztecs to back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Regionals, as well as an appearance in the 2003 NCAA National Championships. Additionally, he played a key role in recruiting, scheduling, fund-raising, daily practices, booster/alumni relations, and the running and operation of two tournaments annually. Additionally, he is the published author of a book about college golf recruiting titled The Road to College Golf.

Mickelson was an outstanding collegiate player at two PAC-10 programs. He played his first three seasons at Arizona State (1995-98) where he was a member of the 1996 NCAA Championship team. Mickelson also earned Academic All-PAC-10 honors in 1997 and 1998. He went on to play his senior year at Oregon State University (1998-2000) where he led Oregon State to a 2nd place finish in the 2000 PAC-10 Championships, and also finished 2nd individually. The current holder of numerous OSU golf records, including low 18, 36, 54, and 72 hole scoring records, he graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Liberal Studies. Tim is the younger brother of current PGA tour pro Phil Mickelson.

Ryan Ressa
Assistant Coach

Ryan Ressa brings two years of PAC-10 coaching experience to San Diego as a first-year assistant coach for Tim Mickelson in 2005-06. Ressa, a collegiate player and coach at Washington State from 2002-05, will handle a wide range of duties for the USD program. As an assistant coach at Washington State, Ressa gained experience in recruiting, practice planning, academic support services, tournament travel and program budgeting. During the summers of 2004 and 2005, Ressa worked as a lead instructor at the Stanford Golf Camp for junior golfers.

A native of Pullman, Washington, Ressa posted four top 25 finishes for the Cougars in 2002-03, including placing eighth overall at the U.S. Intercollegiate at Stanford, California. Before transferring to WSU, Ressa claimed the California Junior College State Championship playing for College of the Desert. He was named the Foothill Conference MVP and earned all-state honors. Ressa also made the Dean’s List before graduating in 2002.

The University of San Diego, which sponsors sixteen NCAA Division I intercollegiate teams, competes under the athletic nickname ‘Toreros.’ In 1961, the Most Reverend Bishop Buddy, the founding father of USD, announced that the school’s nickname would change from Pioneers to Toreros. “The name Toreros is keeping with the friendly relationship which exists between San Diego and Mexico,” His Excellency said at the time. Torero comes from the Spanish term ‘Toro’, the bull, and from the word ‘Torear,’ to fight bulls. All of the contestants in the ring are called ‘Toreros’. Torero is a general term describing a bullfighter and signifies courage, honor and fidelity. USD student-athletes, like the Torero, represent a willingness to stand alone in the ring and accept the challenge. The 2005-06 school year marks the 45th season with Toreros as the official nickname for USD athletic teams.

MEN'S HISTORY

The WCC has sponsored men's golf championships since 1969, and the USD Toreros have been compet-ing since 1980. The 2006 WCC golf championships will be held at Saddle Creek Golf Club, April 17-18, 2006 in Copperopolis, California.

The Toreros have had 30 student-athletes place among the top-10 finishers at the WCC Championships with Patrick Hawkins (1998) and Brett James (1985) walking away with the individual medalist honors and WCC trophy.

As a team the Toreros have placed in the upper-di-vision fourteen different times with a program-best 2nd place finish in five different seasons (1998, 1985, 1984, 1982 and 1980).

The Toreros have also fared well in the classroom among their WCC competitors. Since 1992 San Diego has placed 24 student-athletes on the WCC All-Aca-demic Squad. Current senior Jimmy Harris has been honored the past two seasons. To be selected student-athletes must be a starter or key contributor and carry a cumulative grade-point average of 3.2 or above (4.0 scale) in the classroom. Over the past two seasons, joining Harris was Michael Shelly in 2005, and Yen Yi Chen and Tim Cureton in 2004.
