

University of San Diego

Digital USD

San Diego Regional Climate Collaborative

The Nonprofit Institute

12-2021

San Diego Regional Climate Collaborative Annual Report 2021

San Diego Regional Climate Collaborative, The Nonprofit Institute

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digital.sandiego.edu/npis-dclimate>

ANNUAL REPORT 2021

Connecting the region to advance climate change solutions

Engaged with

300+

attendees through our network meetings and continues to support 27 member organizations representing more than 80% of the San Diego region

Increased SDRCC's operational capacity & welcomed

4 Advisory Board Members

3 Staff Members

Established our LinkedIn page for stronger regional engagement and outreach gaining over 230 followers in 4 months

Leveraged more than

$750,000

in new funding for regional climate resilience projects and programs

SDRCC was awarded funding from the California Ocean Protection Council to develop a Regional Coastal Resilience Roadmap

in partnership with RCC & LGC, to align regional resilience priorities

SDRCC convened more than 50 representatives from municipalities, state agencies, and CBOs for roundtable discussions to identify the top challenges and opportunities for regional coastal projects

50+

Equity-First Approach to Adaptation Planning Guidance Document

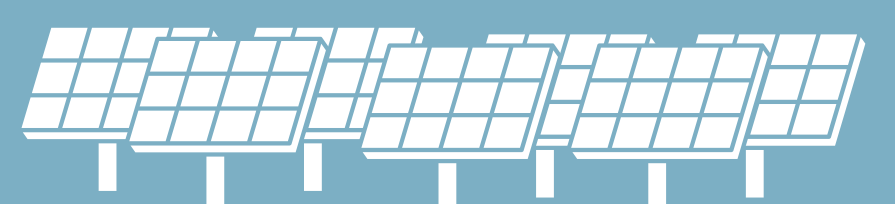

SDRCC, in partnership with SANDAG, developed the Equity-First Approach to Adaptation Planning Guidance document, which includes best practices and regional examples for practitioners to enable equitable adaptation

SDRCC increased its membership for its Adaptation & Policy Working Group by 20%, continuing to catalyze regional partnership building and cohesive adaptation planning

Supported the City of Chula Vista to launch COVID-19 and Climate Change

a webinar series focused on economic recovery and sustainability

Secured funding from SDG&E to develop San Diego's Regional Energy Education & Resource Hub to be launched in early 2022

