IN THE BEGINNING . . .

. . . Not so long ago were two tiny schools on a hill in the sun
when one morn in the fog
amidst all of the dew
they awoke and they found they were one
It was years ten and two that it grew and it grew like a tree they had sewn in the sun
But no one had guessed that that one little quest would bring us to 1981.

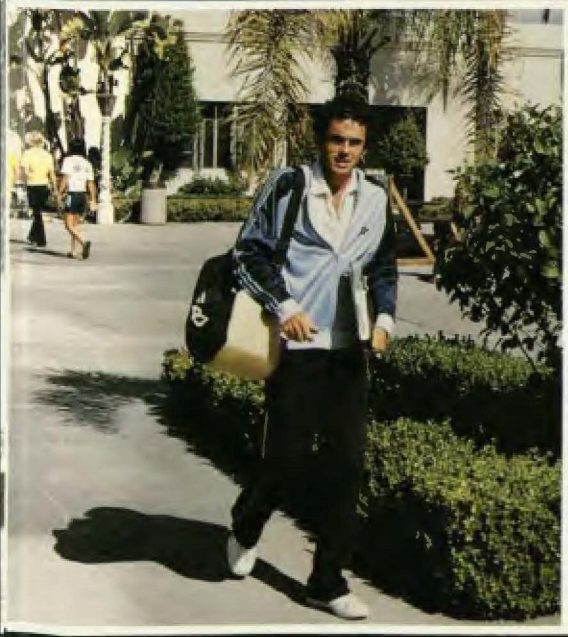
THE CHALLENGE OF GROWTH



The One You'll Never Read

Doesn't it seem strange how we've changed?
A short time ago we were one
Not really. We were caught up in consuming emotions.
And didn't stop to reach for reality...

. . . But what we had was good.

It was different

Now we are different

With new and opposite roads to travel

... We go
Once in a while we remember
And smile.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

November 1st, 1980 will probably never be noted in the annals of history as a significant date, but it is one as far as GSD students are concerned because that day was the anxiously anticipated and long awaited Homecoming. That afternoon, a flurry of frenzied football fans flocked to GSD Stadium to witness the upset-minded Toreros throttle Sonoma State 14-7. The pomp, pageant, and ceremony of the day was made that much sweeter by the gridiron success. Later, current students and alums alike gathered at the Sheraton Hotel on Harbor Island for a festive evening of dining, drinking, and dancing to the music of "Light." Finally the climactic moment arrived when Bridget Brennan passed her crown on to the 1980 Homecoming Queen, Shelly Donahoe.

CLUBS GROUPS ORGANIZATIONS

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Flint Lewis
President

A Political Science major, Flint's overall responsibility as ASB President, is overseeing various meetings on the group and individual level. He, along with the Secretary of Finance is responsible for planning the ASB budget for the entire year. This year was quite successful for the ASB in that the $15,000 debt of past years was retired at the end of the first semester. Another important accomplishment was that for the first time in years, every organization within the ASB kept within their budget.

As President, Flint presides over the weekly Senate meeting. Flint really looks forward to his classes because "After running so many meetings, it's good to be able to sit and listen for awhile." Flint's major accomplishment this year along with the entire ASB was to expand the scope and range of ASB services for students and provide quality social events.

VICE-PRESIDENT VINCE GUILIN

An International Relations Major, Junior Vince Guilin sees the main priority of the Vice President as that of representing all student's interests in all areas they consider important. As Vice President, Vince is Chairman of the Program Board and along with Social Chairman, Jim Hitchcock, oversees all social and academic events on campus. He is also the Senate's representative to the Budget Committee, member of the Executive Board, ASB consultant to Inter-Club Council, and member of any other committee that requires assistance. Once of his major accomplishments this year was collaborating with Sec. of Academics, Scott Brown in creating the new directorship of Teacher and Course Evaluations headed by Robert Madden. Although students may often see Vince around campus, teachers do not know that he exists!

JIM HITCHCOCK
SOCIAL CHAIRMAN

SOCIAL CHAIRMAN JIM HITCHCOCK

Jim is indirectly responsible for all on-campus social activities, and directly responsible for USD's traditional events such as Homecoming, the Disneyland trip, ASB Ball, and the T.G.I.F.'s. He admits to being irresponsible on all other matters. When he's not busy trying to entertain us, Jim is learning guitar or sharpening his dormant basketball skills.

Secretary Of Academics Scott Brown

Got a gripe against your not-so-favorite teacher? Go see this man. Scott attempts effective interchange between faculty and students in a series of open forum discussions, and will also represent complaints against faculty members. The man is enthralled with backpacking, photography, and lacrosse but does not attempt them all at once.

Secretary Of Communications Laura Stanley

If you've ever suddenly been awakened from a catatonic trance, it's usually because of Laura. In her official capacity, she arranges and co-ordinates all on-campus publicity, which includes the continual update of the AS Social Calender. Laura is especially proud of the fact that for the first time in USD history the calendar is mailed to commuter students. Her outside interests are many, but our sense of dignity prevents us from going into details.

Secretary Of Finance Jon Matsuo

Jon has the uneviable distinction of being entrusted with the ASB coffers. He is responsible for the budgeting function and the recording of the monies of the ASB, and acts as financial advisor to all ASB related activities. He is also Chairman of the Budget Committee which supervises the allocation of ASB monies.

Secretary Of Justice
Mike Bush

As USD's version of Earl Warren, Mike is in charge of elections and Judicial Court. The Judicial Court reviews constitutions of organizations on campus which seek ASB recognition, and also serves as the traffic court of appeals for citations received on campus. No one knows what Mike does in his off hours.

Secretary Of Student Services
Linda Morales

When it comes to services, Linda is your girl. She's available as a liason between students and administration in matters concerning food service, housing, commuter transportation, health services, Campus Ministry, and anything else you might think of. Maintenance and inventories of ASB equipment, community service projects, and the game room all come under her jurisdiction. In her spare time she can be found on the tennis courts or the aerobic dance floors.

Secretary Of Athletics
Brian Hamilton

Brian is the official liason between the Sports Center and the ASB. As a representative on ICC and the Program Board, he also works on budgeting the sports clubs on campus and with the cheerleaders. An Accounting major, Brian is also on the Varsity Crew team here at USD.

Inter-Club Council Chairman Diego Ramirez-Cardenas

Stand back. This man is busy. Diego's post requires him to be the official representative of the collective interest of the council to the Budget Committee, Program Board, and the Senate. His responsibilities also involve him with organizing club and organizational events. Diego has many interests, including failing exams, paying tuition, I.V. Pavlov and breathing.

Director Of Evaluations Robert Madden

Robert Madden, a sophomore here at USD has the time-consuming job of Director of Evaluations. A new directorship this year, the job entails the massive task of evaluating all the teachers here at USD and compiling the information into a booklet available for the students. While Robert is not busy doing work for the ASB he can be found in the VISTA office writing the weekly feature article, which he does so well. Occasionally he attends classes whenever he can find the time.

Sign Shop Director Jessica Watson

Jessica, using equal parts of creativity and energy, is responsible for poster publicity covering everything from ASB Social Hotline happenings to club meetings. If you can catch her at all, it is usually as she is dashing to put up that one last sign in the cafe, or on a mad sprint to a meeting involving any one of numerous extracurricular activities. A Pre-Med Political Science major/math minor, when not involved in any of the above busy activities, Jessica also enjoys running as the decathelon, performing brain surgery, or spending a quiet evening at home whipping up a little Cordon Bleu, for her legion of fans better known as the Sign Shop Sychophants. We love ya — get outta here.

SENATORS

Each class is represented by two duly elected senators whose responsibilities include administering AS funds, discussing and acting on academic or administrative policy, and planning activities for the student populace. They serve as the focal point of student opinion. This year was the first in AS history that the Senators kept office hours, partly because this is the first year they had an office of their own.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter-Club Council organizes and represents all campus clubs and organizations. It is designed to meet each club's interests, needs and to provide the student body with a wide range of extracurricular activities (TG's, speakers, dances . . .). Fall semester alone, the council represented a total of forty (40) clubs, the most USD has ever had.

Diego Ramirez-Cardenas ..... Chairman
Charles Gonzalez ..... Vice-Chair
Gloria Nestlerode ..... Sec.
David Dahl ..... Treas.

PROGRAM BOARD

The smiling faces on this page belong to the Program Board. Membership is highly exclusive, consisting of AS appointed directors of various organizations and clubs and several elected officers. Their main concern is to plan and organize a varied schedule of extra-curricular activities geared toward student participation and the prevention of brain warp from too much study. The board coordinates the events to prevent overlaps and conflicts and seeks new and creative means of planning and promotions.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

Members of the Budget Committee keep a tight grasp on the ASB pursestrings to prevent the frivolous misuse of funds. They have primary appellate jurisdiction over the allocation of funds, with the power to withhold funds from any club or organization. The Committee acts to approve all ASB allocations and to keep the financial state of ASB "in the black."

BULLPEN LARK

The purpose of Bullpen/Lark is to provide quality entertainment for the students on campus. They plan concerts, entertain the student populace and boldly go where no event has ever gone before. This year the Lark provided such names as Jerry Jeff Walker and Michael Dane. The Lark staff this year has placed special emphasis on the fact that this year they have utilized More Hall, and Camino Theater for dances and the annual Student Talent Show.

JUSTICE COURT

The Traffic court hears traffic citation appeals on campus. A student wishing to have a ticket appealed fills out the required form and presents his case to the court. The appeal is either denied or granted. If granted, the ticket does not have to be paid. Each case is decided on its own merits.

CULTURAL ARTS

VISTA

Alcala's little brother Vista is the only student forum on campus. Produced on a weekly basis, they are entrusted with keeping pace on student life and maintaining an information channel for students, faculty and administration. During the past year and a half, Vista has been embroiled in a shakedown of personnel which has seen the appointment of three different editors, and it seems remarkable that a paper even exists. With its legitimacy in question, one need only to peruse an issue of Vista to see the kind of product they have.

SPEAKERS BUREAU

The USD Speakers Bureau is a community service organization which is designed to bring top rate speakers to USD at little or no cost to the student populace. Thanks to Director Leo Payne, this year's "top rate" speakers were comedian Jimmy Walker, Jean Kilbourne, and Mike Brown.

FILM FORUM

ACCOUNTING SOCIETY

The Accounting Society is a student organization which promotes the personal interaction of accounting students in academic and community endeavors. They operate a student-manned tutoring lab in the School of Business which is open to all students seeking help in their accounting and business classes. The Society also sponsors a variety of speakers during the year, conducts tours of local C.P.A. firms, sponsors parties and social activities, promotes membership in professional organizations and presents an annual Spring Banquet at which time the Society awards scholarships raised by Accounting Society members through donations from the business community and alumni.

ALPHA DELTA PI

Working as a part of the USD Greek system, Alpha Delta Pi sorority joined in an effort with three other national organizations to make known the fun and satisfaction which can be found within a Greek system. AD Pi is the oldest national sorority, stressing areas of community and Christian involvement. Their involvement spans many facets of campus life including Campus Ministry, student government, Freshman orientation, Oxfam, intercollegiate sports, and various other clubs. Vitality and involvement are the special trademark of these special young ladies.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Majors in the School of Business take a special interest in Alpha Kappa Psi, a co-educational business fraternity that is widely known and respected. Founded in 1904, A.K.Psi is concerned with acquainting the business major with the myriad of opportunities available to them. Activities include guest speakers, tours of firms in the business world, community service projects for Junior Achievement, and various social events. An information file on businesses in the San Diego area is a further aid to these young corporate giants.

AMERICAN MARKETING ASSOCIATION

The American Marketing Association, established at USD in November of 1978, is a national professional business organization, and is dedicated towards the goal of promoting professionalism and practical education to students interested in the field of marketing. By sponsoring speakers from the marketing and advertising world, the student gets a behind-the-scenes look of a business and a head start on their careers.

BLACK STUDENT UNION

The Black Student Union is a cultural awareness group which provides an opportunity for the students to envalue themselves politically, economically, and socially within the USD community and society as a whole. The club is active in fund raisers, community service, and social functions all of which results in an effective exchange of ideas among students of all ethnic origins.

BIOLOGY CLUB

If you're interested in vertebrate biology (or if you have an escapist spirit) sit up and take notice"! The Biology Club is for you. They are involved with seminars on genetic engineering and field trips to San Felipe in addition to non-biological functions such as beer auctions, blood drives, and bake sales. Throughout, the relationship between biology profs and students is enhanced.

CHOIR

Hark! Do you hear the singing of cherubim and seraphim on high? Well, close enough. It's actually the USD Choir and Vocal Ensemble tuning up the windpipes for another virtuoso performance. The only bad thing about the choir is that their performances are too infrequent. Most of us only get to hear them at the Christmas and Easter masses in Founders Chapel, performances that are so good as to inspire a writer for Reader magazine to do a special feature on them. Congratulations to Father Nick and his talented troops on another spectacular year.

COMMUTER CLUB

In the interest of greater student involvement (and the prevention of lonely hearts) the Commuter Club was spawned this year. These are the off-campus students who meet weekly to keep abreast of school activities, help in the mailing of the monthly social calender, organize carpools for various events, all with the intent of making the commuter student more comfortable in the USD community.

ENSENADA FISHING CLUB

The Ensenada Fishing Club was established in 1980. This non-school sponsored club came into being over a friendly beer. The club started with five charter members and since the first fishing trip; there are currently still five fishermen. The club plans trips to the beautiful shores of those infamous Mexican beaches. These trips range from one day to weekend excursions. When the fish are not running, the senoritas are. Fun and sun are the highlights of this club. The club meets every Thursday afternoon to tell fresh fish stories.

HOCKEY CLUB

These young brutes are collectively known as the USD Hockey Team. In just its second year of operation, they are still considered a club sport. Senior George Madok (the good looking guy in front) is the originator, founder and motivating spirit. Each Thursday evening, these guys descend upon the Mira Mesa House of Ice to practice their slapshots and body checks and to refine their skills in organized brutality. Active competition is infrequent, but the club is willing to take on all challengers except the Philadelphia Flyers. This is more than just a street gang on skates; they are a bunch of fun-loving ruffians dedicated to the competitive nature of their sport. "Congrats" to George and the gang on their unfailing spirit and determination.

FRENCH CLUB

Members of the French Club benefit from its friendly environment which enables them to practice the language and to learn about French culture and customs. They sponsor a variety of activities including a fondue party, Buche de Noel (Christmas Party), trips to French cinema and bakeries, and a French Talent Show. Membership is not limited to French majors, but any students who speak the language and wish to learn more about our Gaullic allies.

GERMAN CLUB

Those students who participate in the German Club do so because they are interested in German culture, history, and language. As part of this experience, members visit German cuisine, concerts, and cinematic adventures. As if they aren't busy enough, they also take part in Gartenfest, Oktoberfest, Weihnactsfest, and ski trips to Mammoth proving themselves to be one of the most active clubs on campus if not the most fatigued.

ITALIAN CLUB

One of the fastest growing clubs on campus is the Italian Club. Like the other ethnic clubs, they meet weekly with discussions generally held in Italian. Development of Italian speaking skills and the learning of Italian customs history, cuisine and culture are accomplished through a myriad of activities. Involvement is not restricted to the Italian program alone: all paisanos are welcome to join.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Carl Luna headed the Model United Nations (a.k.a. Political Science Club) and made it one of the more active organizations on campus. With the hopes of increasing political awareness among students, MUN hosted several guest speakers during the year ranging from politicians to bureauerats to military personnel. The club also gains an insight into the procedures of the United Nations. They will once again represent USD at the Model UN convention being held in Portland, Oregon modeling themselves as Byelorussia SSR.

NURSING ASSOCIATION

The erection of the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences would seem to signal the birth of a relatively new organization. Formed in 1976, the USD Nurses Association seeks the promotion of professionalism, the facilitation of communications between faculty and students, and to allow the members to identify the needs of nursing students and to implement change.

PHI KAPPA THETA

The brothers of Phi Kappa Theta fraternity hold the unique distinction of being the only frat on campus. Their claim to fame is in being a service-social group providing both community and campus service including freshmen orientation, car rallies, T.G.I.F.'s and the Oxfam M*A*S*H dance. Through brotherhood in the fraternity, they establish lifelong friendship. With special emphasis on leadership and enthusiasm, the Phi Kaps make themselves valuable assets on campus.

PRO-LIFE COALITION

The USD Student Pro-Life Coalition is dedicated to the preservation of human life. The prime purposes are to educate the students concerning the tragedy of abortion, supply feasible alternatives to problem pregnancies, and create an awareness of all human life issues. Among the many activities sponsored by the coalition in 1980-81 were the Student-Faculty Forum of Love, Sex, and Relationships; the movie series "Whatever Happened to the Human Race?", Oxfam activities; and a debate between Pro-Life and NOW.

RELIGIOGS STUDIES CLUB

Another of the newly formed clubs, this group investigates current theological issues, moral majority, and holds discussions about the purpose of existence (our existence, not the club's). The informal settings lends a special intimacy to the discussion and sharing of religious experiences. But these people also know how to have fun, as evidenced by their Christmas Party.

STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Members of the Student Alumni Association were selected on the basis of their high visibility on campus, good grades, involvement in activities, and leadership qualities. SAA members act as a liason between the students and the USD Alumni Association in the planning of alumni and student activities. SAA participants are able to meet and work with alums on projects and as a result, the two groups are brought closer together.

SPECIAL ED CLUB

The Special Education Club of USD, a chapter of the national Council for Exceptional Children, serves to make USD Students and faculty more aware of the handicapped community. The club's goals set at the beginning of the school year were to enlarge the membership and develop programs which will allow USD students to participate in activities with the handicapped community.

ZETA TAG ALPHA

The Theta Eplison chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha celebrated their first anniversary at USD with the addition of five new pledges, bringing the total number of members to 25. ZTA worked with the other Greek groups on campus to sponsor Oxfam's M*A*S*H Bash in November, and is once again taking part in the local Special Olympics for the retarded. This chapter won the state trophy for the highest GPA at Zeta Day celebrations. They are part of a worldwide group whose membership exceeds 62,000.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1980-81 cheerleading squad consists of 16 dedicated and spirited students who support football, basketball, baseball, crew and many other sports and activities. They spend many hours practicing half-time routines and conduct many fund raisers to cover travel expenses for away games. The team was co-captained by Tina Jacobson and Jennifer Brae and was under the supervision of Sue DeGregory. The precision of their routines is testimony to the long hours of rehearsal. Great job, gang!

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Left to right: Fr. Larry Dolan, Sr. Tim, Sr. Lorch, Skip Walsh

Campus Ministry is a vital expression of the University of San Diego's commitment to the education of the total person. Programs are designed so that students may explore mankind's openness to the transcendent and grow in their spiritual lives. This is accomplished through a peer ministry in which students participate in various committees and their projects under the guidance of the Campus Ministry Core Team. Opportunities are offered for personal growth in the areas of sacramental liturgy, retreats, ecumenical dialogue, scripture study, shared prayer, social justice and other phases of spirituality.

EXI

PRESIDENT HUGHES

Dr. Author E. Hughes is completing his ninth year at the helm as president of USD. As the only layman to ever serve in that capacity, his major campaigns were the growth and development of USD, particularly the Nursing School and the School of Business. During his tenure, USD has grown enormously and rapidly. Once considered a small, liberal arts school USD is recognized as an all-encompassing educational institute with a reputation. The construction of the valley dormitories, the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing, and the general improvements to existing facilities are a tribute to his expansionist vision. President Hughes resides in Casa de Alcala at the western edge of campus with his wife and four children. The Alcala staff of 1981 would like to extend its warmest thanks and congratulations to President Hughes as he leads USD into a new decade and a bigger and brighter future.

BISHOP LEO T. MAHER

Bishop Maher serves USD as its Chairman of the Board of Trustees. His association with the university goes back to the merger of the College for Women and the College for Men, a move in which he was the driving force. His generosity is marked by the donation of the St. Francis Seminary to USD. He has instituted many social services in the local Catholic community, and has achieved the formation of many new parishes throughout Southern California. Bishop Maher is often visible on campus taking an afternoon stroll.

BASEBALL

Entering their third season of SCBA competition, the Toreros have managed to play .500 or better in their first two seasons, going 14-12 in 1979 and 14-14 last year. This year they hope to do even better despite the loss of some key personnel.

Coach John Cunningham, will do some juggling with his line up and rely heavily on J.C. transfers to make this season's squad a winner.

The only starters returning from last year's squad are Martin Harris at second base and Bart Brainard behind the plate. Paul Lofgren will add depth to the catcher position while Bruce Tomlinson is expected to give Harris a real battle at second.

On the mound, Al Brehm could be the real surprise if his performance last year is any indication. Tom Lindenthal has one of the better arms on the team and should get his share of innings pitched. Eric Gaylord will try to regain his pitching form after sitting last season out with injuries. Other newcomers to the pitching staff are Tom Adema and Kevin Cammal.

Overall, the Toreros will rely on team speed, pitching, and defense to make up for their lack of power and left handed hitting in their line-up. As always, they will hustle everywhere and be ready to play on game days.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1980-81 Season was the second year in Division I play in the West Coast Athletic Conference for USD. Coming off a losing season, the Toreros set their sights on becoming respectable in the WCAC. But with a schedule including Cal Berkley, Stanford, USF, Pepperdine, and San Diego State our cagers faced a herculean task.

The squad consisted of six veterans and nine newcomers, two key performers being four year lettermen Mike Stockalper and MVP forward Bob Bartholomew. The new talents of leaping forward "Jamming" Gerald Jones, center Dave Heppell, and forwards Steve Rocha and Jim Bateman provided depth in the ranks.

The Toreros are much bigger and taller overall than in previous seasons which should be an asset against WCAC behemoths. Coach Brovelli felt that "... with a few breaks, the experience of the veterans, and the talent of the newcomers, we will be well on our way to respectability in the WCAC." A tougher schedule, more depth, and the incentive of a WCAC crown all promise an exciting year at the University of San Diego.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach Kathy Marpe

Kathleen Marpe began her first season as head coach of the USD Women's basketball program in preparation for the toughest schedule ever and their inaugural season in the Southern California Athletic Association. USD's non-conference foes included noted West Coast powers like Pepperdine, Nevada-Las Vegas, Arizona St., and cross-town rival San Diego State. The SCAA has developed into a nationally recognized conference since its start in 1976, and sports some of the best teams on the West Coast.

The Lady Toreros finished the 79-80 campaign with a 14-7 record, and this year's squad features seven veterans and seven newcomers. With a mixture of strength, quickness, and finesse, this squad expects to produce some exciting results. Coach Marpe places special emphasis on agressive defense and counts on her young team to improve over the season to eventually become one of the dominant powers.

MENS CREW

The USD Men's Crew Team has grown from a club of 10 members to a three squad team of 50 rowers. This years team will compete on the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman levels. Coach Steve Estes along with freshmen coach Joey Flohr have been anticipating this year of growth. Three members of last year's fifth place Western Sprints team returned to stroke the varsity. The crew season begins in February and features regattas between USD and other California colleges and universities. The highlights of the season are the San Diego Crew Classic (April 4) and the Western Sprints (May 15).

The Crew Classic is held at Mission Bay and brings 30 of the best crews from the East and West coasts including Harvard (1979 varsity "8" champions), Penn, Washington, Brown, and Yale. The Western Sprints, held in Los Gatos is where Coach Estes feels the team will show its true colors.

A team tradition which last year has the varsity rowers wearing beards. Every varsity and J.V. members grows a beard on the first day of spring practice in January and the beard is then shaved off upon the team's first victory. This beard is a reminder to the rowers of the time and work that they have put into the sport.

WOMENS CREW

This year's womens crew team is the largest in their brief history: 36 members including seven veterans. Fielding teams at the varsity, novice, and lightweight levels, their rigorous fall training sessions paid off as the Novice 8 and Novice 4 won the San Diego city championship. The Spring '81 season looks even more encouraging with the return for practically every girl in the novice division. The program appears to have a strong foundation as it rapidly matures.

New to the program this year is Coach Richard "Duke" Robinson; aside from USD, he also coaches girls at the high school level. He holds high expectations for his girls chances in the National Championships to be held on June 18 in the San Diego area.

TEAMWORK

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1980 Division I Varsity Cross Country team witnessed the introduction of Coach Rick Russell who proved to be the team's finest asset. The addition of several new runners, the return of many veterans from last season, and a road trip to San Luis Obispo virtually assured the success for both the men's and women's squads. Many fine individual performances were turned in throughout the season especially by freshmen Carl Stuart and Lisa Gross and Senior Tim Donovan. The season culminated in a 35-7 victory over Santa Ana in the conference meet. Junior veteran Kerry Barnsley was named Most Dedicated/Improved. Coach Russell considered the teams second season an overall success.

FOOTBALL

(JSD's 1980 gridiron campaign was a paradox of high hopes and cautious anticipation. The loss of several key players from the previous season left many voids in the USD lineup. After a disappointing 0-3 start, the Toreros came on strong to wind five of their last seven games to finish the season with a 5-5 slate. Quarterbacks Tim Call and Steve Loomis waged a continous duel all season until Call won the starting job in November. Complimenting the passing game was the backfield duo of Joe Henry and Jeff Veeder. Henry led (JSD in rushing for the third consecutive season.

A traditional strength has been the defensive unit, this year's squad spear-headed by the linebacking corps of Guy Ricciardulli and Don Nicklas and linemen Pondo Vleisides, Bruce Ognibene and Phil Moen. The late season surge and the prospect of many returning veterans shows great promise for the 1981 season.

MEN'S GOLF

In what is perhaps the most anonymous sport on campus, the USD Golf Team has proven itself to be the most succesful. With the entire 1980 team intact, plus eight promising frosh, the golfers look forward to conference play. In fact they are favored to win the conference after being WCAC runnerup last year. Ranked second among small schools in the Southern California area, these lads will engage in major tournaments throughout the state against USC, UCLA, Stanford, Dartmouth, and SDSU.

RUGBY

This year USD saw the first appearance of a Rugby team. Unlike most first-year collegiate teams, the USD ruggers broke into competition with a dynamic team that displayed such vigour and talent that all members of the West Coast Conference were stunned by the young team's prowess. Beginning with a tough schedule, the rugby team downed each of the perrenial collegiate powerhouses such as San Diego State, UCLA and USC. After the team's sucessful first year of play, USD can expect a league champion in next year's competition.

SOFTBALL

Women's Softball begins its second season at USD, having completed a highly successful inaugural campaign in which they were ranked third among Division III schools. This year they embark upon a Division I schedule with the strength of seven returning veterans including All-West Coast selection Katie Donohue. Under the direction of new coach Kevin McGarry, these ladies should make springtime come alive with the smack of white ash against horsehide. Anyone for peanuts and popcorn?

SWIMMING

This season will be the toughest yet for the 1980-81 women's swim team. Competing at the AIAW Division II level and joining the Southern California Athletic Association, the team will face three of the top teams in the nation.

This year's team consists of four returning swimmers and nine newcomers. Returning for the Lady Toreros is Val Skufca. Val, breast stroker-sprint freestyle specialist broke team records while qualifying for nationals. Also returning from last year's squad is Lois Rickert, Mary Walsh and Becky Oliver.

Newcomers to this year's squad include Mary Lightfoot, a junior breaststroke who has already qualified for Nationals in the 50, 100, and 200 backstroke. Other additions to the squad are Candy Erick, LeLe Robinson, Diane Sims, Nancy Buchanan, Mari John, Lynette Childers, Trisha Daner, and Leslie Van Dumm.

Coach Gary Becker on this year's team, "we are very excited about this season although it will be a bigger step than anticipated with us entering one of the toughest conferences in the nations (SCAA). This seasons' goals will be to do well in our conference meets and more importantly to qualify six women for Division II Nationals at Northern Michigan in March."

SURFING

Cowabunga, Man! The Surfing Association, in just it's fourth year of operation, is still going strong. A lot of credit is due to John Carrier, the guiding spirit behind the Association. He has held this unit intact and molded them into a top-notch surfing team. As usual, the group made its annual Mexico trip, sponsored parties and T.G.'s, and engaged in competition with those "other" schools, UCSD and San Diego St. Surf's up! and like wow man, the waves are gnarly this season!!!

VOLLEYBALL

Completing their sixth year of intercollegiate competition, USD's women's volleyball team struggled through the first losing season in the team's history. In their second year of Division I play, and with a schedule which included eight nationally ranked teams, the Toreros finished the 1980 season with a 4-18 overall match record and a 1-11 mark in the tough Southern California Athletic Association.

The spikers opened their season with a solid fourth place finish in the ASU Invitational Tournament. The team then played four of their first six matches against nationally ranked teams and found themselves with a 1-5 record and a long season ahead.

Throughout the year, Senior captain Dee Dee Akeo proved to be the most versatile and consistent performer. With Akeo's play and support from Junior setter Sheila Wright and JC transfers Laurie Bakke and Debbie Gauley, the team played strong matches against some of the country's best teams. With the improvement of the younger players, the Toreros should be ready to face next year's demanding schedule and get back in their winning ways.

STORMS

Sun's smoldering orange light
Sinks behind clouds.
Below, a narrow strip of clear sky,
Presses against the dark blue water,
And wants to expand above the dark clouds.
I feel like the sky,
I do not know what I will be tomorrow.
At times I do not act the way I feel,
And in time that must change.
Some say only god can change you;
Some people never change.
Envy, hostility, jealousy - can command me.
I hear it as loud as thunder.
Shaking my foundations,
That I have tried to build upon.
On this earth I have been well instructed:
Drink and talk some,
Run, but not too far.
I have been taught how to act;
Love things I do not understand,
And enjoy what I do not need.
I stand under blue sky,
And then suddenly inside the rain.
Like lightening my emotions dart,
Silver - quick,
Into caves of my mind.
Over walls and through barriers.
Crookedly, jagged as the bolt,
To places I do not know.
There are times I need a brother's arm,
And times to hug someone for the love I found.
But when I look around I see,
The lesson is like the storm;
It is endless and goes:
Never get too close to anyone,
Do not depend on which is certain and stable,
But balance myself,
Gracefully,
On something steady as driftwood,
In the raging swells.

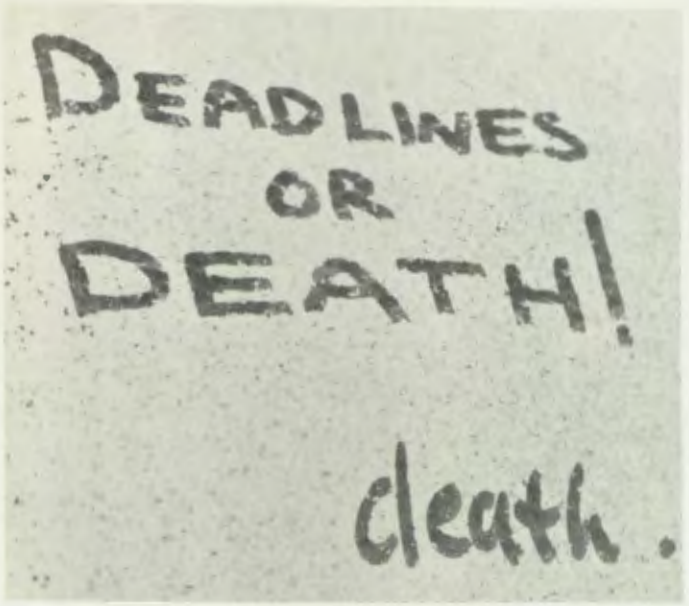
ALCALA '81



Yearbook Philosophy

This yearbook is the work of a few (very few) dedicated individuals. Without them the production of this book would have been impossible. It is important to realize that members of the Alcala staff donate their time and energy and receive no payment or academic credit for their outstanding work.

The following is a list of the dedicated few that produced the 1981 Alcala. From the bottom of my heart, thank you all very much, "I love ya, ya party animals now get outta here."

Michael Fowlkes - When it came to photography Michael was tops, shooting sports, clubs, activities, and anything else that needed to be done. He spent many long hours in the darkroom keeping his hands on his chemicals and making all off Karen's bad pictures look good.

Tom Korson - Without Tom there would have been no good copy in this year's book. Tom wrote all the copy for all the clubs, sports, and activities, featured in Alcala '81. He kept us all laughing with his ever popular wit.

Anita Wilson - Thanks for keeping me laughing when things looked so gloomy. But most of all thanks for being a friend. Your layouts were great and the trips to O'Connells were even better. Thanks for everything.

Annette Gomez - Annette's assistance in the darkroom was spectacular. She stayed up one night until 3 a. m. to help us make our deadline. Thanks.

Lisa Gualtieri - Lisa helped out in so many ways and was here until the end. She took pictures, worked in the darkroom and did layouts for the activity section. Thanks!

Marianne Lynch & Mary Krupa - Both these girls came through again when it came to the undergrad section. They spent many hours working on layouts and were a great help to me.

And last but not least, thanks to my friends who put up with me during this very trying time. To my roommates Carol and Carmen who never saw me for an entire semester, thanks for being there. O'Connell's here we come!

DEDICATION

This page of the 1981 Alcala is dedicated to the 52 Americans still being held hostage in Iran. As this is written, they have spent over 400 days in captivity. We hope and pray for their safe return home.

1980

1980 was a transition year, a year which marked the end of the 70's and one which represented fresh hopes for the 80's. It was a memorable year only for the tumultuous string of events that took place at home and abroad:

The Pittsburgh Steelers immortalized themselves by winning their fourth Super Bowl.

The U.S. Hockey team defeated the Soviet Union in the Winter Olympics to claim their first gold medal in twenty years.

The growth of punk rock and new wave music signalled the death of disco.

U.S. hostages were still being held in Iran.

The fury of Mount St. Helens was volcanic activity unparralleled in this century and recalled the legendary eruptions of Krakatoa.

City dwellers donned boots and hats as part of another quasi-culture sponsored by the motion picture "Urban Cowboy."

A U.S.-led boycott of the Summer Olympics saw 38 nations withold their teams in response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

The Philadelphia Phillies won their first World Series ever.

A flurry of designer jeans hit the market in the latest fashion fad.

Ronald Reagan won a landslide victory over Jimmy Carter to be elected the 40th President of the United States.

Abbie Hoffman came out of hiding.

Death claimed the lives of Mae West, Jimmy Durante, and Bob Marley.

The prime interest rate skyrocketed to all-time highs.

USD saw the building of the new Bookstore and Post Office.

Lorna's Corner and the Student Union were refurbished. New dorms were erected in the valley. Tuition soared once again, settling at $135 per unit.

MEMORIUM

The night of December 8th marked the end of an era. Singer-songwriter-composer political activist John Lennon was shot to death outside the Dakota apartments in Manhattan. John's gospel of love and peace touched the hearts, minds, and emotions of an entire generation. The optimism of his lyrics was a constant source of hope for his many followers. Thus his death wrought sentiments of grief from his fans as if he had been a member of their own family. The tragic irony of it all is that John had just ended a five year haitus from the music industry with the release of the album "Double Fantasy." The violence of his passing is a horrible paradox for a man whose idealistic vision did not allow for hatred but urged us to "Give Peace a Chance." The life has ended, but the dream lives on.
