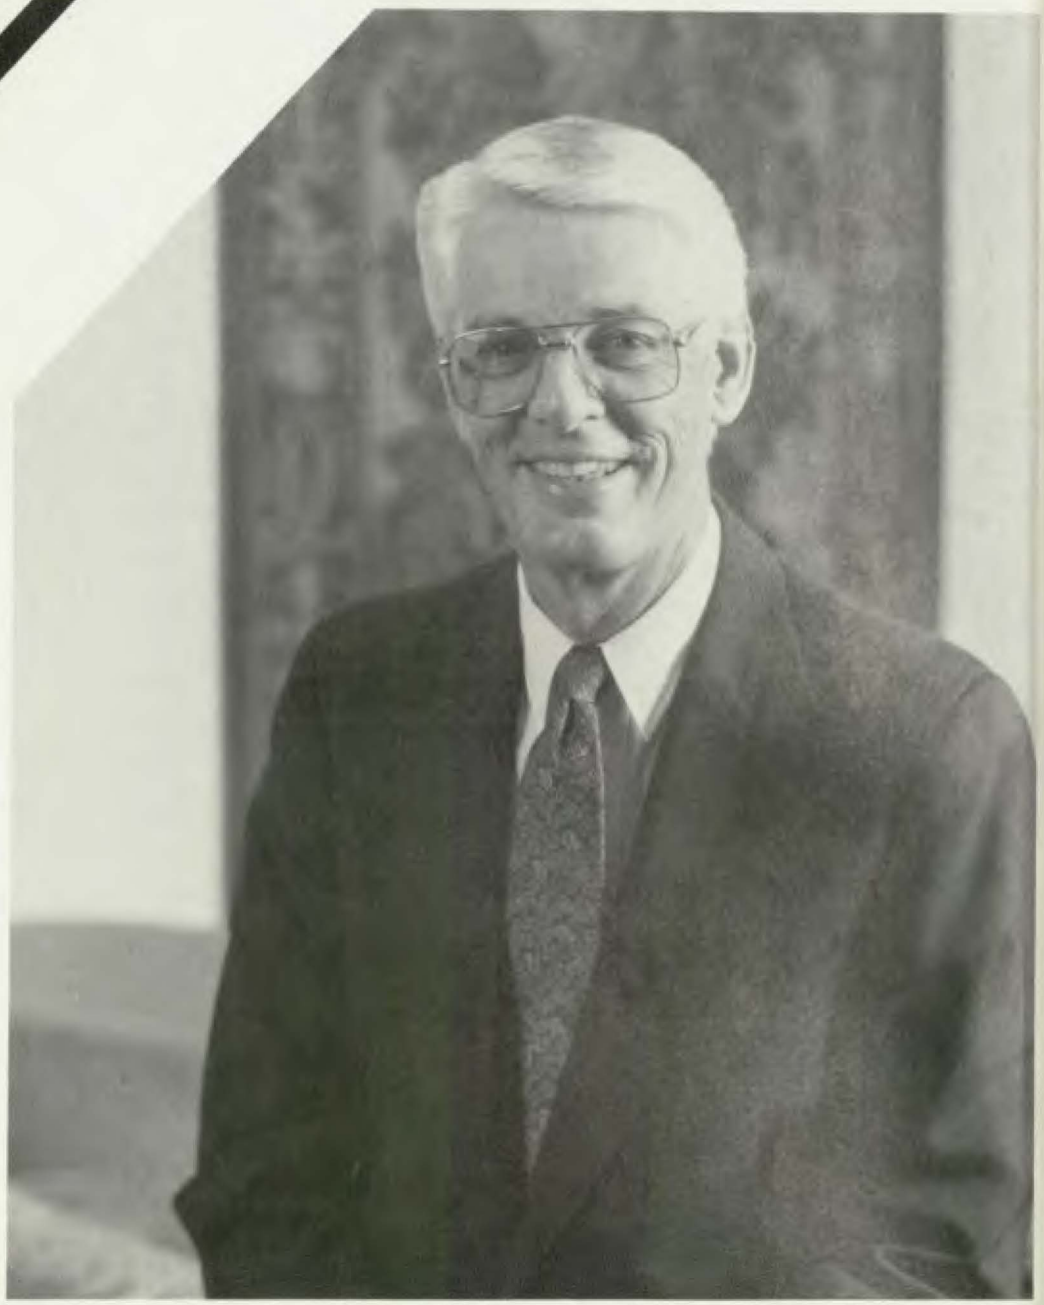
PRESIDENT



Perhaps in the final analysis no one year is more challenging to the human spirit than another. Still, there are reasons to regard our times as specially challenging: we are experiencing sometimes alarming social, political, and economic shifts. Those of us at the University of San Diego have a singular advantage in that we are privileged to observe—and from time to time participate in—those shifts from a stable center point, a University grounded by convictions and values related to a reasoned faith in God. From that perspective, we also draw convictions about the intrinsic worth of mankind and of ourselves. In other words, we are enabled to have faith in our ability to meet the challenges—and to know that it is ourselves and not the circumstance which make the world either bright or dark.

To the Class of '84 go our deepest and best wishes for a life rich with reward, and to the men and women whose USD careers have not yet concluded, we look forward to our continuing work together.

Author E. Hughes, Ph.D.
President

I believe every member of the Board of Trustees would agree with me that one of the great rewards of our stewardship comes at the end of each academic year, when we witness the culmination of the University's efforts in the graduation of another class of outstanding men and women. It has been said that the University did not succeed because it grew; it grew because it has succeeded. And the real measure of USD's success it not in the number of square feet added to the campus, but in the personal, intellectual, and spiritual growth of each student who comes here. The faces which appear in this book portray the true face of the University of San Diego. To each of you, the USD Board of Trustees wishes a life of fulfillment and prosperity.

USD—YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

Until the year 1949, the idea of a catholic university in San Diego was a dream of Rev. Charles Francis Buddy, Bishop of the San Diego Diocese, and Rev. Mother Rosalie Hill. The 170 acres of "Alcala Park" was a brush covered mesa overlooking Mission Bay. In that same year a university charter was granted by the State of California and the dream came true.

The first buildings were completed in 1952 and became known as the San Diego College for Women. Soon afterwards, plans for the 5,000 student facility began to become a reality with the completion of each new building (give or take a few changes). A major seminary was completed in 1957 but the church adjacent to it was not completed for almost a decade.

The University of San Diego College for Men did a lot of moving around in it's first decade. In 1954, they were temporarily located across Linda Vista road at what is now the USD High School. Later, in 1957, they were moved into the new Law Building and then in 1959, into the new Arts & Sciences building. Vice-President Richard M. Nixon was on hand for the dedication ceremony.

The Colleges for Men and Women were finally joined under one president in 1970. Under President Author Hughes the University florished. USD was composed of facilities for men, women, law and graduate students but we have not yet reached Rev. Buddy's goal of 5,000 students. It is very possible that we shall reach this in the coming years. It is inevitable with the completion of the new library, school of Business and student center in the next two years.

Desales Hall was the home of the Seminarians when the University of San Diego for Men was opened. The men at that time were attending classes across Linda Vista at what is now University of San Diego High School. The Hall now serves many functions as a men's dormitory, administration building and has many classrooms.

USD's Homecoming 1983

Homecoming at USDCM in 1956

Today the College for Women and College for Men are one University for co-education and co-recreation.

USD is still growing and there's so much more to come.

USD is an ever-growing institution. Expanding to serve the needs of the USD community, several new buildings have been erected and are being built at this time. Those include the new library, Conference Center and School of Business. Look out for more soon to come, USD is coming world!!

Seniors of 1956 - Have we come a long way, baby!!

ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

President

Tim Beaulieu

Hi. I'm Tim Beaulieu, your ASB President. You may wonder why I became involved in being your Prez — then again you may not. I'll tell you anyway. I wanted the students to feel that the ASB was a part of them, not a separate entity. I wanted to improve the relationship between the ASB and the students.

To this extent I worked diligently to make USD's alcohol policy more accomodating to the students and their lifestyles. I also tried to get the student's voice heard regarding tuition increases and USD's general growth. Dead Week was another affair I tried to improve. In the area of social events I (with the invaluable assistance of Vice-Prez and Program Board Chairperson, Mark Ginella) believe I offered events that appealed to the diverse tastes of allthe students at USD.

I may use the word "I" to talk about my accomplishments, but nothing could have been accomplished without the help of those fine people in my cabinet, the directors, and all the other ASB personnel. I hope that I have served you, the students, well in my capacity as ASB President 1983-84.

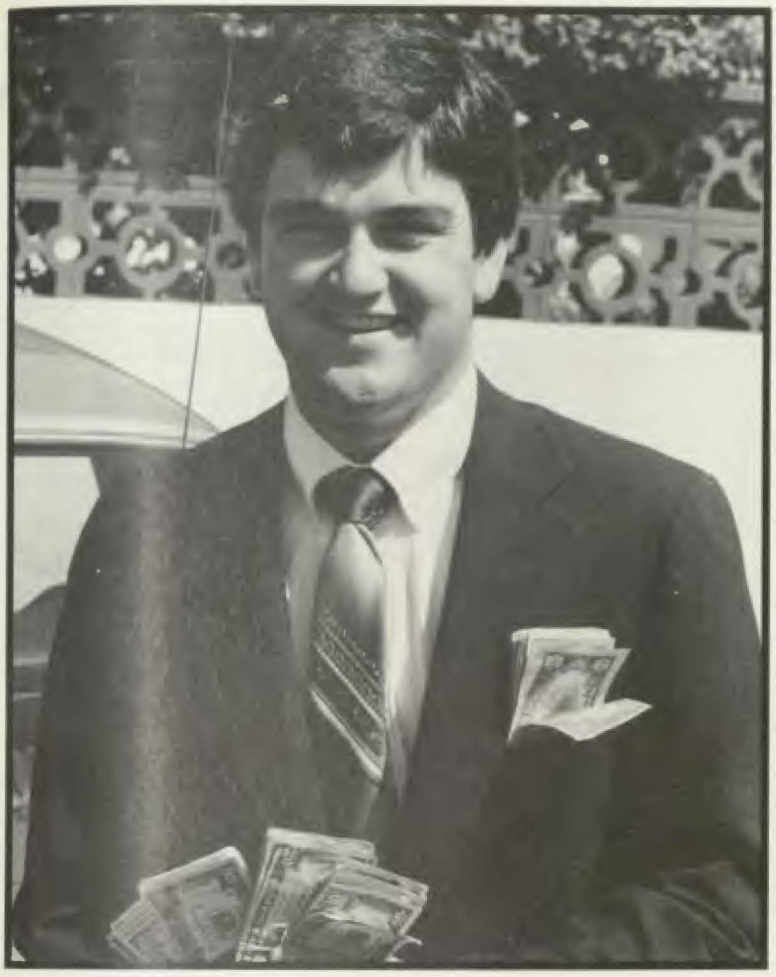
Vice President

Mark Ginella

YEEEEAAAAHHHH!!!! Listen to your MAMA! As ASB Vice-Prez my main job was to oversee the Program Board and aid the department chairs in organizing events. I was also a member of the Budget Committee, and the Senate. My input was persuasive in getting the alcohol policy reorganized (we all know I have a way with words when it comes to alcohol) and trying to establish a radio station here at USD.

There was one other activity with which I was heavily involved — I was solely responsible for Beaulieu being able to get through his presidency with a ".10" GPA in his last year; otherwise known as BABA's Recall Insurance. Way to go BABA!

On the whole, this year's ASB proved to be very cohesive, efficient and diligent in their duties. An organization that any Mom would be proud of.



Secretary of Finance

Steve Callaway

As Secretary of Finance and with the support of my great staff, I was responsible for the maintenance of the ASB budget. After I'd developed the budget, I oversaw all expenditures of the $270,000.00 in ASB funds. This was my second term as Secretary of Finance (a truly exciting job as evidenced by the overwhelming opposition I incurred during the campaign) and again I was known for my constant threats of budget cuts. The higher-ups lovingly referred to me as the "ASB Office Pest" (what a great bunch of people!). Hey, I love ya, but quit asking for money, will ya?

Among the staff who has helped me to maintain the ASB budget was the "invisible" Controller, Helen Vigil. Her job involved mainly bookkeeping and she made sure that I spent the ASB fees appropriately. The Assistant Controller, Bret Campbell, acted as the financial advisor to the ICC. Bret also kept track of the ARGSB and was aware of how the office was run. He thought if the rest of us left he could play with the big money and maybe buy some new clothes. (Evidently, by the looks of his wardrobe, we kept him in line. Sorry, Brat, I mean, Bret).

Finally, the Internal Auditor, John Napoleon, whose job was initiated this year to act as a watchdog over my job and the controllers. He set tighter controls on cash and on ticket sales and resolved that the ASB would now be audited once a year.

ASSISTANT CONTROLLER

Bret Campbell

INTERNAL AUDITOR

John Napoleon

Secretary of Justice

John Tenuta

As Secretary of Justice my position entailed responsibility for all judicial functions of USD. This included being the representative in all disciplinary cases as well as being the presiding Chief Justice of the ASB Student Court. The court itself reviewed the constitutionality of all legislation passed in the Student Senate, had jurisdiction of traffic and parking violations and reviewed all club constitutions. Hell of a job description, eh? Well I didn't always talk like that, until I got the job. Really, I'm a fair and nice guy. Ask any lawyer or judge! Better yet, ask anyone who got a parking ticket!

Secretary of Communications

Judy England

My job as Secretary of Communications dealt primarily with-you guessed it-communication between the ASB and the Student Body. I was responsible (with the help of Internal Communications Secretary Mary Duren and External Communications Secretary Laura Dellafield) for publicizing any and all ASB sponsored events on and off campus. I accomplished this by putting out banners and flyers, utilizing showcases, table tents, and the public media. I also brainstormed new eyecatching forms of advertising. I was also responsible for putting out the monthly ASB calendar, which included all daily events and activities for the entire month.

I sat on the Program Board, which was responsible for approving the scheduling and programming of all ASB activities. I was also a member of the Student Senate.

It was a big job but I truly liked it and got so much done with the help of two very enthusiastic assistants and the Communications Committee. I hope we kept you informed!

INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS

Mary Duren

Basically, my job as Secretary of Internal Communications entailed meeting the next to impossible demands of creating masterpiece posters for all upcoming events. As Judy's assistant, I was the director of the sign shop and made tons of posters to get you informed and involved. You did get involved, didn't you? The making all those posters was worth it. Hope you enjoyed yourselves!!

EXTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS

Laura Dellefield

As Secretary of External Communications I served as a liason between USD and other universities. My job was to spread the word on the latest campus happenings and be the director of information for the ASB concerning information from outside sources. I also assisted Judy and Mary in making sure you were well-informed of off and on campus events.

SECRETARY OF ATHLETICS

Jon Pace

See Jon having fun. See his dog having fun. They are having fun as a result of Jon's efforts toward a "fun-oriented" sports scene at USD.

Jon Pace, a newcomer to the ASB Cabinet, served as the Secretary of Athletics this year. He was the liason between the student and the ASB. He was the moderator of the sports related clubs and organized sports related functions. Once such event was the Padrenight in September.

One of his greatest responsibilities was the organization of Torero Week. This week was filled with entertainment and events to raise the school spirit of USD for the Homecoming Game, which was also his responsibility.

SECRETARY OF ACADEMICS

Sue Pardee

As the Secretary of Academics, I was responsible for the formulation of the Academic Research Grant Board which reviews applicants in need of academic research grants. I also continued the Faculty Forum series with six successful and interesting forums. These forums occurred every other Tuesday night at the Mission Crossroads.

Other general responsibilities I had were to create better relations between the faculty and students thought representation on faculty/student committees such as the curriculum committee, dead week and the scholastic honesty committee.

Secretary of Student Organizations

Shawn O'Hearn

During my term as Secretary of Student Organizations the number of on-campus clubs billowed to an all-time high. The sixty-plus ASB groups and organizations and the fact that I was elected to a newly created position made the year challenging, and a lot of fun as well.

I've instituted a number of programs and concepts which I hope will mek efficient ASB/Club relations a tradition here at USD. This year club leaders attended workshops, received (after a year's hiatus) those ever-valuable "Blackbooks", and updated the ASB club charter. There was a need for these programs because in many campus groups, I've seen what strong leadership (or the lack of it) can do.

Secretary of Student Services

Cathleen Ryan

Warning: The Surgeon General has determined that the Office of Secretary of Student Services may be Hazardous to your health.

I was never one for video games. I thought to myself . . . "Good God! What kind of loser spends so many endless hours and so many precious quarters on mindless computer games in a darkened room? Above all, what kind of college student would indulge in such a vice?!

Little would I know that upon entering the office of Student Services would I be subject to quarter by quarter, for the sake of serving the students, I became . . . I became . . . I'm uh..a..uh . . . ADDICTED! Only because I had to go into that room and count those quarters and touch those machines. It's now an obsession. It's often hard to talk about it like this, but I dream of Donkey Kong. I have posters on my walls of Zaxxon. I eat pacman cereal. It's terrible. I'm now undergoing therapy. At least I'm not as bad as I used to be. Anyway, that's the most hazardous part of this job. Also I'm running from that hunk of a quarter counter, Farhead, or whatever his name is.

Other than that,. I do anything and everything ASB comes up with for me to accomplish. The main effect of my work can be seen in the growth of that dark, mysterious, tempting, game room and in keeping the office running smoothly by managing everything from secretaries to supplies.

I was also the student's liason to the faculty and administration in matters of food service, chaplain service, health service and physical plant matters.

SENIOR SENATORS

Shawn Caine & Norma Samaniego

Senior Class Senators are responsible for coordinating a variety of activities and events for the senior class, specifically trying to have more events with alcoholic beverages available. Along with that, they also represent the class in matters dealing with the administration and faculty. Some events they have thrown are BBQ's, wine and cheese receptions, Homecoming float parties, a Chargers Football game against the Seattle Sea Ducks (To all involved with the game, it was a most memorable occasion, and better yet, year), and more.
Elaborating a little on the football game, they sponsored a post-game Sea Duck BBQ with too high Bry & Ramone hosting. Johnny Italia and T-berg were flying with the ducks and landed safely at the cars. By the way Draz, sorry. Wally, Stove-top, Chipwa, and muscleman enjoyed the benefits derived from the infamous charger juice. Dirty Harry (Camo) where's your purse?

JUNIOR SENATORS

Susan Grable and Carin Sullivan

Susan Grable Carin Sullivan

The responsibilities of the Junior Class Senators are to represent their class in senate and to help plan various activities (i.e. Class BBQ's, meet your ASB, etc.). In the fall semester, the main event that the senators are in charge of is the Homecoming Float. In the spring, the big event is the Battle of the Classes. In addition to this the Junior class senators are always open to suggestions for future events or representation.

SOPHOMORE SENATORS

Paul Davis and Rosemary Wolf

The sophomore senators, Rosemary Wolf and Paul Davis, worked very hard towards their goal of promoting unity and participation among their class members. Class BBQ's, ice cream socials, and the building of the Homecoming Float were a few of the activities that kept them busy. As a result, the Sophomore class won best float at the halftime Homecoming parade. Various committees and talks with the ASB kept students well informed, and tutoring was available to keep students in school.

Paul Davis Rosemary Wolf

FRESHMAN SENATORS

Sam Lavorato and Jon Ratter

Sam Lavorato Jon Ratter

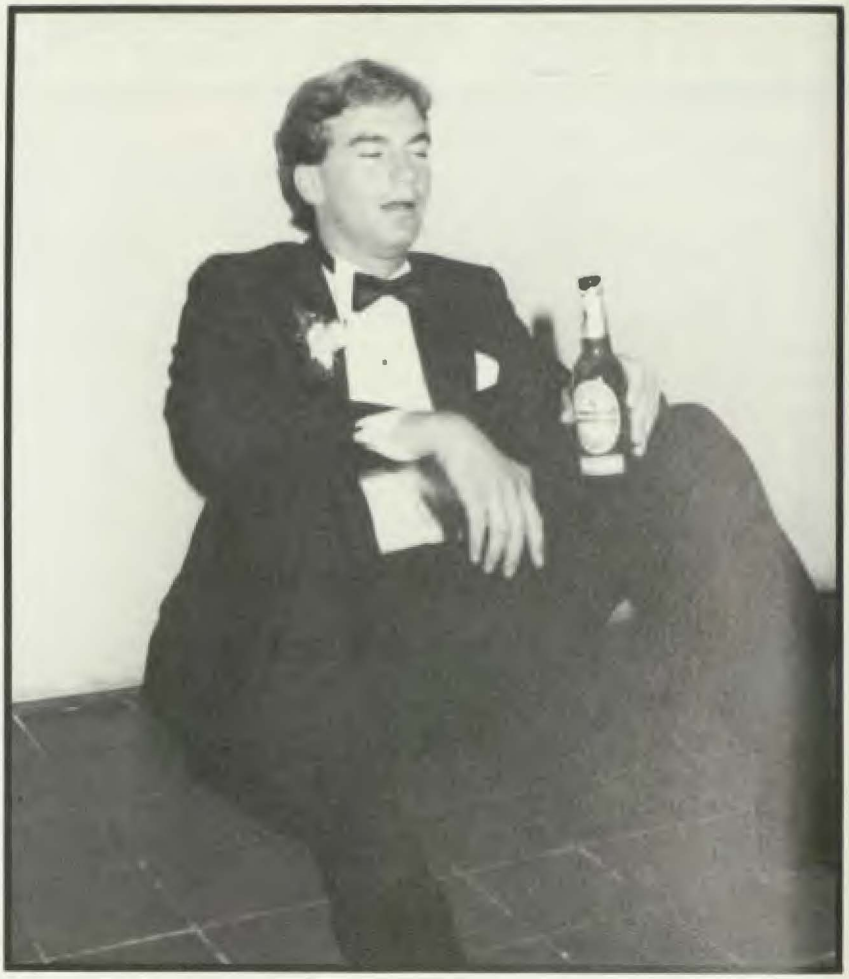
The newly elected freshman senators Jon Ratter and Sam Lavorato, got off to a fantastic year. Shortly after they were elected, the class had its first big get together. The BBQ was a great success and many people really enjoyed themselves. Other activities included Homecoming and the fantastic float which almost swept first place. Jon and Sam worked together through-out the year to bring all freshman closer to enjoy their first year in college.

Social Chairman

Bill Hogan



As Social Chairman I was responsible for making sure all USD Girls had full and satisfying social lives. Actually, I was responsible, along with my ever ready assistant John Melican, for planning and coordinating several of the larger events for the student body. The MBAC Fridays, Homecoming, Spring Ball, concerts and dances were some of the events produced by John and I (seriously frustrated but highly beloved Rock Stars). The Social Events Committee, composed of several beautiful and devoted females, helped us in every way possible and we'd like to thank them very much. Meet us at . . . just joking.

Cultural Arts Director

Sue Burke

The Cultural Arts committee, directed by the illustrious Sue Burke, offered many community activites to USD. Cultural Arts arranged for off campus trips to the Old Globe Theatre for Kiss Me Kate; the Shubert Theatre in Los Angeles for Dreamgirls; Diana Ross at the Sports Arena; A J. Paul Getty museum excursion; and to U.C. San Diego's production of Our Town.

This committee also furnished live music to enhance the differing themes of special dinner nights in the Camino and DeSales dining halls.

Advanced discount ticket sales for local opera and theatrical series, an information file of events occurring in cities at home and abroad, and investigation into grants and matching funds for future events were made available to our students.

Both the Director and the Committee send many thanks to the USD community for supporting our endeavors and making them a success. Thanks for having fun with us!

Cultural Arts Committee

Sue Burke, Joanne Picerno, Elizabeth Clark, Sherry Glassman and Phil Welp

Press Secretary

Sheri Hirsch

As Press Secretary my job was to be the liason between the ASB and the student body. Each week I produced a flyer detailing ASB related events such as meetings, proposals and activities. This helped to keep clueless individuals informed. It also allowed me to know about everything before you did. It was fun.

P.S. · T.J., get your own office next time.

Community Services Directors

Daryl-Lynn Lalli and Tim Durnin

Don't these two look like responsible and well organized individuals? Well, they proved themselves this year by being the directors of community services. Daryl-Lynn Lalli and Tim Durnin helped to coordinate many activities that benefited both the community and our students. USD's students were given the chance to meet new people and interact among them while performing such good deeds as housecleaning (which we seldom do for ourselves) and yard work during the successful Senior Citizen's Outreach Weekend; both fall and spring of this year. They also sponsored Christmas carding for the Senior Citizens community. Other successful ventures included trips to missions in Tijuana, the Nazareth House for Orphans and St. Vince de Paul Shelter Center, and a Halloween party.

GREEK REPRESENTATIVE

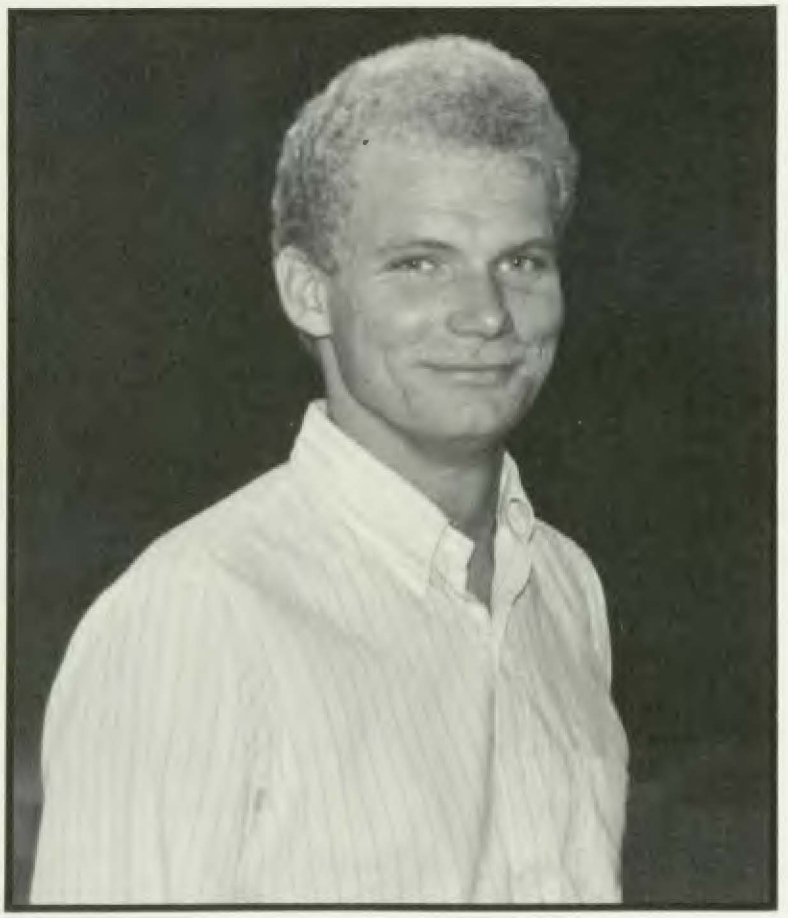
Suzie Gern

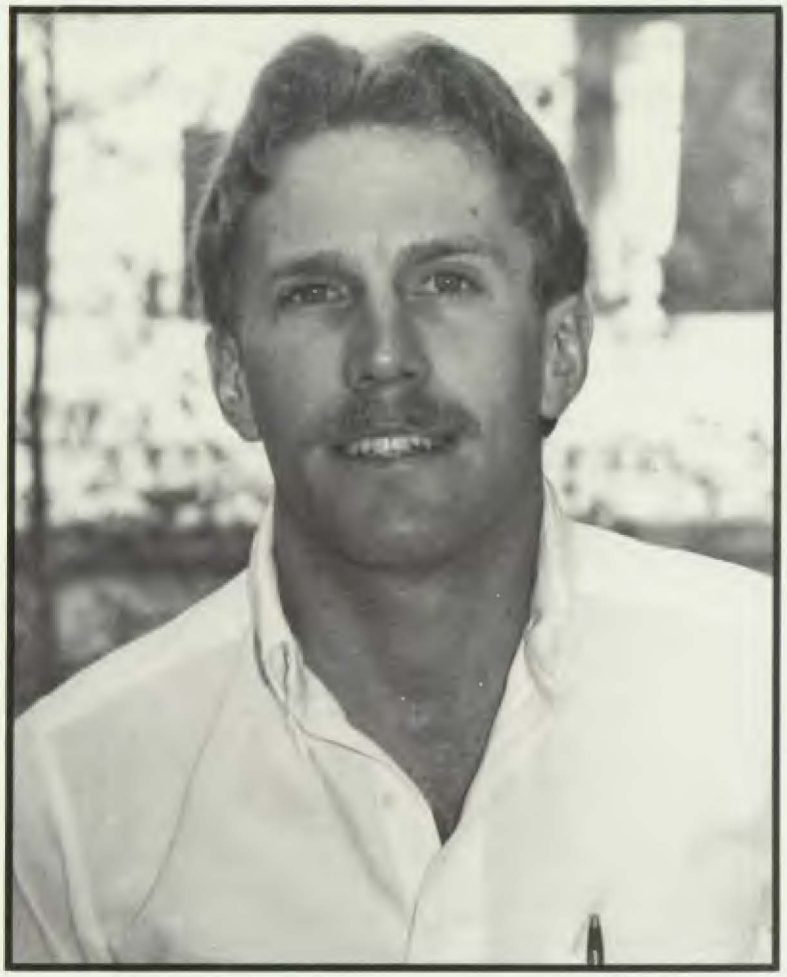
The newly appointed position, held by Suzie Gern, represents the Greek System at all Senate meetings. Suzie presented events sponsered by the Greek Organizations on campus to the Senate such as the Annual Day on the Bay Jazz Fest, rushes, dances, and activities during Orientation. The Greek System provided activities for all USD students to enjoy.

SEMINARY REPRESENTATIVE

Ray Hart

This year Ray Hart was appointed the position of Seminary Representative. The position is responsible to serve as a liason between the members of the Seminary and the ASB. He attends weekly meetings of the senate and plays an important role in getting the voice of the Seminarians heard. He also helps in the programming of events held by the Seminarians such as the ASB/Seminary dinner and other events sponsered by the Seminarians.





LARK DIRECTOR

Tom Ash

The LARK, as headed by our always-smiling Tom Ash, was busy in bringing entertainment to the USD campus throughout the year.

Sporting events including Monday Night Football, the 1984 Winter Olympics, and the World Series were shown on the big screen TV.

The most successful of events were the Study breaks which provided music and comedy acts combined with beer, wine and refreshments on Thursday nights. Hopefully, these activities will set the precedent for even more enterainment in the coming years. (You can stop smiling now, Tom!)

BULLPEN DIRECTOR

Cathy Harrison

The Bullpen, not to be confused with the LARK, or with the Student Union (even if they are in the same place) brought to us some of the most talented groups in the area. They sponsored the "Noontime Concerts" held every other Wednesday in the Student Union. These jazz and rock concerts brought such groups as Ella Ruth Pigge, Systems and "The Riverpeople" to which students ate to the beat.

The Bullpen, directed by Cathy Harrison, also sponsored the Kennedy Mini-Series on the Big Screen TV in November.

Vera Pantovich, Michael Lynch, Casey Moonan, Cathy Harrison.

Film Forum

Mike Davis

Film Forum exists to provide USD with a broad spectrum of movie entertainment. Directed by Mike Davis, the members of film forum obtained may box office smashes. Films such as "Tootsie", "An Officer and a Gentleman", "48 Hours", "Ghandi", "War Games", "First Blood", "Flashdance", "Trading Places", and many others were presented in Solomon Lecture Hall and Camino Theater. There were also film festivals such as Dustin Hoffman Week, Halloween, Neil Simon and James Bond. Movies included in these were: "The Graduate", "All the President's Men", "Kramer vs. Kramer", "Pyscho", "Halloween I", "California Suite", "For Your Eyes Only", "Octopussy" and "Never Say Never Again."

SPEAKER'S BUREAU

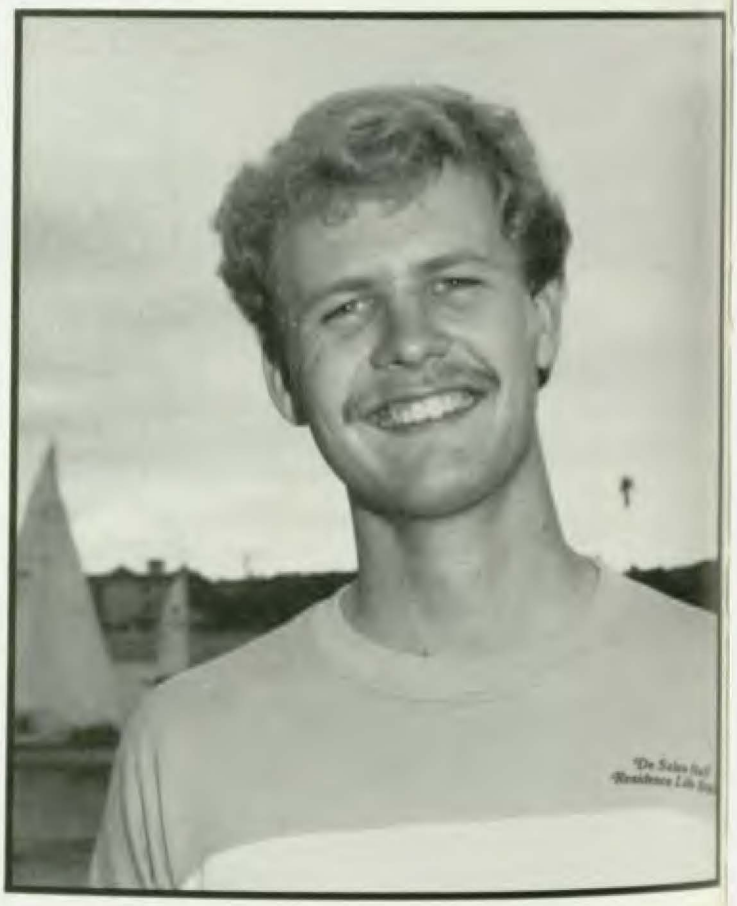
Tim Leahy

The Speaker's Bureau is a force dedicated to bringing informative and entertaining speaker's to USD. Directed by Tim Leahy, the bureau has brought a great variety of guests to appear at the Camino Theater and Solomon Lecture Hall. Fall semester brought Congressman John Anderson and Michael Morganstern of "How to Make Love to a Woman fame to USD to help educate the student body. Tim also helped to make it possible for the "Franken and Davis" appearance. Spring semester promised to be just as good if not better.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

Peter McGuine · Chairman

The Elections Committee headed by Peter McGuine is in charge of conducting all official elections held on the USD campus. From ASB to Homecoming elections, he and his volunteers spend many hours getting people to the polls and counting out the ballots at the end of the day. It's a tough job but someone's gotta do it. The real benefit comes from the knowledge that they have carried out the democratic principle of this country to the best of their abilities—and they also find out who wins first.



STUDENT COURT

Got another parking ticket? Well don't you fret— it's the Student Court to the rescue! USD's own people's court was established to help students and security debate over those many parking tickets that are handed out daily. But seriously folks ... Student Court is the legal branch of the ASB which serves the student body in three basic ways. Aside from the court's work with parking violations, the Court reviews the constitutionality of all legislation passed by the senate and reviews the constitutions of all clubs and organizations on campus.

FRONT: Kathy Colbert, Robin Randall, Jennifer Murkly, Madeline Russo; BACK: Gene Trebbs, Rosemary Farley, Dante Dorianello, John N. Tenuta, Joe Schruf, and John Blare.

ASB SECRETARIES

Without these lovely ladies ASB would have a hard time keeping organized. Their responsibilities range from typing, taking minutes at meetings, answering phones and greeting and directing anyone who needs help from the ASB. Love 'em or hate 'em ASB just wouldn't be the same without them.

SENATE

This group of highly enthusiastic people make up the ASB Senate. They have been elected to oversee all ASB related events and serve the students here to the best of their ability. They try to provide an atmosphere conducive to quality academic and social life. From dances to faculty forums, these are the people at the top to blame. Thanks guys! (and gals!).

BUDGET COMMITTEE

"THE BUCK STOPS HERE!" as Truman put it is a good way to describe the Budget Committee. You can program any event you'd like but if they don't like it forget it! These are the mighty trustees of the ASB Budget. They see that every penny of your ASB fee is spent by the right people for the right reasons to make your life here at USD memorable. Remember these faces! and next time you want to put on an event with ASB money make sure your nice to the dark-haired guy standing in the back.

The program board, headed by our notorious Vice-Prez, Mark Ginella, was responsible for the planning of all of USD's on and off campus social activities. Composed of representatives from every aspect of student life (from Mary "I need your picture taken for the yearbook" Markovinovic to Mike "I have a movie scheduled that night" David) the program board scheduled events such as Homecoming, MBAC Days and Torero Week. They planned and organized events by the various campus organizations so that there were no conflicting dates.

In the Inter-Club Council (USD's version of the U.S. Congress) groups slugged it out for some $4,000.00 a semester. Composed of representatives from every USD club, the ICC served as a source of information to clubs and as a collective interest of this council to the Senate, Program Board, and Budget Committee.

Headed by the never-weary Secretary of Student Organizations, Shawn O'Hearn, the ICC funded such diverse affairs as the Barkman Talent Show, various bake sales, several dances, Mission Club dinners for the poor, fishing trips to Ensenada, and countless other events.

While the council felt it was consistently underfunded and many worthy events never passed funding, it still provided funding for a great deal of what many called "the best year for activities in a long time.

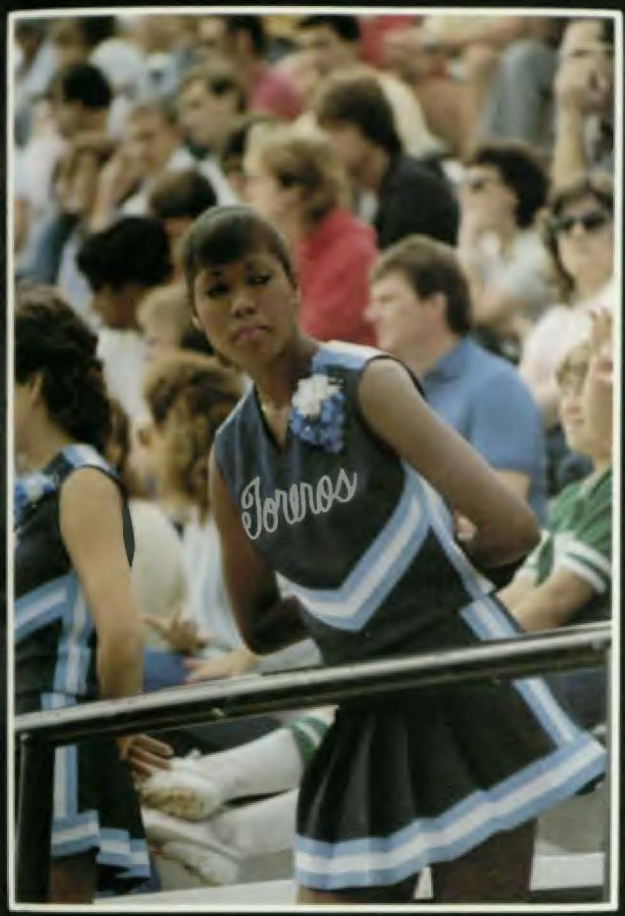
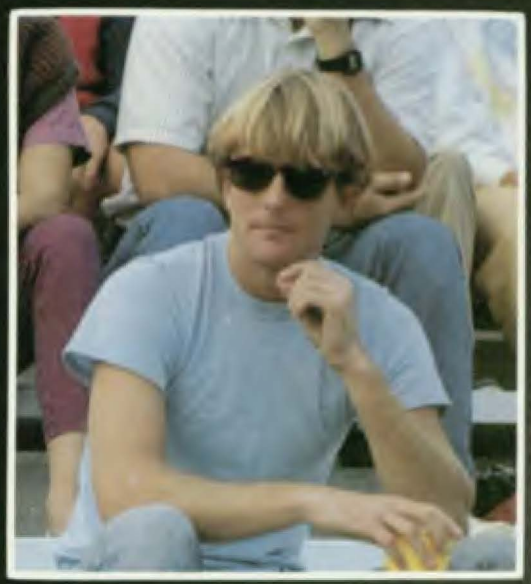
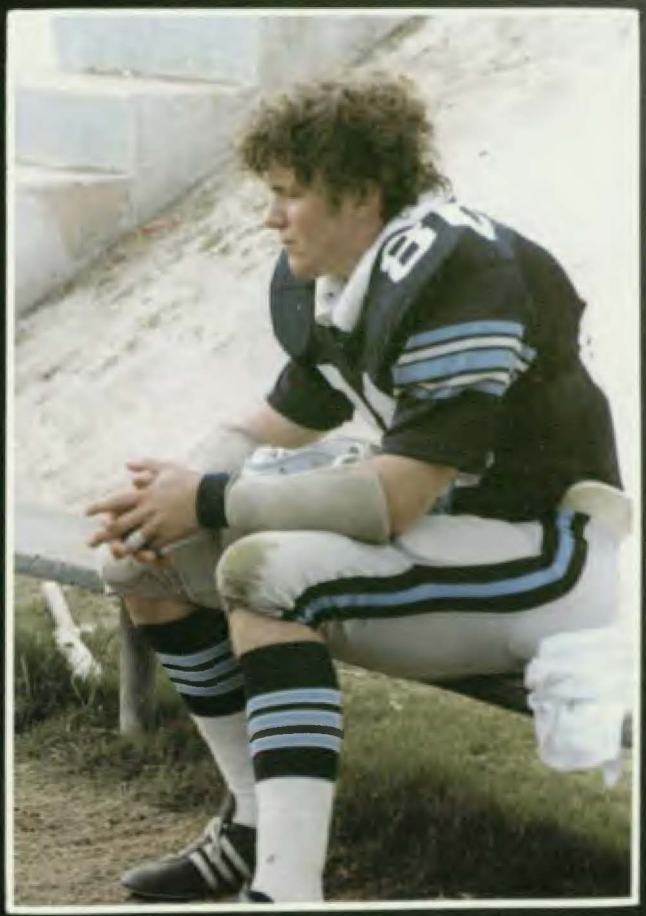
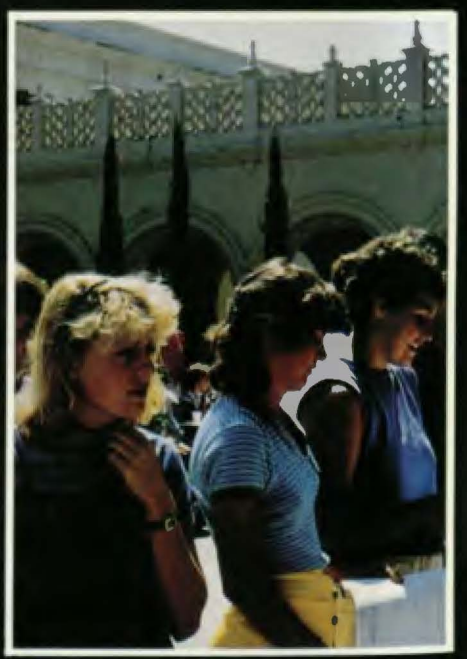
GO TOREROS!









ACTIVITIES

ORIENTATION

Someone once said that the first week at the University of San Diego could be the most important week of your life. Those who experience Orientation Week know that this is true. For many it was their first time away from home, for others it was a week of new people, new places, and new experiences. All the craziness began with opening day and the surprise square dance. The next day started with the memorable Sports Day and how can you miss with a night at Sea World with the penguins, Shamu and dancing to the sounds of "The Toys." The week continued with a Hawaiian Luau and Tom Parks for entertainment. The annual USD Sand Castle contest was next followed that night by an evening of gambling, dancing and fun — Casino Night. The week finally wound down with shopping trips and Labor Day Olympics.

Overall it proved to be a wonderfully new and exciting week that resulted with many new-found friendships.

MBAC DAYS

MBAC Days, sponsored by Social Chairman Bill Hogan, are sun and fun filled afternoons spent at the Mission Bay Aquatic Center. Taking the place of T.G.'s, these days are a time for relaxation and fun on the bay, with some good music and, even better, the company of the KPRI girls.

HOMECOMING BALL 1983

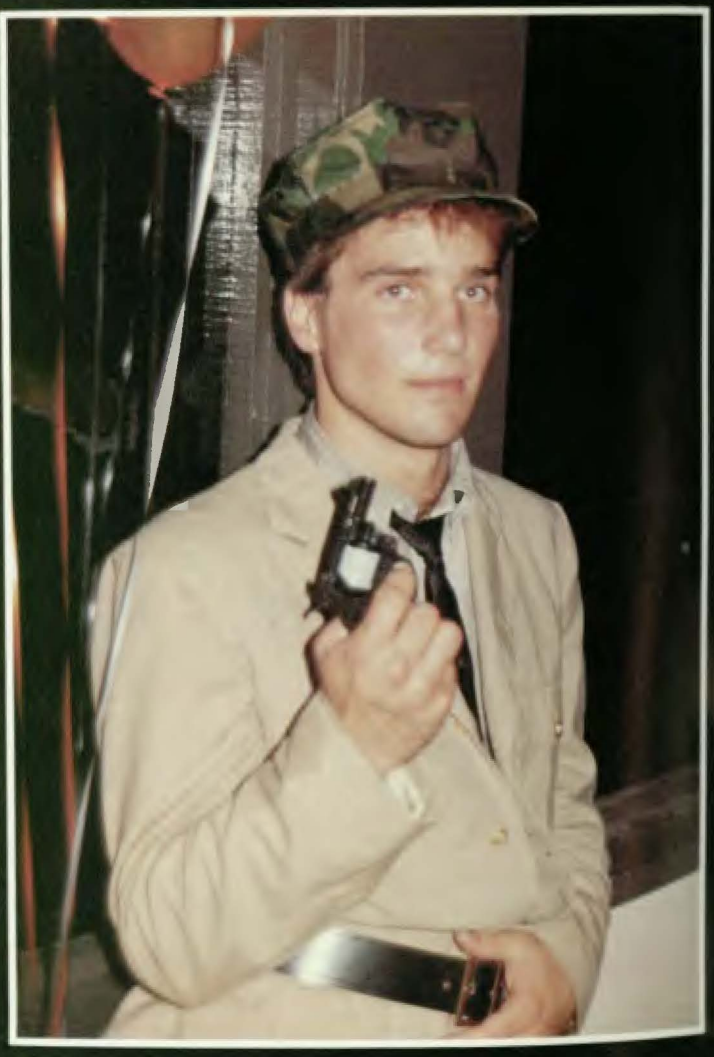
HOMECOMING GAME

USD vs Azusa-Pacific

This year's Homecoming game didn't turn out as everyone had hoped. The Toreros, led by head Coach Brian Fogarty, lost to the Azusa-Pacific Cougars 10-6. The Toreros put up a strong fight and gave the division II team a run for their money but to no avail. Oh well, there's always next year.

HALLOWEEN BASH II



PRESENTED BY THE SIGMA PI FRATERNITY

THE BARKMEN PRESENT . . .

TALENT SHOW '83

Sponsored by the Barkmen, this fall's Talent Show provided a series of entertaining (and not so entertaining) performances by the students.

Master of Ceremonies, Jackson Muecke, attempted comedy and proceeded to present the acts to perform which ranged from "The Rubber Band" to the original performance of "The Bugle Boys."

First prize went to Mary Duren for her outstanding performance singing and playing the piano. Mike Lewis won second for his "Tribute to Lionel Richie" and third prize was awarded to the "One Jerk and a Squirt" guitar and vocals performance by Rob Driscoll and Steve Poltz.

With entertainment by the talented Steve Poltz and attempted humor by "Lucky John", how could you have missed with this event, even if it was on a Saturday night and you wanted to stay home and study?

The French Parlor Series was a series of cultural events which took place in Founder's French Parlor. These included weekly concerts given by both professional and also USD talent. VIDEOMANIA

This year everyone was making voices. First came Michael Jackson's, then Public Relation's video on USD, and then ... came a video made by the students of USD. To help spread the theme of "Puttin' on the Ritz" one was made to the tune by students dressed in 1920's costumes ready to show their stuff. It was shown at the spring talent show and was as fun to watch as to be in.

FRANKEN AND DAVIS

The 1983-1984 school year was one in which USD did it's best to get top-notch acts to come to perform on campus. Obe of these acts was Saturday Night Lives's own Franken and Davis. The duo did an exclusive performance for USD displaying their comic talents in a variety of skits and short films. Some of these skits were very funny some were not but USD had the pleasure of partaking in the "Al Franken Decade" which is something were are not likely to forget.

Oxfam is a charity widely supported by many colleges and universities. It has become the number one charity of USD. Each year, campus ministry and various organizations on campus, sponsor a variety of events to raise money. This year we had the seminarians' dunking booth, the ADPi annual rock-a-thon, Sigma Pi's "Day on the Bay" jazz fest and many more. The students managed to raise a lot of money while having a great time!

FACULTY FORUM

Faculty Forum is a successful series of student/faculty discussions. These forums occurred every other Tuesday night at the Mission Crossroads and provided an informal but very interesting part of the education system here at USD. All students are invited to join in on discussions varying from politics to financial aid, as well as to get to know your teachers better.

BACCHUS PRESENTS THE THIRD ANNUAL CELEBRITY ROAST

The third annual Bacchus Celebrity Roast was held in elegant DeSales Dining hall on November 11. On this night tribute was paid to Resident Director, John Trifiletti, or "Trif", as he is affectionately, and not so affectionately called. The gala evening began with a fantastic meal followed by the evening's program.

Master of Ceremonies, Jackson Muecke, led the roasting, or burning, along with Dean of Students, Tom Burke, Fr. Larry Dolan, Dr. Terry Whitcomb, Mary Pat Hoffman (who by the way came in 2nd place in the Bo Derek look-alike contest held in Iowa last summer), Mark Killeen, and a special appearance by Dr. Phil Hwang.

After a slow but painless roasting, and being ridiculed about his gadgets and devices, "Trif" finally got the opportunity to defend himself and even the score. The evening ended with a tied score and everyone satisfied with an enjoyable evening spent with good friends and in good spirits.

In memory of the 20th anniversary of the assasination of President John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963, many groups presented a variety of specials and documentaries on the life and death of the president. ABC had it's "Kennedy" miniseries and USD had it's own "Live from the Bahias" Kennedy Address sponsored by the Phi Alpha Delta Pre-Law Fraternity.

The president arrived in the afternoon with his entourage of press agents, secretaries, security guards and wife Jackie. He then proceeded to give a repeat performance of his 1960 inaugural address since many USD students weren't around the first time it was presented.

The President, with his usual charm and charisma sent the crowds into a fury of applause. Rumor has it that the President is seeking re-election. He may be dead but then again President Reagan has been accused of this many times himself.

BASEBALL

The Toreros played an exciting season to overcome last year's record of 10-18-1. They battled powers such as UCSD, Grand Canyon College, University of the Pacific, Army, Arizona, Long Beach, Fullerton, Loyola, UCI, Pepperdine and even Iona University from New York.

The pitching staff was led by Seniors Russ Applegate and Mike Fazekas, Sophomore Casey Morales and newcomers Greg Bertrand, Tom Seyler, and Matt Francis. Junior Eric Bennett switched from first baseman to catcher and proved to be a valuable asset. Holding up the infield was Junior Paul Van Stone who provided leadership as team captain, and is one of the best hitting shortstops in the league. Other Infielders were newcomers Robbie Rodgers, Bill Ismay, Steve deGennaro, Dan Echeveste and walk-on Brian Locher. The outfield was supported by returning Senior Andre Jacas, who holds the record for base stealing, his brother David Jacas, Sophomore John Slaught, Doug Brooks and backup Brian Wisniewski.

As stated by the Coach John Cunningham, "I definetly think we have more punch in the line up than we've had in recent seasons."

'MEN'S BASKETBALL

ONE SHINING SEASON

The University of San Diego's basketball team, under the direction of Head Coach Jim Brovelli, surpassed last year's fourth place finish by ending their season as WCAC champs. In their hottest season ever the Toreros were given the opportunity to go to the NCAA championship games in Philadelphia at the end of the season.

Losing only two players to graduation, the Toreros were strong in experience and ability with their returning players and the appearance of several shining newcomers. Starting the season off to our strong position were new players to USD Chris Carr, Mark Bostic, Al Moskatel, and Scott Thompson. Other newcomers included Eric Musselman, Nils Madden, and Steve Krallman. Our returning players were Seniors Mike Whitmarsh (who played a major role in the achievement of our goals), John Prunty, Bill Penfold, Dave McIver, and Randy Brickley, Jr. Anthony Reuss, and Sophomores Mario Coronado and Joe Fish, who redshirted last year.

The Toreros played WCAC competitors Gonzaga, Portland, Santa Clara, Loyola Marymount, Pepperdine, and St. Mary's in our conference. In nonconference games they played the Australia National Team, Army, UCI, UCSB, Texas Tech., Spring Arbor College, participated in the Wolfpack Classic playing against UC Davis and Florida A&M, as well as other nonconference teams.

Congratulations Toreros on a well played season and such good showmanship!

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach Kathy Marpe and the eager Toreras played their best season ever in Division I. Ending the season with a winning record of 14-14, the Toreras overcame last years 8-18 record. Senior guard Lori Morris led the team this year to these wins with returnees Sue Hampton, Mary Stanbra and Jill Bradley who added quickness and Sophomore Michelle Dykstra who is always an outside scoring threat. Also back were Bambi Bruning and Lynn Hajdukovich who redshirted last year.

The new recruits provided high caliber players with the likes of Debbie Theroux, Mary Godfrey, and Kelly Schroeder. Rounding out the newcomers were Jeannie Burns, Theresa Halcraft and Cathy O'Brien who redshirted.

The Toreras faced such noted West coast powers as San Diego State, Cal Poly Pomona, University of Nevada-Las Vegas, Pepperdine as well as competition in tournaments at Oregon State and in the Dial Classic.

FOOTBALL

New head coach Brian Fogarty coordinated the offense along with an entirely new offensive staff to a final record of 5-5. Against our own Division 111 competition we excelled, going 5-1.

The Toreros improved their last years record of 4-5 by using the talents of their returning players including the Quarterback Phil Spencer. The new recruits played a major role in a fine defense.

Coach Fogarty preparing for next season said "I'm already looking forward to next season and I feel the program will only get stronger and better."

GOLF

The 1984 golf team is under the direction of first year head coach Brian Giblin and asst. coach Ray Moore. The team hoped to win the WCAC title this year after finishing in second over the last three years. The year featured tournaments in Oregon and Arizona, as well as throughout Southern California. Such tournaments included the USIU, Pacific Coast, UCI, and Southern Cal. invitationals as well as competitions against Loyola, USC Gary Sanders, USD invitational, UCSD, West Michigan and several other formidable teams. The team is lead by returnees Steve Calloway; Capt., John Tenuta, Dan Murnan, Tim Barber, Tom McKenna, Tim Polaxek and Jeff Simon. Bret James, Eric Woods and Dave Green were valuable additions to the team. The team was rounded out by Troy Ciccarelli, Bill Christensen, Doug Meiswinkel, Dave Rollins and Kent Kilpatrick.

RUGBY

While the USD Basketball team continues knocking off those powerhouses of collegiate sports such as Gonzaga or Loyola, and our football team takes such acknowledged giants like Clairmont-Mudd or Pomona Pitzer, the USD Rugby quietly goes about the business of defeating such no name little colleges as UCLA, USC, ASU, and SDSU. Granted, the Ruggers are the only team in Division I competition and the football and basketball teams don't get their fair shot at these "overrated big boys"; but we can only imagine the outcome if they did.

Meanwhile, USD Ruggers again not only played these teams, but for the second year in a row missed winning their division by one game. And while you might not find the prospering Basketball or Football teams out promoting themselves, the Ruggers actively publicize (door-to-door sometimes) their home games and their ongoing traditional post-contest festivities. This year the hometown crowds numbered from 200-1000.

The largest crowd of one thousand came out to witness the Ruggers 1st annual Turkey Bowl tournament. Held over the Thanksgiving break, USD hosted teams from Arizona, Northern California, and even a touring side from New Zealand. USD took second in this tourney as well as second in the OMBAC invitational.

The Ruggers, unassuming modest lads, will attempt to further their winning tradition next year. However, that task will be made extremely trying given they will find themselves hard pressed to replace graduating Mama G. The man that will waddle forward to carry the burden will probably be none other than that powerhouse-"fat Pace". All others will follow in his huge shadow.

SOCCER

The USD men's soccer team began its fourth season as an NCAA Division I member and a member of the Southern California Intercollegiate Soccer Association. The Toreros' schedule pitted them against some of the top teams on the west coast including UCLA, SDSU, Santa Clara, Stanford, USIU and UNLV.

Head Coach Seamus McFadden will have 20 players on his roster this year with 10 of them returners. Leading the defensive attack will be senior Luis Ceil who will be playing in his fourth year as a Torero. Another top defensive player that Seamus is expecting to be a stopper is junior Jorge Guerra who is in his third year out of Mexico.

Hoping to supply some offensive punch will be a couple of sophomores with a year of experience under their belts. Mike Snorsky and Ryan Blain will both be counted on by Coach McFadden to produce an offense year.

Seamus on this year's team, "We are a very young team with a lot of freshmen and sophomores. However, I feel that we gained credibility last year. We were very competitive and in a lot of close matches. This season we are definitely looking to turn the corner."

SOFTBALL

This was the fifth year of women's softball competition in the NCAA Div. II for the Lady Toreros. This season they competed in the Southern California Softball Conference (SCSC) along with LaVerne College, Whittier College, University of Redlands, and UCSD. The season was both exciting and challenging.

Led by Coach Kevin McGarry they proved to be strong opponents for the other teams. Returning players included: Bridget Quirk, Bridget McGarry, and Kathy Whitaker. Newcommers included: Theresa Rommel, Diane Romo, Sally Christman, Lori Hoefer, Kristen Lamphire, Debbie Waynick, Aileen Kelly, Lisa Ures, Michelle Dykstra, Kelly Schroeder, Chris Darby, Mary Jo Gallina, Peggy Weaver, Chris Burke and Chris Goodbody.

SURFING

This year's Surf Team and Club underwent several improvements. They were more organized than ever before. In existence for over 5 years they have really been "shredding" their way to the top. The Executive Council comprised of 5 members of the team led the group to competitions against other schools up and down the coast. Two tough competitors included O.C.C. and U.C.S.D. The top 12 surfers from the club made up the team, including four girls and two kneeriders.

"Surfing brings you into a position of unexplored possibilities. Its gifts can only be reached by putting your best foot forward, locked in and totally committed. God's tracts of liquid real estate are ridden with an immense freedom which reflects the individual approach."

-Dean Markus-

SWIMMING

The 1983-84 swimming and diving team made a good showing in the NCAA Division I competitions. Opening its 2nd season with returnees Jan Hollahan; last years most valuable swimmer and this years team captain, Laurie Maddock who set two USD records in the butterfly, Ce Macevicz, Michelle Riffle and Jacque Pinch.

Ten newcomers gave added depth and power to the team and will continue in the future. They include: Carolyn Quinn, Kathryn Krueger, Laurie Birney, Stacy DeGooyer, and Shelly Adoo. This year's diving team consisted of Victoria Green, Kym Milburn, Laura Mostero, and Michele Pieksma.

Coach Gay Becker said at the start of the season that "We have depth and speed with this very enthusiastic group of swimmers." This was surely evident as this year's team came very close to achieving their goals of qualifying for the Nationals and winning the WCIC Conference. They face competitions against UCLA, UCSD, Pomona Pitzer, University of Redlands and the University of Nevada-Reno as well as competing in the UCI invitational. Their enthusiasm was demonstrated by two members narrowly missing qualifying for the Nationals.

MEN'S TENNIS

The 1984 USD men's tennis team had a less experienced team this year as a result of the graduating of four of last year's top players. Coach Ed Collings and his netters were challenged to maintain their long string of winning seasons. Only two players in the Toreros lineup were returning players-senior team captain Kevin Young and sophomore Alejandro Ramos who was MVP last year. Newcommers included: Juniors Maris Luters, David Desilets, Doug Bradley and Attila Beyta, sophomore Jim McNamee and freshmen Scott Patridge, John Foster, Bis Houssels, and Amado Yanez.

The fall semester tennis schedule was busy as the spring with USD hosting the annual San Diego All-College Tennis Tournament. They also participated in several local events, as well as the ITCA All-American Tournaments at UCLA, and ITCA SoCal Qualifying at Pepperdine. Team scrimmages were held with SoCal colleges and two Fall intrasquad challenge ladder tournaments were played.

USD competes in a number of challenging intercollegiate tournaments including the San Diego Intercollegiates and the West Coast Athletic Conference Championships (WCAC) of which USD is a member.

THE ALCALA '84 STAFF

If anyone told me that I would be spending my junior year being the editor of the yearbook I would have laughed. No way, I thought, Sherry Smith was destined to be the editor. It turned out that she wanted to spend a year concentrating on school so the job was vacant. In a moment of sheer insanity, I went for it and got it.

There was absolutely nothing to prepare me for this job. Yes, I had been the editor of my high school yearbook. Yes, I did work on the yearbook staff here and Michael Fowlkes did his best to try to help me. It still was a totally new experience. When I first got the job, Dr. Brandes, dean of the graduate school, told me to make sure I get my priorities straight. I thought I did, but yearbook always seemed to beat out my classes. Dedicating myself to producing a good yearbook was almost an emotional investment. I really cared about my job.

Following in the footsteps of Michael Wayne Anthony Fowlkes was a task in itself. Under his administration, the yearbook placed first in the American Scholastic Press Association contest. It also sold-out in the box office and had a decent budget deficit. Then again, what do you expect from a business major.

Work began in early summer. I managed to put together a decent staff and, with the help of my co-editors, we turned out one great book! Not that we didn't have any problems. Deadlines became almost non-existent and I am now probably as sick of dealing with the 60 clubs on campus as Shawn O'Hearn.

Spence Webster spent almost as much time in the yearbook office as I did. We had a great time trying to print hundreds of pictures the day before a deadline. We especially enjoyed looking for negatives which disappeared into the "black void" of the darkroom. What can I say, Spence, I couldn't have done it without you!

Paula Dobin and Russ Board were both part of the New York take over of the yearbook office. With three New Yorkers on the staff, how could we go wrong?!

Lisa Rosales and Tony Johnson were the two "invisible hands" of the staff. They stayed in the background, but made sure that the business end of the yearbook went as smoothly as possible. Katherine Farrand was also somewhat invisible, but, turned out to be a great trouble shooter. You guys were great and, Tony, I swear I'm not angry at you!

Mary Francis and Don Pannier were the sweethearts of the staff in more ways than one. How you did the index I don't know. Thanks for being there. A special thanks to all those staff members who stuck with us through thick and thin, and showed up when we needed them the most!

Behind the scenes we owe a great deal of thanks to: Barbara Schimtz, our advisor, for all her support and enthusiasm; Ed Shoen of Jostens' for being so helpful and understanding; and to Sue Walter, of Varden Studios, for saving my life more than once. We can't forget Mohammed and all those at Lorna's who graciously employed most of our staff at one time or another. And last but not least, Jon, for putting up with my insanity for these past few months.

LOOKING BACK

Beaver 13:69-74

69 And as it was in those days, there was no draft, but, verily, people still went to college. And the campus was covered with darkness. And a light needed to be found. And so it passed the VISTA was brought down from above. And verily, it was so good.

70 And through the eons, the VISTA fathers begat neophyte editors. And Tim Ryland begat Vern Ismen. And Ismen begat Frank Lowe. And Lowe returned the favor, and verily, Ismen returned to begat the twins, Matt Piselli and Robert Madden. And they begat Carol Damon, who, verily shrewdly, re-begat herself. And the administration looked down upon the creation and got acid-indigestion.

71 And students went in haste and found the VISTA lying in a corner of the student union; once they saw, they understood and began to write and drink in praise and glory of the VISTA.

72 Carol treasured all these things and reflected on them in her heart.

73 And so gathered around the VISTA were the gonzo, like Father Joe Mularky; the Beav Arcaro; and, verily, Greg Animus Bart. And so gathered around the VISTA were the cosmic, like Arian E.E. Collins and Andy Wasa. And so gathered around the VISTA were the holy, like Emily Schell, and the holty-toity, like Lorenzo Milam, And so gathered around the VISTA were the cerubs, like Michael Hall, Michael Berman, Dwayne Conn and Vince Kasperick.

74 And, verily, it was so damn good.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

It was four, long years ago and I was but a naive freshman who wanted to take over the world or at the very least, the Vista.

The first organizational meeting consisted of two, wet-behind the ears seminarians, who were running the show. I knew it was mine from that moment. Filled with irrelevant press releases, the Vista was an impressive eight pages. During my second semester, I was appointed Assistant Editor, which was one step up from my old position of News Editor, whatever that meant. My plan was working. The Associate Editor post was around the corner with my sophomore year. The Vista had it's first sixteen page issue that year; I didn't realize that sixteen pages would become the norm in a few months. My junior year brought with it the culmination of my dream; I was the lucky masochist who would oversee that wild bunch of sex starved maniacs known as the Vista staff for the next two years.

These past two years have been the most memorable of my entire life and it will be very difficult to top them. The knowledge and experience I have gained is immeasurable, but the friendships I have formed will be treasured forever. I would not have been able to accomplish my goals without this fine staff. I want to express my appreciation for all their hard work. Special thanks go to my roommate and best friend, Gina "Beav" Arcaro, who kept my mug filled and a smile on my face.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

This past year has marked a great many changes here at USD. Policy changes include the renewal of the Dead Week program, the beginnings of a new alcohol policy and the institution of new library rules to provide a more conducive environment for studying.

The faculty suffered the loss of a part-time anthropology teacher, J.J. Mitchell, who died of a heart attack. Fr. Dolan served his last year at USD soon leaving for a parish in Escondido. Several teachers went on sabbatical including: Sr. Walsh and Dr. Schoenherr in the fall and Sr. Tim and Dr. Otte in the spring. Dean Burke and his family were guests on "Family Feud" and came home $10,000 richer. Several faculty members were also involved in a T.V. special on the book 1984 by George Orwell.

Tim Beaulieu and Mark "Mama G" Ginella both managed to survive the year as ASB president and vice-president. Plans for KUSD radio ran into problems before they could get on the air. The Alcala '83 yearbook won first place in the American Scholastic Press Association yearbook competition.

USD's Men's Basketball tied for first place in the Division I WCAC Championship. The colonies of Sigma Chi and Gamma Phi Beta sorority came to campus and "frat fever" raged on. Parking problems increased when Marian Way was closed to parking.

The biggest changes have been with the opening of three new buildings on campus. The new Copley Library opened with modern facilities to serve the growing USD population. Manchester Hall opened giving more space for classes and conferences and the new school of Business is in the final stages of completion. All of this gave the old "Alcala Country Club" its new impressive look.

ENTERTAINMENT THIS YEAR

1983 was a big year for changes in the world of entertainment. Musically speaking, MTV changed the way we looked at music and paved the way for groups such as Duran Duran, the Culture Club and the videos of cuts from Michael Jackson's "Thriller" album. Winning eight American Music Awards and making the best selling album in history made Michael Jackson this year's superstar. David Bowie came back for "Modern Love," the Police 'synchronized better than ever, Diana Ross got rained on in Central Park, Bonnie Tyler belted out "Total Eclipse of the Heart," and Pat Benatar sang even louder.

In television, MASH ended its eleven year run as one of America's favorite TV series, Joan Rivers will be the sole guest host for the Tonight Show, and "The Thorn Birds" was the most-watched mini-series. Laura returned to "General Hospital" for six weeks only to walk off into the sunset again only this time with Luke.

"Return of the Jedi" was named the top grossing movie of the year and Jabba the Hut as its star. Following was "Tootsie," "An Officer and a Gentleman," and "Flashdance." The soundtrack from "Flashdance ignited the aerobicise craze accompanied by the 'Flashdance look' and "What a Feeling" as felt by those who participated in aerobics, and which became the topselling single as sung by Irene Cara. Sly Stallone coached and directed John Travolta in "Staying Alive" in which Travolta revived his role as Tony Manero from the original "Saturday Night Fever". Other popular films included "Vacation," "Risky Business," "Silkwood," and "The Big Chill." Overall, this year was a year of some of the most entertaining films yet.

THE YEAR IN SPORTS

1983 was a year of highs and lows in sports. The USFL made its debut in the spring, the Washington Redskins won the Superbowl, and the Kansas City Royals won the World Series. While these teams were flying high on spirit, other athelte were getting high elsewhere. This led to great controversy and strict rulings regarding athelte and the use of cocaine by the NBA and NFL.

Among the years lows was the passing of Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and boxing champ Jack Dempsey. For the first time in 132 years the United States lost its hold on the America's Cup and lost it to Australia. The umpires disallowed George Brett's home run because of too much tar. Three weeks later, however, this decision was overruled and the final half inning was replayed and the Royals went on to win against the Yankees 5-4.

The 1984 Winter Olympics were played in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and the United States brought home seven medals. Among them was Bill Johnson from Van Nuys, Ca. who won the gold in the men's giant slalom. Debbie Armstrong received the gold and Christin Cooper, the silver, for women's skiing competitions. Rosalynn Sumners won the silver in women's figure skating and Peter and Kitty Carruthers received the silver medal in the more acrobatic pairs competition. Perfect sixes were earned by the British couple of Torvill and Dean who brought home Britain's only gold and America's sweetheart, Scott Hamilton, brought home the gold for men's figure skating.

Closer to home, the University of San Diego's basketball team beat their record by tieing for first place in the WCAC Division I conference playing one of the most exciting season's ever. Meanwhile most of Southern California prepares for the 1984 Summer Olympics. (continued from page 3)

IN THE NEWS

While the students of USD experienced the joys of summer and the activities of the Fall and Spring semesters the rest of the world experienced a few more anxious moments.

U.S. troops invaded Grenada, over 220 Marines were killed in Lebannon and Korean Airlines flight 007 was shot down for violating Soviet air space. Early 1984 brought apprehension at the appointment of Constantine Chernenko as the new Soviet Leader after the death of Uri Andropov. 1983 Nobel peace prize was won by Lech Walesa, leader of Poland's Solidarity Union.

At home, 1983 held many memorable moments. The 20th anniversary of President John F. Kennedy's assassination was marked by "Kennedy", the mini-series and Jesse Jackson officially declared himself the 1st black candidate for President. Sally Ride became the 1st women astronaut and our phone bills rocketed with the breakup of AT&T. Dr. Barney Clark was the 1st person to survive the implantation of an artificial heart and lived 112 days before succumbing to pneumonia. Jason Robards staggered in the aftermath in "The Day After" reviving the controversy of nuclear arms. James Watt resigned as Secretary of the Interior after insulting almost every minority in America.

Unfortunately, with the passing of 1983, several key personalities passed on as well. Among them were: Jessica Savitch, Frank Reynolds, singer Karen Carpenter, actors David Niven and Michael Conrad of Hill Street Blues, Football suffered the loss of Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant and boxing lost the former heavyweight champ Jack Dempsey. Dennis Wilson of the Beach Boys died as did Arthur Godfrey, Ethel Merman and Miss Lillian Carter who died of cancer at age 85.

I want you to know I am very proud of you and I love you dearly, Mom

Working on the yearbook this year has been to say the least a "unique" exper·ience. I love photography but working in the dark room by yourself for five and six hours at a time causes one's mind to slowly dete·riorate. I am by no means saying that I start·ed out with a full deck, but now I'm missing more cards than ever. This year was a blast and I know that I will have a lot to look back on in the future, that is, if I ever get out of this place. Memories that first come to mind about this year are: MBAC days, surfing, T.G.'s at Flanigans and Diego's, surfing, Hal·loween at the Voyager, surfing, parties at the Surf Rider, studying, surfing, snow storms, and I even had time to go surfing. You can really tell what my list of priorities included. I hope everyone else's year was as Academically Stimulating as mine. Con·gratulations to those few who took this whole thing seriously and were able to gra·duate.
