FEBRUARY FACULTY MEETING

Since we had no faculty meeting in January, there are several items which need the immediate attention of the faculty. For this reason, we would like to schedule faculty meetings as follows, with apologies for two meetings in one week! There seems no alternative, since it is impossible to cover the business in just the Tuesday meeting, and the items are urgent.

I. Tuesday, February 4, 1969, 11:00 a.m. to 12 noon, Room 14. Agenda:

1. Unfinished business from previous meeting: Mexican Studies Program Proposal from the Curriculum Committee (the faculty received precise information on this before the December meeting at which it was to be voted on).
2. Admissions requirements
 - Report from Sister Bourret
 - Discussion and voting on proposal distributed to faculty
3. Progress announcements on re-accreditation reports to Western College Association and to State Department of Education.
4. Report from other Faculty Committees, as needed.

II. Friday, February 7, 1969, 3:00 p.m., Student Lounge. Agenda:

1. Unfinished business of Tuesday meeting, if any.
2. Report of the Committee on the Structure of the future USD--discussion of the report by the faculty.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

1. You will be interested in the general plans for Homecoming Week. Homecoming Week is Monday, February 24 through Sunday, March 2. We hope that all faculty and their families will participate in the activities, especially the weekend of March 1-2. The big game with UCSD is here March 1; Sunday is a guitar Mass and brunch. More details will follow. In order to publicize USD in the San Diego community and to take advantage of the 200th Anniversary Celebration, we hope to make Homecoming a particularly outstanding event this year.
2. The formal Memorial Mass for Dr. John McGeever will be offered in the Immaculata Chapel on Thursday, February 6, at 11:30 a.m. Celebrants will be Bishop Furey, Bishop Quinn, Father Eagen, Father Walters, and Father Baer. Please do your best to see that students are informed about the time of the Mass, so that we may have a good number present.

OFFICE OF THE ACADEMIC DEAN

1. The second Tuesday of February, at 11:00 a.m. will be left open by CM and CW for joint departmental meetings and discussions, as arranged in last October's Memorandum from the two Presidents. It is hoped that through these meetings proposals to the Curriculum Committee for next year's catalog can be worked out in time to meet the February 24 deadline. You are again asked to follow the directions in my Memorandum of January 23, in submitting catalog copy.

2. There will be a Curriculum Committee meeting on February 13, 1969, at 11:00 a.m. in the Conference Room near the Chapel. An agenda will be distributed later to the members of the Curriculum Committee.

VIOLIN CONCERT

Mr. Henry Kolar, on leave from our faculty to complete doctoral studies at the University of Colorado at Boulder, is in the San Diego area for a few days, and will join with Miss Mysior in a violin-piano concert on Monday, February 3, 1969, at 8:00 p.m. in the CW Theatre.
