DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

Dr. John S. Bradshaw, authority on Conservation and Environmental Quality, and member of the Coastal Lagoon Study Group of San Diego, has been honored by an invitation from Governor Ronald Reagan to participate in the Governor's Conference at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, November 17 and 18 on California's Changing Environment.

Drs. Virginia and A. M. Livingston will leave next week for New York to deliver a series of papers on their work on abnormal organisms and toxic compounds isolated from malignant tumors, at the New York Academy of Sciences meetings.

Dr. Livingston's group, includes Dr. Jackson of Columbia University and Dr. Diller of the Institute for Cancer Research, Philadelphia. They along with several other scientists will comprise a section at the meetings entitled "Micro-organisms Associated with Malignancy."

FOREIGN STUDENT AFFAIRS

The City of San Diego through its International Affairs Board will entertain our new foreign-born students on Friday, October 24, giving them a tour of the Harbor by boat. Also included is a guided trip through the Unified Port and the City Administration offices, a reception by the Mayor, and a full-course dinner at the U. S. Grant Hotel. The program starts at 12:00 noon until 9:00 p. m.

This is the second year that this event has taken place. It includes foreign students from all colleges in the area.

Fourteen new students from U.S.D. will attend, evenly divided between CM and CW.
