IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD PROFESSOR TELLS OF STUDENTS' RESEARCH ON PIONEER FAMILIES

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --Historical research of students at the University of San Diego College for Women was described in an address to the Southern California Genealogical Society last week in Los Angeles. The theme of the meeting was a "Salute to San Diego."

Sister Catherine McShane, professor of history and chairman of the women's college department of history, spoke on "Genealogical and Historical Research on the Pioneer Families of San Diego."

The work of students was in collaboration with the Bi-Centennial Committee on Pioneer Families and Genealogy. Sister McShane is a member of the organization.
