LIBRARY

Marjorie Rosevear, Library Director, was guest speaker for Dr. Baker's class at California Western University on Thurs. evening, Oct. 19. The Subject: "When you write for children."

Alice Cordtz (Mrs. William) is now Periodicals Librarian, replacing Mrs. Branyan, who resigned Sept. 1 to enter UCSD.

Gale Yawn (Mrs. Joe T.) has been appointed to fill the position formerly held by Cynthia Heinz, who is now enrolled at San Diego State College.

CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT

Allan Fay (Chemistry, 1967) has passed all of the qualifying exams at UCSB where he is a first-year graduate student in chemistry. Since only a relatively small percentage of entering students pass all of the qualifying exams, his performance is a significant personal achievement and an excellent reflection upon the chemistry department at the College for Men.

OFFICE OF THE CHAPLAIN

Fr. George Hardy has initiated evening discussions on religious and moral topics for University students. The first discussion was held in Fr. Hardy's residence and the second was held in the College for Men, moderated by Fr. Neal Dolan, member of the Chancery staff. The discussions will continue to be held on an available time basis.

The University Mass was offered for Mother Nancy Morris, president of the College for Women, on her Feast, Fri., Oct. 20. The Mass was concelebrated by Fr. Hardy; Fr. John Portman, Vice-Rector of the School of Theology and Fr. Dennis Ryan, faculty member of the School of Theology. Approximately 400 students participated. Members of the TKE fraternity served as ushers at the Mass.

Last Wed., Mass was offered for and participated in by the members of the ADG fraternity. Fr. Terry Van Orshoven, ADG chaplain, concelebrated with Fr. Hardy.
