IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARTIST TO CREATE 'ENVIRONMENT' AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --A multi-media environment will be created in the University of San Diego College for Men Library and be on public display Feb. 4 to 28.

Mago, noted for her varied art forms and work in "encounter" groups for young adults, will create the setting. An 88 foot mural, "Credo," will be the backdrop for a display of mural studies, bronzes, sculpture, drawings and acrylics. An informal open house at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 4, at the library will introduce Mago and her work.

Mago, known in private life as Mrs. Fidel Orona, 9937 Maine St., Lakeside, will also display art work used as a medium of communication with youth. The work is used with young adults for developing esthetic and spiritual values through their own visual and sensory perception, Mago said.

Mago creates murals in her Lakeside studio and has exhibited in many recent art festivals.
