IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCGEEVER TO BE MEMORIALIZED IN PONTIFICAL MASS,

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --A Pontifical Mass in memory of Dr. John Francis McGeever will be concelebrated at 11:30 a. m. Thursday, Feb. 6, at Immaculata Chapel, University of San Diego.

Concelebrants will be the Most Rev. Francis J. Furey, the Most Rev. John R. Quinn, the Very Rev. John E. Baer and full academic representation. Bishop Furey is chancellor of USD, Bishop Quinn, provost, and Father Baer, president of the College for Men.

McGeever, head of the University of San Diego College for Men Department of Education, died Jan. 9 of complications following surgery in St. Louis, Mo.

The faculty of the University has established the John Francis McGeever Memorial Scholarship at USD. The perpetual scholarship will be awarded annually to a student in the teacher education program at USD at the beginning of the student's senior year.

McGeever, who headed the USD College for Men Department of Education and teacher training program since 1966, had previously been dean of student personnel at Palomar College, San Marcos.

His survivors include his widow, Margaret, of 5720 Erlander Drive, and a daughter Kelly Ann.
