OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

On March 7 and 8, Father Baer attended the annual meeting of the Western College Association in Sacramento. The meeting provided an opportunity to discuss mutual problems and programs with representatives of the other institutions within the area served by our accrediting association.

On March 9, Fr. Baer attended the NCEA regional meeting at Sacramento State College. The topic for the day's discussions was the place and function of Theology in Catholic college curriculum.

THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

On Thursday, March 14, Dr. Leland Carlson will speak at 8:00 p.m. in More Hall on "The Rise of Puritanism." Dr. Carlson is associated with the Theology Department of Claremont Graduate School, and is a visiting lecturer for our own Theology Department.

COMMITTEE ON THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

The Committee's recommendation establishing guidelines for Interdepartmental Majors has been approved. The suggested guideline:

Number of Departments: 3

Lower Division: 12 units (6 in one department,
3 each in two other departments)

Upper Division: 24 units (12 in one department,
6 each in two other departments)

Advisor: Chairman of the department in which 12 U. D. units will be taken.

The Committee's next meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 19, at 12:00 in the Conference Room. The agenda: consideration for a Speech Major and Academic programs in light of the objectives of the College.

DIVISION OF HUMANITIES

Irving W. Parker, Chairman of the Division, has been named Editor of The Trust Manual being prepared by the Trust Division of the California Bankers Association. The project is expected to take 2-3 years to complete. Initial meetings will be in Los Angeles April 17 and in Santa Barbara April 26.

FACULTY BULLETIN

Please remember the deadline for the March 21 issue of the Faculty Bulletin. It is Noon, Wednesday, March 20. Thank you.

THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT
