OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Word has been received of the death of Mr. William Cox, father of Mrs. Charlotte Phibbs, secretary in our Business Office. In your kindness please remember Mr. Cox and the members of his family in your prayers.

THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Dr. Leland Carlson of Claremont will present his second (and final) lecture of this semester in More Hall on Thursday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m. The title of this talk will be "The Decline of American Puritanism."

ACADEMIC STANDARDS COMMITTEE

The Committee will review the Dean's statement on standards of marking for the purpose of assistance in guiding the faculty in this area.

POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Dr. Reed will attend the National Education Association meeting from April 25-27 in Washington, D. C.; also, the Americanism Commission meeting in Indianapolis from April 29-May 1.

CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT

Dr. Peterson of the chemistry department will spend the summer months as a visiting research scientist at the radiation laboratory of the University of Notre Dame. The radiation laboratory is the largest and probably the most renowned center for research in radiation chemistry in the world. Dr. Peterson will be studying energy transfer processes in systems subjected to high-energy radiation.

Mr. Wayne Wheeler who will graduate with a B.S. in Chemistry this June has been awarded a teaching fellowship in chemistry from the University of Notre Dame. He plans to begin graduate study in chemistry at Notre Dame this coming fall.

The chemistry department of the College for Men will be described in a new International Chemistry Directory to be published by W.A. Benjamin.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

Last Thursday Miss Martin accompanied two forensic students to Grossmont College to participate in the San Diego Collegiate Forensic Association Video Tournament. Oral interpretations of "Death is a Drum" by Ray Imblum and "Views of America" presented by John Miller will become a part of the video tape forensic library on the Grossmont campus.

POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The Government Institutional Examination which is held each semester is scheduled for: Friday, April 26, 1968; 3-5 p.m. in Room 208. Instructors, please inform all students wishing to take the examination to register with the Department of Political Science. There is no charge for the examination.
