COLLEGE INFLUENCE ON STUDENTS TO BE DISCUSSED AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--A nationally known psychologist will discuss the impact of colleges on their students at the University of San Diego Friday, March 14.

Dr. Theodore Newcomb, visiting professor of psychology at the University of California at San Diego will speak at 12:15 p.m. in the USD College for Women Theatre.

Sister Irene Lawrence, chairman of the USD College for Women sociology department, said, "Dr. Newcomb will pose a question which has to be faced squarely and is a challenge to the faculty of any university." The talk is directed to students as well as faculty, she noted.

A professor of psychology at the University of Michigan, Dr. Newcomb is author of the text, "Social Psychology," used by numerous universities, and has prepared many studies on the subject of his talk.
