OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

Acting Dean:

President Hughes has authorized me to name Dr. Carol Baker, Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, to the role of Acting Dean until Joe Pusateri's return. As many of you are aware, Joe is in the hospital. It appears that it will be a few weeks before he is able to return to his office.

All of us appreciate everything Carol is doing to facilitate the work of the Dean's office as she handles both her own role and that of Acting Dean.

Enrollment for the 1983-1984 Academic Year:

Attached to these Newsnotes are the final enrollment charts for the regular academic year 1983-1984, with both Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) and head-count enrollments included for all segments of the University.

An analysis of the attached charts will reveal to you a number of factors:

- Undergraduate enrollment is above projections for fall, spring, and annual average; the net attrition rate was 7.4% instead of the budgeted 7%; the 7.4% compares to a net attrition rate of 6.5% last year and 4.7% the year before;
- Graduate enrollment declined sharply for the spring semester, and we are well below budget for the current year;
- School of Law enrollment is under budget by 6 day students (annual average) and 15 students over budget for evening students; LL.M. enrollment is considerably under budget for full-timers and somewhat under for part-timers; the Los Angeles LL.M. program is on target.

Congratulations:

Congratulations to President Author Hughes on his election as Vice-Chair of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities at their annual meeting on January 27, 1984, in Washington, D.C. The NAICU provides a national voice for independent colleges and universities, and keeps the public and government informed about the concerns of independent colleges and universities. NAICU keeps its members informed of government actions that affect their ability to meet America's educational needs.

Pre-Registration Statistics:

In early December, 1983, the following number of students pre-enrolled for spring semester. For comparative purposes, figures for the last two years are included:

Juniors	603	655	640
Sophomores	667	688	770
Freshmen	640	984	981

In January, 1983, 89 undergraduate students who did not pre-register enrolled anyway. In January, 1983, 226 graduate students and 19 special students who did not pre-register enrolled anyway.

Faculty Handbook:

It has come to our attention that faculty members in possession of the older versions of the Faculty Handbook do not have a copy of the Tuition Remission Policy as revised in October, 1981. It is attached to these Newsnotes for inclusion in your Handbook.

UNIVERSITY SENATE

The University Senate has revised policy in regard to "Dead Week." The term "Dead Week" will not be used in the new Bulletin for 1984-1986. Beginning in the 1984-1985 academic year, University policy regarding examinations prior to final examinations will be as follows:

"In fall and spring semesters, examinations are limited during the week prior to final examinations. There may be no major examinations: minor quizzes are permitted as long as they are listed on syllabi at the beginning of a semester and do not count for more than 10% of the course grade. Laboratory practicums, papers, oral reports, and make-up examinations are permitted. Students are responsible for class attendance and material presented during the week before final examinations."

The Senate is reviewing ARRT policies on campus to determine whether those policies conform to academic due process standards. If you have comments or suggestions, please share them with your senators as soon as possible.

UNIVERSITY RELATIONS

Development Office:

Many of you in the campus community are in contact with alumni and friends of USD. The Development Office is entering the final phase of locating graduates so that we can keep in touch with them and tighten their bond with the University.

Your help is requested in letting our office know about address changes when you become aware of them. Please feel free to call our office (ext. 4300) or forward notes, intercampus, to Guadalupe Hall, Room 203. For Law School updates, phone ext. 4373 or forward to More Hall 203B. Thank you very much.
