Lightning Talk: Can This Be Redacted? Developing an Institutional Repository and Addressing Privacy Issues

Presenter 1 Title
Repository Librarian

Session Type
10-minute lightning talk

Abstract
“Can This Be Redacted? Developing an Institutional Repository and Addressing Privacy Issues” will explore privacy issues in terms of patient health information that have emerged as Oregon Health & Science University expands their institutional repository beyond theses and dissertations. The lighting talk presentation will focus specifically on student projects from the physician assistant program, School of Nursing, and the Northwest Native American Center, a center specifically focused on the health care needs of Native Americans in the U.S. The impact of a migration out of BePress and into Samvera will also be discussed.
