IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BAND, CHOIR, SPEAKERS FOR ARCHBISHOP'S FAREWELL

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.----A Marine Corps Band and Color Guard and the Bishop's Boys Choir will provide musical entertainment at the public diocesan farewell to the Most Rev. Francis J. Furey at the University of San Diego, July 20.

Superior Court Judge James Cunningham of San Bernardino will be one of the speakers. Judge Cunningham is a former mayor of San Bernardino and former State Assemblyman.

The ecumenical farewell program, to be held in the outdoor theater of the USD campus, will include selections by the Band of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot and the redcoated Bishop's Choir which has been prominent during the 200th anniversary celebrations. There will also be a Color Guard from MCRD.

Speakers representing various sections of the community will give short addresses, according to Mrs. A.J.C. Forsyth, chairman of the program committee which represents the USD trustees.

"We do not intend to have a long formal program," said Mrs. Forsyth. "This is an opportunity for people from all parts of the four counties to meet with Archbishop Furey before he leaves for San Antonio, Texas."

From San Diego, Francisco P. Marty will speak as a member of the USD board of trustees and as a member of the large community of Americans of Mexican descent with whom Archbishop Furey has been associated.

The Superior of the Religious of the Sacred Heart in San Diego, Rev. Mother Frances Danz, will speak for those Sisters who founded and built the College for Women on the University's Alcala Park campus.

The farewell reception will start at 4 p.m. on the USD campus where ample parking is available. "The capacity of the outdoor theater is several thousand persons and there will be no reservations and no tickets," said Mrs. Forsyth.

"We hope it will be an occasion which will be short on speeches but long in personal farewells," she added.
