IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COL. SALOMON JOINS USD FACULTY

SAN DIEGO, Calif.----Col. Irving Salomon has been appointed visiting professor of political science at the University of San Diego.

In making the announcement, the Very Rev. John E. Baer said Col. Salomon will teach the course "International Crises" this fall. Father Baer is coordinator for the coordinate colleges, University of San Diego. Col. Salomon, former U. S. delegate to United Nations, is an author, TV commentator, business executive, as well as an expert in foreign affairs.

"Col. Salomon will bring to the classroom years of experience in international politics," noted Dr. A. Paul Theil, chairman of the department of political science at the USD College for Men.

While associated with the United Nations, Col. Salomon was U. S. delegate to the 13th General Assembly of the United Nations. In 1953 he was chairman of the U. S. delegation to the UNESCO Conference in Paris and American delegate to the ECOSOC Conference in Geneva.

He has been a consultant to the federal government, including the War Department in 1947, and the Munitions Board in 1949. He has also been a consultant for the Fund for Adult Education, the Fund for the Advancement of Education and the Ford Foundation.

Honorary president of the San Diego UN Assn., Col. Salomon is also a member of the board of the Foreign Policy Assn. He is president of the
