IN MEMORIAM

MICHAEL M. KONZ
1966-1992

Volume 30:3 is dedicated to our friend and classmate, Michael M. Konz, who died during his second year of law school at the University of San Diego. Michael was working as a labor negotiator while attending law school and dreamed of a career as a labor attorney.

There are many wonderful things we remember and admire about Michael. He was a bright, hard-working, and diligent student. Michael was a major contributor to class discussions and his great sense of humor and quick wit brought laughter to our lives. He had a great sense of integrity and fairness and an optimistic attitude. He always challenged himself to reach his full potential while encouraging and helping others to do the same. As Michael's mother so aptly put it, "Michael was so fair in his thinking about other people. He always saw the good in them. And that is why he was so easy to love."

Michael will continue to be an inspiration to us all.
