IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLACK EDUCATORS TO DISCUSS ORGANIZING

SAN DIEGO, Calif.-----San Diego area black educators will meet at the University of San Diego Oct. 18 to form a chapter of the California Association for African-American Education.

Willie Moore of USD, San Diego area representative to CAAAE, said the formation of the chapter will enable informed educators to work on student and community problems.

Eleanor Evans of the San Diego School District and Geraldine Rickman of COPE (Community Opportunity Programs in Education) are assisting in organizing the group.

The organization meeting will begin at 10 a.m. and will be held in the USD College for Men. Registration for the conference will begin at 9 a.m.

Development of a communications network leads the agenda. Other items to be discussed are the role of the black professionals in local education and the local community and the kinds of changes needed in education.

The group will attempt to involve black educators, members of the community and students with its efforts, Moore said.
