Office of the President

Dear Faculty,

welcome to the 1998-1999 academic year! The great strength of the University of San Diego is its faculty, and I am happy to greet you at the beginning of this academic year. I also welcome our new academic leaders; Dr. Paula Cordeiro, Dean of the School of Education, and Professor Daniel Rodriguez, Dean of the School of Law. I hope that all of you enjoyed restful summers and return invigorated and eager to begin the new semester. This will be a special year for us, since 1999 is the year in which we will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the charter founding the University. I think that Bishop Buddy and Mother Hill would be pleased to see how the university has grown in 50 years, and would be particularly pleased with the dedication to students and scholarship which characterizes the USD faculty. It is timely that in this golden jubilee year, in preparing for our WASC Accreditation, we will be exploring the implications and applications of the Teacher/Scholar model to which we aspire. I look forward to greeting you - new faculty, returning faculty, adjunct faculty, tenured faculty, emeritus faculty - at the President's Convocation on September 18th.

Office of the Provost

Mass of the Holy Spirit

The University of San Diego's annual opening all-University Mass of the Holy Spirit will be held on Friday, September 11, 1998, at 12 noon in the Immaculata Church. Members of the faculty, staff, and administration are cordially invited and encouraged to participate with the students in this Mass to ask God's blessing on the University and its community in the new academic year which we have just entered.

University offices and services throughout the entire campus will be closed from 11:50 a.m. to about 1:40 p.m. on Friday, September 11, to enable staff members who so wish to attend the Mass.

Human Resources

Benefits Orientation

Newly hired faculty, staff, and administrators must contact Esther Nissenson at ext. 8762 to schedule a Benefits Orientation. Insurance enrollment must occur within 30 days of eligibility.

Kaiser Urgent Care and Emergency Phone Numbers

Kaiser requires appointments for all Urgent Care services. For Urgent Care, call 1-800-777-5131. The Zion and Vandever Urgent Care Centers are closest to USD. In the case of life-threatening emergencies, call Kaiser's emergency number at 528-5700.

Worksite Wellness Surveys for Faculty

In order to measure faculty interest in various health care issues, a worksite wellness survey will be distributed through campus mail on September 14. Those who return the survey by the September 25 deadline will be entered in a drawing for prizes donated by Kaiser Permanente and Health Net. Based on these suggestions, worksite wellness seminars will be offered during the academic year.

Open Enrollment: November 9-20

All benefit-based employees will have the opportunity to enroll in their 1999 benefits through an Internet Web Site during this fall's Open Enrollment, November 9-20. The Web Site will be accessible from computers on campus and at home.

Fall Tuition Remission

Human Resources must receive a tuition remission application for part-time students no later than 10 days before the first day of class. Late fees may be charged for applications received after the deadline. Tuition remission forms are available at Human Resources.

Retirement Benefits Reminder

Each benefit-based employee is eligible for participation in USD's 403(b) retirement plan. Employees may receive USD's 10% contribution after completing one year of service. Contact Vicki at ext. 8764.

ERISA Report

The 1998 Employee Retirement Income Securities Act (ERISA) reports have been filed with the U.S. Department of Labor. Copies are available in Human Resources. (A charge of 5 cents per page covers copying expenses.)

Varia

Jim Gump, Associate Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, was recently selected to the National Fulbright Screening Committee.

The American Historical Association-Pacific Coast Branch, designated Dr. Gump's article, "A Spirit of Resistance: Sioux, Xhosa, and Maori Responses to Western Dominance, 1840-1920," Pacific Historical Review (1997), as its outstanding article of 1997, bestowing the Louis Knott Koontz Memorial Award in August, 1998.

Larry Hinman, Department of Philosophy, did a presentation in May at the Central Division Meeting of the American Philosophical Association on using multimedia presentations on the World Wide Web.

Dr. Hinman participated in two panels in May at the Sports Ethics Conference at the University of South Florida, one dealing with the effects on the media on sports and the other on the NCAA's responsibilities in Division I college athletics.

In August, Dr. Hinman made a presentation to the Computing and Philosophy (CAP) meeting at the World Congress of Philosophy in Boston on Web broadcasting. He was named a co-organizer of next year's CAP West meeting. Dr. Hinman was also named an associate editor of Philosophy on the Internet.

Ethics Updates, Dr. Hinman's Web site, was selected as a 3 star, 'Best of the Web,' site by Britannica On-line. It is also being reviewed in the upcoming issue of College and Research Library News. Hinman's review of translation software appeared in the summer issue of the APA Newsletter on Computers and Philosophy.

Dr. Hinman's article, "Stunning Morality," appeared in the Winter/Spring 1998 issue of Criminal Justice Ethics. He also published an Op-ed piece, "Stun Belts Are Subject to Abuse," in the Los Angeles Times, August 10, 1998.

Dr. Hinman published an essay on using computers in the classroom in USD's Access, and it is now being reprinted in the APA Newsletter on Computers and Philosophy. His article, "Multimedia Resources for the Web," will also appear in the next APA Newsletter.

Dr. Hinman also wrote a successful grant proposal to the E. L. Wiegand Foundation for a third year of funding for the Ethics Across the Curriculum program.

Patricia Kowalski, Department of Psychology, presented a poster entitled, "Changes in College Students Motivation to Learn," at the American Educational Research Association Conference in San Diego.

Mitch Malachowski, Department of Chemistry, gave a presentation entitled, "Tetrahedral Copper Complexes: Using Biphenyl Ligands to Enforce Unusual Geometries on Metal Complexes," at the 216th American Chemical Society National Meeting held in Boston, August 23-27.

Dr. Malachowski led two workshops at the 7th National Council on Undergraduate Research meeting held at Occidental College, June 25-28. One workshop was entitled, "How to Institutionalize Undergraduate Research," while the second focused on, "Establishing Undergraduate Research at Institutions with a Limited Track Record." At the meeting, Dr. Malachowski was reappointed as Chair of the CUR Nominations Committee.

Virginia Muller, Department of Political Science, spoke last December on two evenings at the Rancho Bernardo Community Presbyterian Church on "Abundance and the Wonder of Christmas."

Dr. Muller spoke to the North County Chapter of the World Affairs Council and the Continuing Education Center of Rancho Bernardo in January on "Human Rights: What Role in U.S. Policy?"

Dr. Muller also presented a paper, "Distributive Learning: Distance and the Academy" at the Western Political Science Association meeting in March. There, she also presented, "Perspectives on Assessment," at a roundtable on Assessment in California Universities.

In May, Dr. Muller gave a talk on "Gandhi's Nonviolence" at Copley Library. She also spoke on KPBS-TV, with Gary Jacobsen of UCSD, on a program on Elections and the Media.

Over the summer, Dr. Muller participated in the National Conference on Peace and Justice Education on the Catholic Campus at Iona College in New York. She also served as guest host on "These Days in San Diego" on KPBS-FM where she interviewed Cokie Roberts on Our Mothers, Ourselves (May); Cristina Garcia on The Aguerro Sisters and Dreaming in Cuban (May); Paul Vanderwood of SDSU on The Power of God against the Guns of Government: Religious Upheaval in Mexico at the Turn of the Nineteenth Century (July); Gayle Feldman on Hannah Frie (August); and Evelyn Kirkley of USD's Department of Theological and Religious Studies on Theosophy and the Point Loma community Lomaland (August).

Judith Muñoz, Director of Human Resources, serves on the national board of the College and University Personnel Association and chaired the board of the South West Region of CUPA. At the 1998 regional conference she received an award for outstanding contributions to the field of human resources administration and CUPA.

Rana Sampson, Director of Public Safety, was invited to Washington, D.C. by the Brookings Institution to give a presentation on the role of community in community policing. In attendance were 20 leaders in community crime prevention including several police chiefs, representatives from the Enterprise Foundation, the Citizens Committee, the clergy, and the White House. The Brookings Institution expects to put together a follow-up roundtable next year.

In June, Ms. Sampson was invited by the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF), a national police think tank, to give a presentation to the Senior Management Institute for Police on the use of advanced problem-solving in addressing chronic crime problems. The institute is a joint project of PERF and Harvard's JFK School of Government.

Marie Simovich, Department of Biology, attended meetings in St. Louis of the Ecological Society of America. She gave an invited talk entitled, "Ephemeral Pool Crustacean Diversity," and also presented a poster entitled, "The Consequences of Diapause in Ephemeral Pool Crustaceans," with Dr. Tom Philippi from the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Simovich edited Studies on Large Branchiopod Biology and Conservation (1997: Kluwer Academic Publishers) with Clay Sassaman and Denton Belk.

Dr. Simovich also published the following papers: "Crustacean Biodiversity and Endemism in California's Ephemeral Wetlands," in C.W. Witham (ed.) Ecology, Conservation and Management of Vernal Pool Ecosystems, pp. 107-118, (1998: California Native Plant Society Publishers); "Reproductive Isolation and Genetic Differentiation in North American Triops (Crustacea: Branchiopoda: Notostraca)," Hydrobiologia 359:125-147 (1997); "Population Genetic Structure of a California Endemic Branchiopod, Branchinecta sandiegonensis, Hydrobiologia 359:149-158 (1997), with C.P. Davies and S.A. Hathaway; "Extraction of DNA from Anostracan Cysts (Crustacea, Branchiopoda) for Use in RAPD-PCR Analysis," Hydrobiologia 359:159-162 (1997), with J.A. Moorad and M.S. Mayer; and "Resilience of Anostracan Cysts to Fire," Hydrobiologia 359:199-202 (1997), with M.L. Wells and S.A. Hathaway.

Mary Jo Wiggins, School of Law, has been asked to serve as an advisor to United States Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA). Professor Wiggins has been asked to evaluate and make recommendations to the Senator on proposed bankruptcy legislation currently pending before Congress.

Mary M. Williams, School of Education, gave a presentation in July at the National Character Education Conference entitled, "Assessing Character Education in Classrooms, Schools, and Communities," in St. Louis.

As co-chair of the National Commission on Character Education, Dr. Williams gave a presentation in August at the Association of Teacher Educators Conference in Minneapolis. The Professional Clinic was titled, "Best Practices in Character Education in P-12 Classrooms and Teacher Education Programs."

1. The National Science Foundation

Phone: 703-306-1616

Parent Involvement in Science, Mathematics, and Technology Education

Deadline: 10/15/98

Funds support collaborative approaches to stimulate parents to become informed, active proponents for science, mathematics, and technology education, and to provide strategies and resources for parents to support their childrens' education.

00002

2. The National Endowment for the Humanities

Phone: 202 608-8400

Grants Program

Deadline: 10/15/98

The Education Development and Demonstration Program provides grants to schools and colleges to improve humanities education in the United States. The program supports teachers and educational institutions in exemplary efforts to engage students in sustained, thoughtful study of the humanities.

00003

3. Environmental Protection Agency

Phone: 202-260-6963

Grants Program

Deadline: Open

"Excellence in Leadership" is the title of this pilot program that provides a unique opportunity to test innovative ways of achieving better and more cost-effective public health and environmental protection. Under this project the Environmental Protection Agency offers flexibility in its regulations, policies, and procedures to encourage companies, communities, and other project sponsors to develop and test "cleaner, cheaper, and smarter" alternatives to the current system.

00004

4. The National Science Foundation

Phone: 703-306-1980

Experimental Activities Program

Deadline: 11/01/98

The sponsor's awards support the establishment and maintenance of expensive, specialized resources that are needed for experimental research and education in fields relevant to the Computer and Information Science and Engineering fields and that, once established, can be accessed remotely by researchers nationwide. Experimental partnerships grants support large-scale experimentation by individuals or small groups that previously have conducted research in other modes.

00005

5. The Open Society Institute

Deadline: 10/15/98

Fellowships

The Open Society Institute is accepting proposals for fellowships to support research that will use the arts and humanities to "transform" the culture and experience of dying in America and that will foster innovations in health care, public education, and public policy.

00006

6. The Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

Phone: 202 357-4439

Fellowships

Deadline: 10/01/98

The Center awards 20 fellowships annually in an international competition to individuals with outstanding project proposals in the humanities and social sciences on national and international issues. The Center especially welcomes projects likely to foster communication between the world of ideas and the world of public affairs. The Center prefers its Fellows to be in residence for the entire U.S. academic year (September through May), although a few fellowships are available for shorter periods with a minimum of four months.

02266

7. Jones (W. Alton) Foundation, Inc.

Phone: 804-295-2134

Grant Programs

Deadline: Open

The sponsor supports programs to protect the Earth's life-support systems from environmental harm, and to eliminate the possibility of nuclear warfare.
