CONSTITUTIONAL, LABOR LAW EXPERT VISITING PROFESSOR AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--A visiting professor of law, expert in labor and also constitutional law, will present two seminars at the University of San Diego Thursday, Dec. 11.

Morris Forkosch, professor of law at Brooklyn School of Law, will present a seminar on labor law at 10 a.m., with the topic "Take it or Leave It Bargaining." The seminar is open to law students and members of the San Diego Bar.

At 1 p.m. Forkosch will lead the seminar on "The Constitutionality of the Vietnam War and the Right to Counsel of Draftees." This seminar is also open to all USD students. At this time draftees do not have the right to counsel, said Marc Weisel of the sponsoring Law Forum.

A nationally renowned authority in the two legal specialties, Forkosch is the author of 10 books, contributor to 10 others and has written more than 70 articles for legal journals.
