IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BENEFIT JAZZ CONCERT SET FOR USD EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--A benefit matinee jazz concert will be held at the University of San Diego Monday, March 30, for the university's Educational Opportunity Program.

The benefit concert is being staged by the West Coast Jazz Society in the USD Gym from 3 to 5 p.m.

The Three Sounds, a Los Angeles jazz group, will be featured. Tickets are $2 at the door.

The benefit concert will raise money for the Educational Opportunity Program which is bringing disadvantaged students and members of minority communities to the USD campus.

The Educational Opportunity Program at the university is now directed by Willie Moore. There are more than fifty students enrolled at the university under the auspices of the program.
