IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CCD BEGINS PROGRAM FOR DEAF CHILDREN

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Registration for CCD classes for deaf children will take place at the University of San Diego on Saturday, September 25. Instructors will greet students from 9:30 - 10:30 in the entrance to Founders Hall. Children from six to sixteen years old will be tutored on a one to one student-teacher relationship. There will be a $3.00 registration fee for the first child in a family and $1.00 for any additional children in a family.

Classes will begin October 2 from 10-11:00 a.m. in the Camino Hall Lounge. Father Gerald DeLuney, chaplain of the program, will offer Mass in sign language. Students will view films before going into individual tutoring areas.

To sophomores from USD are heading the program. Terry Duffy, from Long Beach, is a psychology major working towards her credentials for the primary grades. Mary Francis Jackson, from Alhambra, is a music major with a minor in special education.
