USD ORCHESTRA CONCERT FEATURES MARSHA LONG

The University of San Diego Orchestra will feature Miss Marsha Long as soloist for the final Spring Concert on May 7, in Camino Theatre. The concert begins at 3:30.

Miss Long, a Junior from San Diego, has studied with Ilana Mysior for three years. Under Miss Mysior's tutelage, this music major has won recognition as the winner of the 1970 San Diego Symphony Competitions and was the only pianist to win in the 1972 La Jolla Civic Orchestra Competition.

Miss Long is also known locally as a figure skating champion and as an artist. She plays the organ as well as being a talented pianist.

Miss Long will play Chopin's Concerto #1 E Minor.

The University Orchestra under the director of Dr. Henry Kolar, will open the program with Epilogue by Ernest Toch and Theme and Variations by Orensky.

The Concert is open to the public.
