AFRICAN DANCERS PERFORM AT USD SEPTEMBER 21

San Diego, Calif....

Traditional dances which were performed in the coal mines and diamond mines of Africa will be executed on the stage of the University of San Diego's Camino Theatre on September 21. The Umoja Dancers are sponsored by the San Diego Chapter of the National Involvement Association which is affiliated with the Afro-American Cultural Organization. The Organization was established for the recreation of African culture through tradition and reason. It emphasizes the relationship or common characteristics of the Black American and the African.

Curtain time is 7:30. The performance is open to the public.
