USD SCHOOL OF LAW HOSTS ALUMNI

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Diego, January 27, 1973

The University of San Diego School of Law will host a reception and meeting for its Alumni on Thursday, February 1 from 5 - 7 P.M. in More Hall.

For the first time, many will meet Dean Donald T. Weckstein who was appointed to his post last August. Dean Weckstein will present his five year plan to the Alumni.

Mr. Marvin Kratter, an attorney and member of the USD Board of Trustees, will address the Alumni on "The Future of Law at the University." Mr. Kratter was a pioneer in the use of air-rights, and has been an owner of the Boston Celtics and the New York Giants. Kratter has been elected the vice-chairman of the San Diego Coastal Commission.

The USD School of Law is eighteen years old. Key elements in its future development will be an enlarged and improved library; an enhanced and expanded faculty; an enriched curriculum; a greater emphasis on clinical, in-depth research and writing; and community service programs.

Alumni President John J. McCabe, class of 1967, will preside over the meeting which will conclude with the election of officers.

Alumni who may not have received an invitation are asked to call the USD School of Law, 291-6480, Ext. 365.
