Clinton Duffy will speak at the University of San Diego on Thursday, March 22. His topic is "Does the Death Penalty Deter Crime?" The talk will be at 12 Noon in De Sales Hall Auditorium. It is open to the public.

Duffy was born in San Quentin in 1898. His father was an officer at the prison with 35 years service. His wife was also the child of a prison officer.

Duffy began his correctional career in 1929 at San Quentin and was named warden in 1940. In 1951, he was appointed to the Adult Authority Parole Board. He officiated at 90 legal executions and participated in 60 additional ones.

His books include: San Quentin Story, 88 Men and 2 Women, and Sex and Crime.
