PALM SPRINGS STUDENT RECEIVES HONORS AT ENTRANCE TO U S D

September 11, 1973

San Diego, California

Pamela Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Summers of Palm Springs, California received honors at entrance at the University of San Diego. The announcement was made on September 5 by Dr. Edward Foster, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Honors at entrance are awarded to twenty entering students. The award represents recognition of an unusual high school career, reflecting both academic and leadership qualities.

Miss Summers will be one of 400 new students at the University of San Diego. The University is comprised of one College and three professional schools: the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, School of Education and School of Law. USD offers a complete undergraduate program and graduate studies leading to a Masters Degree. Day and evening classes are held on the centrally located campus. Forty-two states and twenty-two foreign countries are represented in USD's student body of 2,600.

Included in Miss Summers' achievements which earned her the award is the fact that she was Secretary of the Associated Student Body and awarded as a member of the Speech and Debate teams.
