ADDITIONAL ARTICLES

The Editorial Board of the San Diego Law Review prepares and edits, with the advice of the Faculty, the student section of each issue of the Review. The articles are received from students who have been invited to write for the Review on the basis of either high academic achievement or success in the annual writing competition.

Unfortunately, because of budgetary restrictions, not all the student material can be published in the San Diego Law Review. Consequently, a number of student articles not published in the Review are submitted to other journals for consideration.

The San Diego Law Review publishes in the final issue of each volume a list of materials that have been prepared and determined to be of high quality, but have not been printed. Copies of these articles may be obtained from the San Diego Law Review Association. A nominal duplication and mailing cost will be charged for each article ordered. Address orders to:
