

PREFACE

As our humble Law Review enters into its Fifty-Sixth Volume, the Editorial Board would like to note a change to our publication. Beginning with Volume 55, the San Diego Law Review became a predominately online publication. Since going electronic, our material is now available at <https://digital.sandiego.edu/sdlr/> as well as in Westlaw, Lexis, Wm. S. Hein & Co., and EBSCO. This trend will continue into the future with the publishing of Volume 56 and subsequent volumes. There are several benefits worth noting that have transpired from this change. First, it allows our Law Review to become universally accessible without cost. Second, it demonstrates our commitment to sustainability. Third, it provides a quicker means to publication as a convenience to our authors, while maintaining the same high quality of editorial care offered by the San Diego Law Review. Although the authors who publish with us will receive physical copies of their issues, others may order physical copies through our printer, Joe Christensen, Inc., at sales@christensen.com.
