MONTCLAIR STUDENT HONORED AT USD CONVOCATION

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Diego, California

Mark Stephen Borchert, of Montclair, California was named as having the highest academic average in his sophomore class at the sixth annual University of San Diego Honors Convocation May 18. Mr. Borchert is the son of Mrs. Betty Borchert of Montclair.

Majoring in Biology in the College of Arts and Sciences, Mark was among eight students to be honored with the class award for scholastic achievement. Mark graduated from Montclair High School in 1972.

The University of San Diego is comprised of one college and three professional schools: the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, School of Education and School of Law. USD offers a complete undergraduate program and graduate studies leading to a Masters Degree. Day and evening classes are held on the centrally located campus. Forty-two states and twenty-two foreign countries are represented in USD's student body of 2,600.
