UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO ANNOUNCES SUMMER SESSIONS

AT USD, PARIS AND GUADALAJARA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of San Diego is providing a full summer of programs and sessions during the period June 2 to August 22, 1975.

Three week programs and courses, and six week courses include offerings in the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Education, School of Business Administration, and the School of Nursing and Allied Health Science will be offered on the university campus on Linda Vista Road. Special programs in the fields of Law and Liberal Arts are available also in Paris, France and in Guadalajara, Mexico.

A number of classes given at the USD campus are scheduled between 4:00 and 10:00 p.m., to accommodate Evening College students, service personnel, business people and others who must work during the day.

Courses may be taken at the undergraduate level, for credentials, or in one of a number of graduate degrees for credit. Classes may also be taken for personal enrichment, for pay increments, or upward mobility benefits.

Among the new programs available at USD is the Lawyer's Assistant Program during the period June 9 to August 22, which will train a "new breed" of college graduate-- the one with specialized skills-- as a means of improving job opportunities.

USD's Institute on International and Comparative Law at the Institut Catholique de Paris E.S.S.E.C., will take place in Paris between July 1 and August 9, 1975. A brochure on that program may be obtained from the Institute on International and Comparative Law, School of Law, University of San Diego. The USD School of Law will also provide four courses this summer in Guadalajara in Public International Law, Immigration Law, Latin American Law and Institutions, and Comparative Commercial Law. They will be taught by University of San Diego School of Law faculty and visiting professors. Information on the programs in Guadalajara may be obtained from USD School of Law, Law Program in Guadalajara, University of San Diego.

The University in cooperation with several American universities and with the Institute of Technology (ITESO) of Guadalajara, conducts a six week summer session in Guadalajara. Course offerings include Spanish language at all levels, art, sociology, psychology, history and political science with instruction in both English and Spanish. For further information write to USD in Guadalajara, DeSales Hall, University of San Diego.

Information about the summer sessions may be obtained by calling the University of San Diego in Alcalá Park for a Summer '75 Bulletin, or by going to Room 108, Founders Hall on campus.
