ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

Mme. Jeanne Rigsby, Professor of French at the University of San Diego, has planned an elegant afternoon for those who converse in French. April 19

Francoise Gilot, noted La Jolla artist, will speak at 2 p.m. in Salomon Lecture Hall, De Sales Hall. Her topic, "Matisse and Colette," will be broached from her own personal friendship with the artist and writer, each having influenced her works. The lecture will be in French.

Two couples from the diplomatic corps in Los Angeles will be here for the talk and the reception which follows. They are Consul General of the French Embassy and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Francois Roux and the French Cultural Attache and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neville. Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pierre Paris, French Consul in San Diego, will also attend.
