BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND ACCOUNTING CLASSES

USD SUMMER SESSIONS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Day and evening classes will be offered this summer at the University of San Diego in Accounting and Business Administration.

B.A. 102: Human Behavior in Organizations, and G.B.A. 299: Policy Formulation and Administration, will be offered during the Pre-Session June 2-20. G.B.A. meets during evening hours.

During the regular session June 23-August 1, Principles of Accounting, Cost Accounting, and Research Methods in Business will be available. G.B.A. 212: Advanced Decision Sciences, meeting evenings, will include an in-depth examination of the deterministic tools of management science and their application in decision making. Topics covered are mathematical programming, network analysis techniques, inventory control and decision simulations.

Also scheduled is G.B.A. 210: Management Information Systems, which is not listed in the Summer Sessions catalog. The case-study method is used to provide students with an understanding of computer-based management information systems. Topics include technological considerations in information systems design, use of information systems in operational control, management control and strategic planning.

A complete catalog and application may be obtained by calling USD Summer Sessions office at 291-6480 ext. 221, or by writing Summer Sessions, Founders Hall Room 108, University of San Diego, Alcala Park, San Diego 92110.
