BERMUDA TRIANGLE AUTHOR TO SPEAK AT USD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charles Berlitz, author of The Bermuda Triangle, will speak October 16 at the University of San Diego. The lecture will be at 8 p.m. in the Camino Theatre.

Berlitz's lecture, together with slides, charts and other visual aids, will review some of the strange occurrences documented in the section of ocean known as the "Bermuda Triangle" or "Devil's Triangle." Since 1945, over 1000 people and 100 ships and airplanes have disappeared in this area, with no concrete explanation. Berlitz offers several theories: that time or space warps, UFOs or magnetic forces are responsible for the disappearances.

Berlitz, an accomplished linguist and grandson of the founder of the Berlitz schools, is the author of several other books, including The Mystery of Atlantis and Mysteries from Forgotten Worlds.

He is planning a sequel to The Bermuda Triangle, and a work on efforts to find the remains of Noah's Ark.

Admission to the October 16 lecture is $2.00 general admission or $1.50 for students.
