Candlelight glows in the dining room of the Casa de Alcala for the Fall dinner series of USD President and Mrs. Author E. Hughes as they entertain so graciously.

Wednesday evening, (November 12) the Religious of the Sacred Heart who are stationed at the University of San Diego joined Dr. and Mrs. Hughes' special guests, Sister Mary Mardel, RSCJ, Provincial of the Western Province and her two team assistants, Sister Ellen Monsees and Sister Rita McGinn, all of San Francisco. The three visiting religious are touring their Province in preparation for a Congress to be held in Rome in 1976 when Religious of the Sacred Heart from the 200 schools and missions throughout the world will convene.

Through the dining room is furnished in the grand manner, the hospitality is always relaxed and conducive to conversation. The format of the seated dinners preferred by the Hughes was the setting last Saturday night for sixteen guests. Joining the Hughes' were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Trepte, Mrs. Helen Anne Bunn, Mr. William Lord, all of San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. P.H. Johnston of Rancho Santa Fe. La Jollans attending were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Capen, Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mulvihill, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woltman.

Two more pre-holiday parties are planned for November twenty-first and twenty-second.

Casa de Alcala will be trimmed for Christmas in time for two holiday receptions hosted by President and Mrs. Hughes on December 17 and 18 from 4 to 6 pm. All employees of the University are invited to the parties which feature holiday gourmet delights.

The University calendar has also set a very important date for January 10. Members of the benefactors' President's Club will gather for the black tie dinner dance held on the campus. This occasion has become one of the most beautiful and important social events in San Diego since it was inaugurated three years ago when the James S. Copleys entertained in the library named for the late publisher.
