AIRLINE DE-REGULATION DISCUSSED AT USD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michael E. Levine, Luce Professor of Law and Social Change at California Institute of Technology and Professor of Law at the University of Southern California, will speak at the University of San Diego Thursday, February 19. He will speak on "The Economics and Politics of Airline De-regulation" at 8 p.m. in Salomon Lecture Hall, street level DeSales Hall.

His talk, part of the USD School of Law Distinguished Speakers on Law and Economics, is open to the public free of charge. Other speakers are scheduled Thursday evenings through April.

Levine has been at the University of Southern California since 1968. He was appointed Luce Professor at California Institute of Technology in 1973. He has been a consultant for the Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practices and Procedures in 1974/75, as well as for several other organizations in air transportation policy. He is the author of several articles in law and business journals dealing with air transportation regulation.
