ALVIN KLEVORICK TO SPEAK AT USD ON JURY COMPOSITION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"Jury Composition: An Economic Approach," will be discussed by Dr. Alvin Klevorick, Professor of Law and Economics at Yale University, on Thursday, February 26 at the University of San Diego. He is scheduled to speak at 8 p.m. in Salomon Lecture Hall, street level of De Sales Hall.

Klevorick obtained his BA from Amherst College, and earned his MA and PhD from Princeton. He has acted as Consultant to the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education, as well as teaching law and economics at Yale University. He has held visiting professorships in Israel and Austria, and is Associate Editor of the Journal of Public Economics.

His major fields of interest are economic theory, law and economics, market organization and public utility regulation, and mathematical economics. He has published numerous articles in law and economics journals.

Klevorick's speech is part of the Distinguished Lecture Series in Law and Economics presented by the University of San Diego School of Law.
