CHAMBER MUSIC LECTURE/DEMONSTRATION SET AT USD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"Ensemble problems in performing chamber music literature for violin and keyboard" will be the subject of a lecture-demonstration by Dr. Henry Kolar March 9 at the University of San Diego. The program is set for 10 a.m. in the French Parlor of Founders Hall.

Kolar, Associate Professor of Music at USD, conducts the USD Orchestra and is currently Concertmaster of the La Jolla Chamber Orchestra.

Kolar will direct the performance practice in ensemble playing. The program will focus on baroque and classic sonatas for violin and piano as contrasted with those of the romantic period and the 20th century.

The program is sponsored by the Music Teachers' Association of California and is open to the public free of charge.
