BICENTENNIAL FESTSCHRIFT PUBLISHED BY USD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of San Diego Copley Library has issued a Bicentennial Festschrift for 1976, the first Keepsake ever issued by USD. Published by the Friends of the Copley Library, it includes a Bicentennial Salute from the Canadian Consul General in Los Angeles, Donald H. Gilchrist. The Bicentennial Festschrift is available at the Copley Library for $3.50 per copy. It will also be available at the Friends of the Library annual book sale March 12 and 13 in Founders Hall.

A gift of 200 Canadian books is included in the salute. The purpose of the gift is to acquaint the people of the United States with contemporary Canadian writings, and thus to create an increased awareness and understanding of our northern neighbors.

The Festschrift, a collection of articles by different authors presented as a memorial, is designed to honor the Bicentennial. The work is edited by Dr. Arthur F. Ide, Assistant Professor of History at USD. It includes articles on colonial life, British attitudes, and the effects of war on the people of the time. The volume also contains a Bicentennial Bibliography compiled by University Librarian Marian Holleman.

The Festschrift is illustrated with never-before re-produced original artwork from the James S. and Helen Copley Art Collection; book plates executed by Paul Revere and others from the James S. Copley Special Collections; and an original Musical Score written in 1776.

Contributors to the Festschrift include the following USD faculty: Mrs. Holleman; Dr. Ide; Dr. Abdellatif Kriem, Assistant Professor of French; Sister Helen McHugh, Ph.D., Professor of English; Dr. James Moriarty, Associate Professor of History; and Dr. Irene Palmer, Dean, School of Nursing.

Articles are also included by Ronnie B. Jamro, USD graduate student in History; Thomas E. Keyes, Librarian Emeritus of the Mayo Clinic and Professor Emeritus of the Mayo Graduate School of Medicine, University of Minnesota; and Dr. Lucy L. Killea, Executive Director of FRONTERAS 1976.
