FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of San Diego Conference Center will present a wide variety of summer programs. Beginning June 12 and continuing through June 16, there will be a Priests' Institute entitled "Understanding Morality, a Catholic Perspective" which will disclose modern Catholic moral teaching and concepts regarding theology and sin, human life and sexuality.

Social justice, the churches and the Gospel will be topics of discussion in the workshop entitled "Economic and Social Justice" and scheduled for the week of June 19 to 23. Urban ministry, liberation theology and courses of effective action will be discussed. The "Women in Ministry Today" Institute which enjoyed an enthusiastic response to its presentation in the summer of 1977, is returning to the USD campus from June 19 to 23 and will explore the scriptural, spiritual and pastoral roots of women in ministry.

"Mission Possible '78" is a weekend program sponsored by the Board of Global Ministries and the United Methodist Women of the Pacific and Southwest Conferences of the United Methodist Church which is designed to strengthen the local churches in their mission programs by providing information, ideas, study opportunities and inspiration for persons wanting to be involved in the mission of the United Methodist Church. It will be presented to men, women and youth from July 7 to 9.

Three summer courses for the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers members will begin June 11 and continue to June 30. The courses will provide credit toward the appraiser's MAI and RM designations.

Tennis School staff will include members of the University's international varsity team. The California Soccer Camp, sponsored by Sport's World, is a specialized program designed to provide intensive training in soccer for approximately 1100 resident and day-student participants from June 25 to August 18. Also, for the sixth consecutive summer, the Sports Center will host Camp Murrieta West which is a specialized program for overweight girls who will observe a strict diet and specialized exercise programs. There will be two camps, one for girls 8 to 16 and the other for young adults aged 17 to 21. The camps open June 25 and lasts until August 11. The USD Football Training Camp will open August 15 and provide training for the team's '78-'79 football season. Tryouts for the team are most welcomed.

English as a second language will be taught to approximately forty visiting students from Japan. The course will include extensive drill in the fundamentals of expression and comprehension of the language as well as practical experience and will be adapted to the needs of the group. It will be a three week course lasting from July 26 to August 19.
